The information given in this manual is gained from various sources. It is a practical application manual in the ministry to DID survivors.

This manual is dedicated to God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit – Creator of the Heavens and the Earth.
Preface

This manual was put together many years ago out of desperation! We gathered all the information we could lay our hands on, and put it in this manual. In those years, there was no Internet access as we have today.

Any piece of paper with teaching or more understanding on this subject, we grabbed hold of and then made copies to hand out to all the counsellors that wanted to learn about this very unknown part of counselling.

You will see that in this manual we still use the old terminology of alters and multiple personalities. So please have grace for our ignorance as that was our understanding years ago.

We have decided to keep this book as a foundation stone teaching manual because it can still be used to learn the basic steps of DID/SRA.

We have grown much further in our understanding of DID/SRA, and we encourage you to check out our latest teachings are also available.

Where do we go from Here
1. WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

It is strongly recommended that the counselee should work through the training of Course 1 – Soul Care School (available from Kanaan Ministries), as well as counseling dealing with the bloodline.

If the counselee still struggles to get breakthroughs, still have nightmares, experience attacks, anger, frustration, etc., the DES-questionnaire can be worked through with the counselee’s permission.

Discuss the possibility of dissociation with the counselee (if he/she seems ready to cope with it). They usually feel relieved to hear this.

When no memories have surfaced as yet, petition with the counselee, using Pet. A.

Evaluate the need of the counselee. If he/she seems to have a need to be professionally diagnosed, arrange this with a trusted professional psychologist and accompany the counselee throughout. Pray and assist the counselee before, during and after diagnosis is given.

At this point it is important to realize that DID can be the result of either abuse from childhood by parents or others, but with no satanic rituals as part of the abuse, or abuse through various methods that will include satanic rituals. These are well-organized methods with the specific purpose to force the child to dissociate to the extent of forming other personalities. This form of abuse results in the person being DID (SRA) [SRA standing for satanic ritual abuse].

This manual is mostly applicable to those who have gone through satanic ritual abuse and are therefore programmed for specific tasks/roles in the global network and in the exploitation of the false church.

When DID is diagnosed, petition with the counselee, using Pet. B, E and H.

In treating DID (SRA), there are five issues that must be addressed to facilitate a counselee’s recovery (taken from teachings of Jerry Mungadze, Ph. D.):

1. Alternate personalities (alters or sub-personalities).
2. Psychological damage.
3. Physiological damage.
4. Spiritual issues.
5. Programming issues.

Detailed information concerning each of these issues is given in the G-section on page 131 (information by Pastor Leonard Anspach).
Start by working through memories step by step. Here you can use the M-section as a guideline, but always remain dependent on the Holy Spirit for wisdom and guidance.

Confession of sin and renouncing certain ungodly oaths and beliefs will always form part of the therapy. Prayers of repentance are given at the petition section on p.52 and p.53.

The use of the book Prayers of Renunciation from Kanaan Ministries is highly recommended, particularly those concerning Freemasonry, Rosicrucianism, Germanic Roots, Anti-Semitism, Lilith, etc.

Programming always includes trauma, therefore memories and programming (P-section) will almost always go hand in hand.

Help the survivor to organize and get to know his/her “house” (any sub-personalities as part of person). See section H.

Please ensure that the counselee enjoys a healthy diet and will take added supplements, especially Vit. B, Iron, Mg, etc. Prime One or other Multivitamins are strongly recommended right through the counseling seasons.

Petition against the dark side operating against therapy, the counselor, the survivor, the church and other Christians (see Pet. section). Make sure that you as counselor/therapist are under God’s protection by petitioning and covenanting with God. Here Pet. C is very important! If the survivor is not yet aware of the presence of dark alters (sub-personalities), keep this petition private.

Where the signature of the host is needed on the written petition, it is extremely important that the Christian part of the counselee must sign and not any unsaved (dark) sub-personality.

Make sure that this is the case by doing the following:

Counselor:
- Call forth Christian alters.
- Ask God to arrest dark alters.
- Seal the Armour of God onto Christian with Blood of Jesus Christ of Nazareth (J.C.o.N.).
- Seal prayer and Christian part(s).

Host
- Allow Christian to openly confess his/her faith in Jesus.
- Then sign petition.

Counselor:
- Break shock over Christian parts caused by 'betraying' the dark part(s).
NB!!!

Always pray a sealing-off prayer (see page 59) before and after every counseling session.

Always remember to seal every prayer, petition or prophecy and word spoken in the counseling session, with the Blood of J.C.o.N. Forbid the enemy to use any words against counselor or counselee in ANY way. Also forbid any backlash, confusion, misconceptions, misinterpretation of words spoken, prayed or written down.

Declare that only the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth is worthy to break the seal (Rev 5: 2-5)!

Always use the sword of the Spirit and cut yourself, as the counselor, loose - body, soul & spirit - from the counselee and his/her house in the Name of J.C.o.N. This must be done after every session, even when in telephonic contact.

Please note that throughout the manual, praying and addressing the enemies and taking authority can only be done in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth (J.C.o.N.), the Son of God Almighty. It is ONLY in His Name that our authority lies. The counselor’s faith, trust in and personal relationship with Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit and God the Father is essential in the use of this manual.

FOR MEMORIES TO SURFACE

Father God of Israel, we declare that our faith, hope and trust are in You. We believe that Jesus Christ of Nazareth is the Only Saviour, by whose blood we are cleansed from sin. We also declare that we stand in a blood covenant with the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob through the blood of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

It is because we stand in this blood covenant before You that we can place this petition before You with boldness.

Father, we petition that You will, according to Your grace and mercy, start to reveal everything that has been done in the dark and behind closed doors to __________, according to Your Word in Luke 12: 2-3: There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed or hidden that will not be made known. What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the roofs.

Father, we also petition that this information will be revealed under Your protection and only according to Your Word in Exodus 23: 29-30: But I will not drive them out in a single year, because the land would become desolate and the wild animals too numerous for you. Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you have increased enough to take possession of the land. We petition that this will be revealed as __________ is ready and strong enough to handle the information in the way You want __________ to handle it.

Father, we petition for a time of cease fire in the spirit over __________’s life, until __________ is ready and has the knowledge and spiritual strength to fight back. Therefore, Father, we petition that You will protect __________ according to Your Word in Ps 91 and we forbid any backlash because of the release of information, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. I petition that Your good hand will be upon me in this time, according to Ezra 7:9.

Thank You Father for Your faithfulness and commitment to __________. We give You all the glory!!

In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

AFTER EVALUATION, FOR SUB-PERSONALITIES TO MEET, ETC.

Father we declare that we belong to You and believe that You are the only True God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. We believe that only through the blood of Your Son, Jesus Christ of Nazareth can we be cleansed of our sins, delivered and healed. Thank You that we stand in a blood covenant with You through J.C. of N. We focus, Father, on Your ability to save us and on Your love for us. We petition the following for every part of __________’s house, known and unknown.

Father, we petition that Your Holy Spirit will move out from before us and prepare every sub-personality for the meeting and that You will prepare a place like a sitting room in the spirit, for the sub-personalities to meet and to get to know one another, in complete safety.

Father we petition for the willingness of each sub-personality to hear Your truth and to meet and accept Jesus Christ of Nazareth as his/her own Saviour and King.

Father we petition that every demonic link (barrier) between the personalities will be overruled (overcome).

Father we petition that everything that was done in the dark, in secret or behind closed doors (Luke 12: 2-3) will all be revealed in Your time ordained, as You know __________ is strong enough to cope with the memories according to Your ways (Ex. 23: 29-30).

Father we also petition against the spirit of abandonment and isolation to operate in any way, in any of __________’s parts, known and unknown and we petition that they may grow into full dependency on Jesus Christ of Nazareth and not on any other person (supporter, counselor, therapist).

In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, AMEN.
PET.C (part 1)

PROTECTION for COUNSELOR, and DARK SIDES STILL OPERATING in HOUSE

Father God of Israel, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Your Son, I, together with other intercessors in South Africa, petition You for the following with regards to survivors of ritual abuse (SRA’S) and carriers of cult programming (CCP’S):

1. Protection for myself as an intercessor, my family, my relationships, my possessions, my finances, etc. (name specific things of importance). I petition You to protect me through the spiritual armour according to Eph 6; through the power of Your Name according to Matt 12:21, Matt 18:55 and Ps 144:1-2; through Your angels that will form a hedge around me (Ps 91; Heb 1:14); through the Blood of Jesus Christ Your Son and through Your Holy Fire. I petition that You protect me and everything mentioned linked to me against principalities, powers, wicked spirits in the air, human spirits, worldly systems and organizations, any form of energy sent against me, light waves, sound waves, cosmic energy, powers from the earth, powers from the planets, stars, moon and sun, of other galaxies, powers from the waters, powers from under the earth, powers from the realms of the dead or from hell or any other form of power not mentioned but applicable (Rom 8:34-39; Ps 140; Ps 148).

2. Protection for my church, the pastors and leaders and members of the church. I petition that You protect my church against the same powers mentioned above. I petition that You protect my church against the plans of Satan that he wants to orchestrate through SRA’S and CCP’S. I petition You Father, in the Name of Jesus Christ Your Son, that SRA’S and CCP’S can not be used as weapons by Satan and his servants against my church. I petition You that SRA’S and CCP’S be delivered and healed by Your power and grace.

3. I petition for the rebirth of every SRA according to Eze 36:26-27 (spiritual rebirth). I petition that the true identity of these people, as designed by You, Our Father, will be reborn and will be able to grow and mature ("psychological rebirth") as part of the restoration of the soul of the person. (Many rituals and mind control techniques include a psychological death - the true identity of the person must die.) I petition that the true identity will be protected by Your Presence, Love, Mercy and Divine Healing Power (Ps 18:2).
4. I petition that every SRA and CCP that is part of my church, my city, my country or in the world, be delivered from the power of Satan, Lucifer, the beast, the anti-Christ and the false prophet. I petition that they will be delivered from cosmic powers (sun, moon, stars, planets, galaxies, heavenlies and any other cosmic power not mentioned but applicable), territorial spirits, water spirits (the sea, the rivers, etc.), powers from the earth, powers from the mountains, powers from the realms of the dead, powers from hell, and the specific demons assigned to keep their programming in place. I petition that all other demons or human spirits that are part of their systems be expelled or dealt with by You at the right time and in the right manner (Eccl 8:5-6). I petition that their demonic armour will be penetrated by Your Power and Love and be removed at the right time and in the right manner and be replaced by Your spiritual armour.

5. I petition that all things that are written up with regards to the SRA and CCP in my church, city, country and world in the heavens, between the stars, on the earth, under the earth, in the waters and the waters under the earth - every place of secrets - be wiped out and deleted by the power of the Blood of Jesus and the power of Your Word - be it covenants, plans, oaths, vows, or any other kinds of secret.

6. I petition that every SRA and CCP’S mind will be filled with Your light; that Your Truth will set them free; that the wrong beliefs will be exposed and deleted and replaced by Your Truth; and that their hurt, fear and anger will be resolved so that they can become whole. I petition that the process of deliverance and healing will take place at the proper time and according to the proper procedure (Eccl 8:5-6).

7. I petition for the establishment of Godly spiritual structures of protection for every SRA in my city, country and the world. I petition that these structures will come into place through the Body of Christ; that laborers for this harvest will be raised up and that Your Name will be Glorified through this.

8. I counter-petition every hex, curse, spell, any form of magic (white, black, red, green, etc.), incantation, ritual or any other kinds of activity from Satan, his demons or his servants in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

We thank You Father in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

AMEN.

PET.E

GRANTING PERMISSION TO THERAPIST/COUNSELOR TO PRAY FOR INDIVIDUAL

I agree to follow a therapy process with the therapist/counselor rooted in the Word of God, and our shared faith that the God of Israel as proclaimed in the Bible, is the true Creator of all things and that Jesus Christ of Nazareth is the Son of this God and the only true Messiah.

That He died on the cross, descended into hell, triumphed over Satan and all his powers, was raised from the dead and triumphed over it and ascended into Heaven where He is seated at the right hand of God the Father, reigning as King until every foe is crushed underneath His feet.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of the true God of Israel, and part of the Holy Trinity.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the only Mediator between God and man and that He paid the price to redeem us all. The Holy Spirit is our Comforter, our Helper and our Advocate.

In the therapy process we are totally dependent on the God we worship as described in the above paragraphs, the Holy Trinity.

I agree that the counselor/therapist as my counseling therapist, can pray for me under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Word of God and to allow information to come into the light in our sessions or otherwise.

We pray the Blood of Jesus Christ over this agreement and we seal this agreement with the Blood of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

We pray Father God of Israel, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, that this agreement will stand in the spirit and be a counter-petition. A LETTER TO AND PRAYER FOR THE DARK ALTERS

I address you as one who was but no longer is of the darkness, as one who is resurrected from the dead.

I know that your level of loyalty and commitment far exceeds what you may see of others who belong to the light. This may lead you to question the validity of serving a God Whose followers seem so weak and undisciplined. However, not all of Almighty God’s children are weak and unempowered. Some of His servants truly reflect His nature and His power.

You may also believe that you were created for the purpose of evil and that there is no place for you and what you do in the Kingdom of God. The Word of God teaches that we have been created to worship God. God knew you before you were formed in your mother’s womb and gave you a Godly destiny. That which you are doing in the kingdom of darkness is only a counterfeit calling of God’s calling. He has a place and function for you in His Kingdom and has no wish to quieten your voices. In fact, He wants your story to be told. He knows that terrible things have been done to you and why you feel angry, lonely and betrayed.

He also knows that you were never given a choice, and the Almighty wants to give you a chance to make this choice for yourselves now. He knows that you understand and believe in covenant and that Satan has betrayed you and punished you even for things you did not do. The Almighty God’s covenant is pure and cannot be betrayed, since the covenant He makes with you is with Himself, because He sealed this covenant with the Blood of His own Son. You may have things to give up, but God Almighty has given up that which was most precious to Him, His Son, so that you can be with Him.

If you are to serve someone, serve at least the God Who is the most powerful, the Creator of the universe, Almighty God, and not a created being, Lucifer, with limited power.

I trust that you will find the path to righteousness, your Godly destiny and have the desperate cry for help answered by the love of God. May you be strengthened and given courage to make the right decision, for if you choose God you will be punished by Satan and it will be difficult to come out of the darkness. I pray that God will make you brave so that you can endure and overcome and be set free of the lonely burdens you have had to carry for __________’s sake.
A DECLARATION OF CONFIDENCE IN GOD’S PROTECTION

No weapon that is formed against us shall prosper and every tongue, which rises against us in judgment, we do condemn. This is our heritage as servants of the Lord and our righteousness is from You, O Lord of Hosts. If there are those who have been speaking or praying against us, or seeking harm or evil to us, or who have rejected us, we forgive them and, having forgiven them, we bless them in the Name of the LORD (Matt. 5: 43-45; Rom 12:14).

Now we declare o Lord that You and You alone are our God, and besides You there is no other – a just God and Saviour, the Father, the Son and the Spirit – and we worship You!

We submit ourselves afresh to You this day in unreserved obedience. Having submitted to You, Lord, we do as Your word directs. We resist the devil: all his pressures, his attacks, and his deceptions, every instrument or agent he would seek to use against us. We do not submit! We resist him, drive him from us and exclude him from us in the Name of Jesus. Specifically, we reject and repel infirmity, pain, infection, inflammation, malignancies, and allergies. Viruses and every form of witchcraft.

Finally, Lord, we thank You that through the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, we have passed out from under the curse and entered into the blessing of Abraham whom You bless in all things - exaltation, health, reproductiveness, prosperity, victory and God’s favour - Gal. 3:13-14.

AMEN

PRAYER FOR OWN CHILDREN / FAMILY MEMBER’S CHILDREN

• Pray against the children’s dedication, umbilical seals and initiations into the cult.
• Break the power of the witch names and destroy the recording of these names in Satan’s book of death or shadows.
• Loose their spirits from places of captivity and torment and cast out the spirit guides and the blood covenants with the mother witch.
• Sever them from the inheritance of the Sisters of Light and Mother Earth, keepers of the ancient secrets and mages of ancient sorcery and the 12 pillars of all knowledge and magic upon which the universe rests.
• Call their spirits from out of the magical garments from which the sorcerers used to weave spells and break all marriage covenants with high priests and demons.
• Pray especially against Anubis and Seth from Egypt and the calling into the Temple of Set to be used as prostitutes to satisfy Sirius the dog.

These are things also in the bloodline and specifically linked to them. Praying on their behalf will be enough to break them free, even while they are sleeping.

Pray these things even over your own life.
In the spider kingdom there are many different spiders who work in different ways. They have many webs and many different jobs. The spider queen is the breeder. The others strangle, poison and/or paralyse the church.

Father, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth and through the power of the Holy Spirit, we come to You as Your Church, the Body of Christ and the Bride of Christ.

I am the Lord, and there is no other; I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create calamity; I, the Lord, do all these things. Rain down, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness. Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. I, the Lord, have created it. |

We forbid and bind any hypnosis and self-hypnosis, meditation, physic powers in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. We isolate the powers one from another in Jesus Name.

We cleanse the 4 elements, water, air, fire and earth with the Blood of Jesus.

We ask You, Lord, to cover all mirrors with Your Blood and seal off the gateways in Jesus Name.

We come against any spells, rituals, incantations, hexes, sacrifices, curses or altars raised up against us and the person.

Thank You that You blow out all candles which may have been lit in rituals against us in Jesus Name. Thank You that all curses are reversed into blessings.

Lord we ask that You seal off this room with Your precious Blood, that You will hide us in the Spirit and declare this room as Holy ground.

Lord we ask You to send Your ministering angels to come and minister to us in Jesus Name according to Heb 1: 14.

We surrender to You, Holy Spirit of God, because we know that it is not by might, nor by power, but by Your Spirit says the Lord (Zech. 4 : 6).

We ask that You cover our loved ones and we place all circumstances under Your control and protection (our finances, marriages, relationships, ministries). We now bind satan’s kingdom here on earth just as it is bound in heaven.

We ask You Father to prepare the heavenly courtroom and that all the demons and familiar spirits come and take their places.
We ask You Father to be the judge, Jesus the advocate, and the Holy Spirit the witness.

Thank You for Your Word in Revelation 12:11 that says that we have overcome the enemy by the Blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony.

In Jesus Name,

Amen.

House
HOUSE

• Recommended - “A workbook for you and your inside family”- to help survivor with successful household management.
• Pray/petition that the Holy Spirit will reveal information concerning each sub-personality.

To activate the strong and energetic personality into helping the inner house function, pray the following:

CONFESS THE WORD

Begin with confessing the Word, e.g. I have the mind of Christ and can do all things through Christ who strengthens me; Even though I walk through death’s dark vale, I shall fear no evil for Thy rod and staff comfort me, I will look up to the hills from whence come my strength, my strength comes from the Lord!; I submit my body, soul and spirit to the Lordship and dominion of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

I break myself free from every mind control spirit, hypnosis, meditation and self-hypnosis and every form of psychic power. I break the unity of all meditation circles against my parts known and unknown. I loose every part known and unknown from every place in the spirit where they have been taken captive in the spirit and I ask You Father God to wake the parts up and to energize me with the same spirit that raised Christ Jesus from the dead that You said will quicken our mortal bodies - the Holy Spirit. I pray dear God that You will break the chains over that part that Your fire will destroy the prison they’ve been placed in.

I come against every ritual, sacrifice and incantation done against me and on my behalf and strip the demons of their assignments against me. I ask You Jesus to quieten the blood that is crying out against me with the blood of Jesus. I ask You Jesus to create a safe place for my parts that have been tortured or tormented by any agents of Satan, demons or humans and ask You to remove the common ground they stand on.

Thank You for Your Word that says You have plans for my life and they are to prosper me not to harm me. I receive the peace of God and the love of God that drives out all fear.
ROOMS

• Ask God to prepare rooms and safe places in the spirit: playroom - a safe, secure playroom with toys and stuff that the child alters would like; sitting room or place of meeting - also a very safe place - where no one will feel threatened to share memories, struggles, fears or opinions over certain situations.

GETTING TO KNOW EACH SUB-PERSONALITY

• Identify components in the system that will help reduce the fragmentation and increase survivor’s ability to function.

• Continue to ask the Holy Spirit to reveal information.

• Draw up charts with coloured pens and list the differences as well as likes and dislikes. Take one character aspect and try to elaborate on that, e.g.
  • Adult or child
  • Age
  • Saved or Unsaved
  • Main attributes
  • Strengths and weaknesses
  • Etc.

• The use of collage work and the use of blow pens in art work are very effective forms of therapy for the whole system. It also assists alters experiencing difficulty in communicating.

Work very slowly and commit each step to prayer and pray about all info revealed, e.g. if anti-social, pray about any hurt or isolation connected to that part.

Commit the part revealing or talking to God. Ask God to isolate any demons or person operating in darkness from this part. Any manifestation you feel, place yourself in God’s care and call out to the Lord and ask Him to remove that which causes it. Ask God to reveal to you which part is linked to the manifestation, and what that part is feeling and why.

Delegate responsibility of different functions and tasks to different alters according to abilities and willingness.

Assign one alter (part) to receive information from the spirit world, programming and memories and pass it through. Another to look after the body as a whole, concerning health, medication, nutrition, skin care etc., another to do spiritual warfare and yet another in charge of finances, house chores, parental duties, etc.
Remember, the HOST must take full responsibility for rituals done and other sins committed, as revealed through memories, and ask God’s forgiveness (see M-section).

Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, give alters who were active in the dark kingdom, new names as well as new and important purposeful jobs and roles to fulfill in the Kingdom of Light (only after they made a commitment to the Lord).

In the case of ongoing attacks and a struggle to get breakthroughs, assist the counselee to use the rule of the victor (ROV). The background and application is included in this manual (see G-section). The ROV has proven to be a very effective weapon in spiritual battle.

Eventually a personality map can be drawn, using colours, levels and the grouping of the different alters. The colour chosen for a certain alter group will indicate their role in the structure of the house, e.g. green symbolizes a sub-personality connected to nature; red indicates SRA and black the perpetrators.

The use of colours will be unique for each person’s map.
ALTERS BECOMING INACTIVE CLOSE TO OR DURING HIGH DAYS

E.g. Spring equinox – a time in the cycles of wizardry. The purpose is to activate the wizard and to take some of the other alters captive in the land of Oz.

• Break all spirits of somnombulence (endless sleep).
• Close the gate of Ivory
• Loose power of Numniz (strongman over Satanism).
• Loose power of Alastor (executes vengeance for the sins of the fathers).
• Loose person’s soul from the mantle of the sages and the colours by which they work and that makes up the fabric of this mantle – especially the thread of the mantle which is made up of the person’s soul and magical powers.
• Break person free from the planets of Jupiter, Saturn and Mars.
• Come against Aries and the crystals and Scorpio and the pillar on which it is raised.
• Break the activation cycle for spring (applicable to spring equinox) and the remarriage to the goddess of Diana and Isis for fertility and rebirth.
• Break all rebirth rituals and the raising up of the bull and the baptism in the blood for the power of Dimitri and Hermes.
• Come against Nemesis and her ability to keep the separation in the personalities and the dissociation in place.
• Arrest all human spirits and dead human spirits that re-entered through embalming rituals.
• Come against upper and lower region of Egypt Falcon and Cobra worship.
• Destroy the jewel of the Nile and it’s ability to control and direct.
• Break power of Anubis, Oseris and Temple of Set, and any control by the Sisters of Light and the White Brotherhood.
• Deactivate programs they have set into motion.

CHILDREN IN THE HOUSE

• Dedicate all children and babies, known and unknown in the house, to God.
• Ask God to hide the children who were exposed to a false Jesus.
• Pray that the judgement of God will strike the false Jesus in spirit. This will cause him to begin to burn as soon as he tries to come close to the victim.

The following can be read to the child alters:

[Read the first sentence only where a false Jesus was used in programming and caused trauma to the child alters.]
The real Jesus is very sad that the other Jesus pretended that he was the real Jesus, because Jesus is always kind to children. He never touches them in funny ways and never hurts them. Jesus fought a battle a long time ago in the place where the devil sometimes takes you, there He fought a battle and won. He took away the keys of death and hell and the grave. You will remember that sometimes you saw those prisons, and how they locked you up there and also that they locked other special people up there. Pray the following words:

I know that the real Jesus has the keys and He has unlocked me from the place where they have kept me. He has also burnt it down to the ground. They are also not allowed to hurt me.
4. Memories

GUIDELINES TO PRAY

Each ritual and abuse memory opens doors to specific things, not just worship ceremonies, but specific rituals done to put certain things into place. Therefore each ritual needs to be prayed through. What has been done needs to be undone.

The survivor can ask God’s forgiveness and renounce the implications of the ritual. A counselor or therapist is needed to cast out the demons. This will destroy the satanic kingdom, which has been established in the survivor. This kingdom is systematically created and put into place, in turn it needs to be undone the same way, piece by piece.

Use the following guidelines to pray through each memory:

Host
• Confess sins and take full responsibility as host for sins committed.
• Bring it under the Blood of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. (The Prayer of Repentance can also be prayed through - see Petition section.)
• Speak forgiveness and cut soul ties.

Counselor
• Break shock caused by the trauma which also caused initial fragmentation.
• Pray over programming that was done through the ritual and/or abuse (NB: see P-section).
• Seal Armour of God on the altar (if sub-personality is reborn).
• Break and reverse ritual.
• Pray over and come against sacrifices, incantations, spells, hexes, curses, altars, and circles of meditation.
• Ask God to turn curses into blessings.
• Break circle and agreement links.

Host
• Renounce all gifts, ranking, powers, weapons, mantels, crowns received from the dark kingdom through the ritual and/or abuse. REPLACE with God’s purposes, weapons, etc.
• In the Name of JC of N break all vows, covenants, contracts, commitments, agreements or dedications that have been made to Satan or any other deity other than the Sovereign God by the host or any other part, known and unknown.
Counselor
- Address demons assigned to the sub-personality through this ritual (memory).
- Isolate demons from one another. Break (destroy) platform they work from.
- Ask JC of N to break demonic seal (by name or colour revealed) over person concerning these memories.
- Address gatekeepers.
- Seal doorways.
- Ask God to remove any dead human spirits.
- Restrain and cast out demons assigned to prevent integration.
- Break the demonic structure and entities, pray fire of God on walls, locks, items from rituals.
- Release spirit of altar from torture rooms/prisons (unlock). It may sometimes be necessary that the host goes with Jesus to the place of captivity to retrieve the altar held there. This altar can then be taken to a place of recovery and protection.
- Forbid any replacement of tasks now canceled.
- Pray healing over chromosomal make-up, command the bondage to come out of person’s blood.
- Pray for healing over enzymes, chemicals, nerves, brain areas, brain stem (center) and pathways the brain uses in the cognitive functions.
- Seal prayer with Blood of JCN.

Host
- In the Name of JC of N, I take back the rights to my mind, body, soul and spirit that I have given to Satan in this ritual/memory or that he has taken from me against my will.
MEMORIES INCLUDING BLOOD COVENANTS AND/OR PARTAKING OF BLOOD DURING RITUALS

Counselor
• Cut soul tie with spirit guide (name is needed), witch, mother witch/high priestess (name) - break umbilical cord/s.
• Break mind control.

Host
• Renounce power gained through ancient bloodline and through drinking of blood. (The drinking of blood concerning ranking – one cannot drink the blood of those with higher ranking. The drinking of blood gives access to the demonic power in their bloodlines.)

Counselor
• Remove name from book of Holy blood.
• Break blood covenants with Satan as lord and master.
• Command human spirits and dead human spirits to go.
• Ask the Lamb of God to break the umbilical seal and cast out the demon (guardian spirit) assigned to keep the seal intact.

MEMORIES INCLUDING MIRROR IMAGES OF COUNSELOR/ THERAPIST

• Smash mirrors with rod of iron according to Ps 2.
• Pray for restoration of trust between survivor, especially the altar who experienced the memory, and the counselor.
• Cut survivor loose from all false images.

MARRIAGE COVENANTS WITH LUCIFER, SATAN

• Ask the Lord to provide an official divorce before the Court of Heaven and to declare the marriage null and void.
• Break marriage covenant with Satan, Dracula (if sucking of blood was involved) and the manifest form of Astarte, queen of heaven.
• Renounce all dominion over death, hell and grave.
• Cut person loose from all worship of the feathered serpent and the death voodoo cults. Ask God to remove the dead human spirit of anyone who gave their life during ritual.
• Address Astarte, Poseidon and Neptune.
• NB! – Loose that part of personality from captivity in hell.
• Redeem the blood that flowed through the heart.
• Cast out the spirits of damnation and insanity.
• Command voices of spirits imported during ritual to leave.
• Ask God to remove survivor from the labyrinth (maze) of the realms of the dead in which the survivor's spirit had become lost and was held captive.
• Dismantle, dethrone and decommission watchdogs and overlords.
• Disarm gatekeepers and legions.
• Address the underworld guardians: Apollyon, Abaddon and Hades.
• Ask God to declare him/her a spiritual virgin.

RITUALS DONE OVER ACCIDENTS
(E.g. boats, planes, drownings)

• Cut off connections to area/river and guardian of the underworld.
• Cut off links to order of Babylon.
• Cut off marriages to dead human spirits.
• Pray against the release of power of Apollyon and Abaddon over peoples and nations.
• Pray for separation of spirits, for cross programming done with dead human spirits.
• Cut off umbilical cords connecting person to underworld.
• Renounce the influence of spiritual conditions over peoples and nations.
• Rituals connected with drownings call up gods of war, linked to ancient Viking rituals, and use the power of the souls that died.

DEATH RITUALS

During these rituals, time spent in hell would have taken place. The survivor suffers torment and reliving these memories is relatively dangerous.

The nature of the abuse that took place caused temporary death of the physical body. Through demonic prayer, the body is revived but during this period of death, the person’s spirit has been resurrected in death. All these aspects need to be addressed in prayer. Pray Godly life over the person. Ask God to breathe His life into the person.
The concept of scrapbook therapy is to use art to allow your alters or inside people to express themselves. (This method can also be used to help recover dissociated memories whether or not you are a multiple.) You can use your own art if you’re artistically inclined or your alters can draw, color, or paint. Or, you can do what I do—cut out pictures and/or words from magazines. I had no idea just how expressive my alters could be through pictures. Each person’s system is going to be different, but I’ll share with you how I use this method of healing.

Originally I set up a binder with a section for each alter as I located that alter. (I soon became a magazine addict.) In the beginning, when I saw a picture or cluster of words that I was supposed to cut out, I just knew it from a feeling inside me. I realized quickly that when I did this activity, everyone inside me participated. Initially I had no idea what the pictures meant or who they belonged to, but the answers did come. Patience is necessary and is a matter of safety. My system didn’t let me know the meaning of the pictures until I was safe to know. I believe everyone’s system will do this.

I was soon able to see that certain patterns developed in the pictures, and I was able to separate them into groups. I learned that one of my alters seemed to cut out pictures of hearts. Most of her pictures were black and red. Another little saw herself as a skeleton...I knew that pictures with little skeletons were Audrey’s. I also had a group of pictures I thought all represented my father. I thought each alter saw my father in a different way. It didn’t occur to me that I had more than one abuser until my memories progressed. The day I went to tape the scary daddy pictures into the album, I spread them out on the coffee table. I was able to see clearly for the first time that they fell into different categories. It took me a while to figure out which scary daddy pictures went with which alter, but those answers eventually came. After the mind control memories, when I began to find the people who had abused me, I could clearly see which alters had memories of those people.

The amazing thing about my pictures is that my alters had a way of communicating with me that made it easy to match what went together...like a puzzle. They used many symbols. I still don’t know what all of them mean, but for some memories, all I had to do was put together the pictures with a common symbol.

For one memory, that symbol was a cigarette...for another, a person blowing a bubble with pink bubblegum...yet another had a drain in the sidewalk as a common element. I have learned that, for me, that common symbol is a critical piece of the memory—yet some still remain a mystery to me. My alters use symbols for people and abusers too. Sometimes I have several symbols for the same person because I’m getting pictures from different alters. The important thing is that my insiders are able to give me pictures of what they remember of their abuse experience in a very detailed manner. Putting together the scrapbook helped me get to know each alter’s personality and symbols. I could also see which alters had similar memories.
After the mind control memories, which came about three months after I had started the scrapbook, I realized I had set up the scrapbook exactly as my brain was set up: divided into alters. In reality, a complete memory includes several alters (because of switching from the trauma), so I rearranged the scrapbook to represent memories by combining the collages of alters with similar memories.

On a conscious level, I put the pictures together in collages in a way that seemed to make sense to me. But obviously, someone else inside was putting the pictures and words together. I am thoroughly convinced that everything that happened to me has already been documented in my pictures. My system just hasn’t completely disclosed to me what it all means.

Words on or near the pictures as well as any writing and pictures on the backs of pictures count too. Your system will let you know what applies. I usually have a highlighter while reading and whoever is "out" highlights certain words which will help me later when I have a memory.

When I started getting too many pictures at once, I first advanced to larger collages. From there, when a pattern started to emerge, I would place the clues into a large envelope. When my system was ready, I would empty the contents on the coffee table and see what I had. You don’t necessarily need a scrapbook, but to protect you from memories until your system is ready, you may sometimes find that you have pictures for a certain memory spread throughout all the envelopes. That’s happened to me several times. It forces me to pace myself in piecing the memory together.

I don’t know what will happen for another individual, but using pictures gives my alters total freedom of expression, since so many of us were threatened if we ever told of the abuse. No one ever said anything about cutting out pictures. Even preverbal and mute alters can tell what happened. While I have used a variety of magazines, Communication Arts (www.commarts.com) has pages of amazing photos, illustrations, posters, and advertisements. That magazine has provided me with the unusual images that best express the complexity of what my alters remember.

Magazines such as GQ and Town & Country, that are filled with great fashion ads, provided the faces for many of my alters. Understand that your alters will show you what they look like—and you give them the choices of models and celebrities. I also purchased magazines that featured pictures of children to provide my littles with ample choices. Sometimes who the alter chooses to represent herself or himself may be a clue to your past. In many cases, my littles were the children shown on Anne Geddes cards. If you find yourself staring at a face and/or feel like the person in the picture or ad is literally looking back at you, chances are an alter is identifying with that picture.

When I started remembering electricity and learned I might I have robotic components, I purchased an audio/electronics magazine. When I had memories of lighthouses, I found Coastal Living magazine. Anything is fair game. And don’t underestimate the power of a little and a box of crayons!
There are no rules to scrapbook therapy. Your system will guide you as to how the pictures will best work for you. And since there are no rules, remember to include the whims of littles. You may just find yourself with a few bottles of glitter and packages of colorful stars or Winnie the Pooh stickers adorning your pages. If you are not a visual person as I am, this method also works quite well just using words and phrases you find in magazines or other printed materials.

My sincere wishes to you for strength and support while you work your way through the horror we must each remember to heal.

An Alternative to System Maps

Early in my recovery from learning I was a multiple, I read many books including some for therapists. It seemed much information encouraged multiples to do a system map of their alters. I found this to be very triggering. I can’t take credit for this suggestion, but I was extremely grateful for this alternative. The objective in healing is to find the alters, acknowledge their existence, and allow them to heal. Usually this happens when you understand the alter’s purpose in the system. Each alter has a job. The first alters I found were related to emotions. One had the job of feeling pain, another feeling sadness, another to feel anger.

An alternative to a system map is to get a project board. I purchased a tri-fold science project board from an office supplies store. Then I purchased colorful Post-It™ Note strips (about 3 inches wide by 1-1/2 inches high). You can also just write directly on the cardboard. As I found an alter, I wrote his or her name on a Post-It™ note and placed it on the board. If I knew the alter’s job, I also wrote that down. It doesn’t matter if you know when the alter was created or who created the alter in your system. It only matters that they are acknowledged by placing their names on the board.

There are no rules in "mapping" your system this way—except one. Don’t count. Sometimes it can be overwhelming to count the number of alters you find. Just stay focused on finding who is in your system so they can heal. It's that easy.

Programming
PROGRAMMING

GUIDELINES WHEN DEALING WITH PROGRAMMING IN PRAYER

• Dismantle programs to stop them from operating.
• Address demon spirits assigned as guardians over the programs.
• De-activate programs that keep alters separate – make sure you cover ALL levels of programming done in terms of spirit, soul and body, back-up programs and interlining in the network of demonic programs, the mainframe computer, database of programmers.
• Place decoders on codes and programs.
• Break seals placed on programs (Jesus is worthy to break the seal).
• Remove enemy banners over alter and raise up God’s banner instead.
• Remove scrambling in information channels.
• Pray against future plans, re-activation of programs.
• Close back doors.
• Send gatekeepers away.

FALSE PROGRAMMING

• Address Joker – he controls mirror images (deception).
• Ask God to seal and remove the mirrors. (NB: Do not ‘BREAK’ or ‘SMASH’ the mirrors, this will bring curses upon the part / person. )
• Cancel false programming.
• Ask God to fill the open spaces in the counselee’s mind.

RE-ESTABLISHED PROGRAMMING

This could be the cause of much internal resistance and a low functioning level in the person’s system.

• Pray that God will remove the person from the network, especially during “high” days.
• Pray against any activation that might have been done to draw person into the network and global conspiracy.

CROSS PROGRAMMING

With DID cross programming feminine alters in men are used in Jezebelic orders and connected to male alters in others or used as mother witches, queen spiders or bees. This is important with regards to the New World Order - when dealing with male DID, it is the work of feminine alters in witchcraft.
Counselor
- Pray against replacement of survivor in the spirit by any other person being a carrier of genetic material from the survivor’s body.
- If you suspect another person is connected to survivor’s house, pray over possible cross-programming as well as them acting as mediums (must be blocked). These people may be acting guardians over the survivor’s programming and may be used to re-establish things destroyed through therapy and prayer.

Host
- Renounce power, ranking, gifts, weapons, mantels, crowns, rings, etc. from ancient bloodline and by drinking blood.

Counselor
- Pray for separation of spirit from cross-programming done with dead human or human spirits.
- Petition against links with secret organizations - Masonry, Golden dawn, temple of Solomon & Set, also links to high Council and the world order – it’s banks, finances, tithing and reaping for the kingdom of darkness.
- Where children have died in rituals pray against possible cross-programming with their spirits and that their spirits be commended into the hands of Jesus.
- The transplanting of genetic material is the insurance that they can replace the person in the spirit if he/she should be saved and set free – the bloodline is preserved. Petition against this.
Computers are built into the slave’s mind to internally regulate everything. This is done by taking 100’s of alters, dehumanizing them and turning them into parts of a computer.

Various parts could be:

- All-seeing eye of the computer = seen in mind like a camera shutter.
- Child alter: to open and shut (primal part in pupil of eye)
- Shutter part: knows what goes on in all the system subconsciously – BUT if discovered: will not be able to vocalize about system.
- Software: programmed into it and all the individual programming of every alter can be tied back to the computer. (How to view life, to act, to think and to function in their job)

If jobs are straightforward, they often remain fragments.

Power Sources:

A computer is created for each section of alters! That computer will be given a power source – which if unscreened like a light bulb will go out. (Such light might be light blue, emerald blue or emerald green or other colour.)

Colour Codes and Ribbons:

13 x 13 x 13 ILL later system
13 colours are used.
Each computer is given a colour.

Hierarchy of colours are often: Platinum, Gold, Silver, Purple, Black, Red, Green, Brown, White, Orange, Yellow, Pink. (each colour has meaning and rank.)

Clear is also used as a colour for secret areas of the system.

Hierarchy can be switched.

Creating:

Mengele and his programmers used large dollhouses with 26 rooms. Each room painted with one of the 13 different colours; in order to build into 13 front and 13 back computers. Internal computers work off of colour codes and other codes.

One room in the “dollhouse” is a secret room; represents the secret world of Petra (hidden behind two large rocks). Secret world is coded the colour: clear.
Black box with needles and wires are often used for electroshock. While electroshocking the victim, a coloured scarf coming out of a box, is showed to the child.

Scarfs help form imagery needed to build coloured ribbons internally.

Altars are created using the Tall Book of Make Believe story of the Pancake people.

Alters think they are ribbons (can transmit info from computer to another area in brain).

Ribbons have the ability to travel between different levels and to transmit messages through the system, especially to the computers. (due to belief it is a spirit.)

When the system is accessed by a programmer – a ribbon alter is accessed, then informed what he (the programmer) wants.

Ribbons transmit messages to the internal computers. (older ribbons use morse code)

Ribbons are the beginning of the luciferian alter-like demons and alter. Primarily, the message bearers from the computers to the different computers, levels, alter.

They might have angelic names: michael, gabriel, etc. (angel= messenger)

STORY:

Ribbons supposedly formed out of the dust of the ground and placed in the Garden of Eden to create every pleasant tree! Ribbons relate to the Tree of Life.

The first river in the garden = Pashon = Out of the first river come 4 heads. Pashom River has: gold, ballium, onyx, rubies, diamonds and other precious stones. These gems are the programs the dwarfs mine.

Ribbons are identified as doing the following:

• Eat from the Tree of Good and Evil.
• Consists of where they reside, who they protect
• Must protect computers in order to protect themselves
• Believe they operate with mechanical hearts (not human)
• All ribbons lived behind little girl (she is a front for them and tell the creation story) this includes the ribbons.
• Behind little girl runs silver cord.
• Silver cord has to do with heart programming
• Silver cord has three strands that cannot be broken (Eccl 4:12)
• Silver cord goes off if Ribbons are touched
• Ribbons are set up so that suicide programming is triggered if they are cut.
• French braiding reveals: four strands (Scarf represents ribbon running message from a coloured room to a similar coloured alter)

Colour coding (4th dimension) added to tie in all three dimensions.

System = structured into families, cities, worlds and sections – in the mind – These sections can be connected via colour coding.

A Central Computer was placed at the bottom of the mind. The victim was brought to the deepest altered state possible – then the computer is built into the mind via hypnosis and alters active

OR

Bringing the body to comatose state where the heart is beating faintly. (Only under strictest medical supervision)

Memory storage area for computer include: Emerald City Library (Wizard of Oz) which contains alters who’s only function is to memorize, retain photo graphic memories — stacks of information.

The layout of codes of entire system can be stored in storage bank.

Libraries contain historical genealogies of satanic iniquity from early ancient times to present.

UNIX – system: Monarch slave created with codes that interface with the UNIX system for computers.

UNIX – system are being used to allow New World Order’s big BEAST computers to communicate with any known computer, individual minds of their Monarch mind controlled slaves.

Nine (9) secret BEAST Computers of the New World Order “Big Bertha” – name of one secret computer (can ‘speak’ ± 6 languages).

UNIX helps overcome natural tendencies of victim to want to kill parent (main programmer):

- Uses internal clock within its computer system.
UNIX clock called: CRON

CRON – checks files to see if the programmer has put any files to run.

UNIX system uses ‘bus lines’ (like Monarch’s ribbons) to go through system.
Postmaster Daemon (Demon) - has access to all Unix systems – no matter what ‘god’ (the super use – giving permission for access) is in charge.

No one (owners) has exclusive control of the system – Post master Daemon (external) coming from the BEAST, could use permission levels to override the power of local owner of the system.

Slave’s system becomes like computer system. Functions as series of computers connected to master Computer which is sunk deep into the mind at the lowest hypnotic level – level even below internal: “hell pit”.

Omega programming (Computer programming)

Linked to computer is: crystal, clock, hourglasses, a compass and entire demonic command structure.

Mice run up and down – opening new levels of programming – tied to a pendulum / clock mechanism.
- Mice can activate hourglass and a gold winged green skirted fairy ‘Whisper’ balances the hourglass on her wings.
- If slave - freedom - triggers programs for scrambling, suicide, confusion, etc.

Designed that if it is taken out improperly – it is to come back 7 times, 7 times stronger. (Matt 12:43-45)

At the Center of system are mechanisms:
- Master Computer
- All – Seeing Eye
- The Compass
- The master Clock
- The Quadrants that tie it together.
- Three Hourglasses spinning on axes.
- Hourglasses may be called matrixes.
  - X ; Y ; Z-axis

There are back up worlds; mirror image worlds.
There are double worlds, or double, double systems / worlds
Thor is important protector in Satanic/occult beliefs.

Dominoes have been used in Monarch programs as the basis for what is called ‘Mother Board”.

Telephone tones – trigger programs.

3. INTERNAL PROGRAMMING STRUCTURES

3.1 Spiritual levels Structures inside the person (mind); consist of demons, human spirits (dead or alive).
   - Pray for information about both structures (outside and inside).
   - Pray for information about gates in the mind and in the spiritual realm.
   - Gatekeepers must be exposed and removed.
   - Gatekeepers can be on different levels.
   - Specific demons will keep inner structures in place.
   - Gatekeepers and demons will be linked to specific memories of abuse, rituals, knowledge and alters.
   - Link to network (people and demons) will keep gates open.
   - Intercessory prayer is important to break down the structure.
   - Programming against prayer will also be in place.
   - Reprogramming can take place through an inside programmer and/or an outside programmer.
   - Rituals and contracts to protect contracts can be in place.
   - Punishment programming to punish if contracts are broken.
   - Whole structure and method is to make programming fool proof.

3.2 Psychological level Structure inside and outside the person consists of beliefs, people, alters, emotions, thought patterns, behaviour patterns, relationships and memories.
3.3 Specific systems

Spider web system (more information in PET-section, p. 57)

- The function of this system is to get victims stuck in the web.
- All the connectors/strands of the web must broken. Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal all connectors and how they got in place.
- All alters acting as connectors must be worked with.
- Cancel all rituals with spiders and other ritual that have put this program in place.
- Ask God to reverse the rituals linked to this program to work in the opposite direction than what was intended by Satan.
- Pray for the tail to be removed as it entraps the victims.
- Fangs, poison and eggs must be destroyed.
- A spirit that is associated with the spider web is the viper (snake in Egypt). Isaiah 59:5; Proverbs 30:28; Job 8:14(b); Isaiah 45:4-8.

Castle system

- Pray for protection over all levels.
- Petition that all levels will be open to the host and to Jesus Christ.
- Work through the levels as the Holy Spirit leads you.
- Gatekeepers at the entrance of the different levels can be bound and cast out with the permission and agreement of the person.
- You will find different alters with different memories and demons in the different levels.
- Use the same prayer principles for the different levels.
- Repent first of the sin that is at the basis of the creation of the level.
- Give Jesus Christ the right to come into the level and to take control and to reveal all the secrets of that level.
- Denounce all demons working in that level and command them to go.
- Ask Jesus to cleanse all sin and defilement.
- Pray for the healing of the memories.
- Ask Jesus to take the alter to a new place in His throne room or in His presence where they can be safe until every memory is worked through and they can be integrated. Sometimes they can go to other alters in a layroom or saferoom inside the mind. The alters will enable to tell you what will be safe for them.
- Alters in the pool of death will be linked to demons of death and destruction and possibly dead human spirits.
- Deal with dead human spirits, in a specific way (see G-10 and I-77).

Puppet system

- The victim is like a puppet with strings to the controller.
- The controller of the "puppet" is usually highly demonic.
- Every string should be identified and the demons keeping the strings in place should be bound and commanded to leave.
• Soul ties with the controller can keep emotional strings in place and the control can be very subtle and difficult to break. The identities that the puppet consists of must be identified and worked with.

Hexagram system

• Repent of the sin and defilement that made the programming possible.
• Repent of bloodline sins and callings.
• Cancel the ritual done to put the hexagram in place.
• Pray that God will reverse the ritual into a blessing.
• Cancel all curses placed at each point of the star and in the centre.
• Wipe out all inscription made in each point and the centre.
• Wipe it out with the blood of Jesus where ever it is in the heavenlies, in the waters, above or below the earth, in the underworld or in the mind or in the person or in the book of death or any other place.
• Bind the demons assigned to the points and centre and cancel their assignments in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Command the demons to leave and not to return again.
• Let the person agree and confirm the prayer by commanding the demons to leave and not to return again.
• Close the gateways and seal it with the blood of Jesus Christ.
• Ask Jesus to place His holy angels at these doorways to protect it until all memories and programming are worked through.
• Cut all soul ties with the cult group or other people involved with the ritual. Cancel specifically any ties with the leader of the group and any persons assigned to watch the person you praying for. Soul ties can open doorways again.
• Cancel the position of authority that the leader of the group had over this person and all the rights given to the leader to perform such a ritual. Give all rights to rulership over the person to Jesus Christ of Nazareth and give Jesus Christ the authority over this person by the choice of the person. Let the person declare that Jesus Christ is his Lord and that they choose Jesus Christ to rule them, body, soul and spirit.

4. CALLINGS AND MISSIONS

4.1 Callings can come through the bloodline, but not always.

4.2 Bloodline callings are very strong because it is an accumulation of evil power and knowledge for generations. Contracts must be cancelled, callings must be destroyed and inner and outer spiritual and psychological structure must be dealt with.

4.3 Calling to be a bride of Satan

• Child will be dedicated to Satan at birth or even before birth and baptised with blood.
• Rituals with pregnant mother normally take place to enter the mind and soul of the baby before birth.
• Dissociation can take place before birth.
• Training will start immediately. Training will include sexual stimulation, feeding the baby blood with milk and training the mind to dissociate.

4.4 Missions

• The destruction of the leadership of churches.
• The destruction of all anointed counseling.
• The destruction of any progress in counseling.
• The psychological breaking down of leaders, counselors, intercessors, etc.; to destroy ministries or to make it powerless.
• False teachings.
• False healings.
• False prophecies.
• Worship Antichrist.

4.5 Goal is the plan to rule the world.

4.6 Cult powers are linked to political systems to reach the goal.

5. REALMS

5.1 Cosmos (sun, moon, stars, planets) - Ps 148.

5.2 The earth, air and nature.

5.3 The water.

5.4 The underworld and the realm of the dead. Ezek. 37; Rom 12:1; 1 Pet. 3:19, 20.

5.5 World systems / political systems. Isaiah 19; Ezekiel 38 & 39.

6. GATEWAYS

6.1 Jesus is the door (John 10), Jesus has the keys of hell and death (Rev. 1:17, 18).

6.2 Places that are seen as gateways to hell and to the heavenlies

• Pyramids
• Bermuda triangle
• Alps in Switzerland
• Cape Town
• Atlantis
6.3  Gateways to the soul

- Senses
- Solar plexus
- Fontanella
- Third eye
- Feet
- All body openings
- Chakras
- Pressure points
- Rituals, magic spells and gatekeepers to keep the gateways open

6.4  Demons and gateways

Earth power/demons can lead to the underworld and hell. Water power/demons can lead to the underworld and hell. Cosmic power/demons can lead to the heavenlies.
DIFFERENT LEVELS OF PROGRAMMING

FIRST LEVEL

1. SECRECY TO ABUSE
   • Threats that come with the abuse, e.g. punishment, destruction to the individual, etc.
   • Outer triggers as signals reminding the person not to talk, e.g. phone calls, letters, tapes, media, etc. Harm comes through the signals.

2. CONTROL THROUGH...
   • Obsessive and compulsive behaviour.
   • Fear of insanity.
   • Fear of losing control over and of others.
   • Contact with the cult.
   • Individual can be accessed or can access others and plant triggers.
   • Demonic introjections with the purpose to reinforce the program, control and continued abuse.

3. INNER HOUSE PROGRAMMING THROUGH...
   • Purposeful dissociation.
   • Internal abuse.
   • Imposition of past memory on present experiences.
   • Resisting therapy and/or counseling.
SECOND LEVEL

1. PROTECTION PROGRAMS OF THE CULT

• Assuring ignorance through amnesia between alters, events and the host.
• Confusion in host when nearing the exposure of this level of programming.
• Host/Alters blinded concerning system.
• Information and/or communication in coded forms.

2. EXTERNAL MIND CONTROL PROGRAMS

• Electronic programming either through suggestions only or by actual implants of electronic devices in the body.
• Physiological programming through chemicals or hypnotic messages to determine physiological responses.
• Cult programming by means of contact through phone, Internet, computers, sound, colour, signals, symbols, etc. These trigger certain actions or responses.

3. INTERNAL CONTROL PROGRAMS

• Splitting as an assignment.
• Destroying or harming the body with any resistance to the cult.
• Trained to kill others who defect or are unwanted by the cult. Here military terminology and ideology is often used.
• Alters programmed as reporters to cult, e.g. what happened during therapy sessions, etc.
• Confusion through virtual reality, for instance, as to what reality is.
SELF-PROGRAMMING

BASIC DISSOCIATION

• In an attempt to avoid deeper pain, e.g. self-mutilation.
• Shifting emotional pain to physical pain.

ABUSE AS PROGRAMMING

• Abusing others or even self in front of victim and expects imitation.
• Using labels and messages that destroys identity.

THE SPIRITUAL ASPECTS OF PROGRAMMING

Splitting in DID’s occur in the mind/soul, therefore affecting perception of the body. The alters that are created are not demons, but can certainly be demonized. Here the difference need to be clear. Persons are severely traumatized if the alter is seen as a demon and addressed accordingly. Great wisdom and discernment is needed in working with these people, also concerning misconceptions and even manipulation by demons pretending to be alters and vice versa.

HIGH TECH PROGRAMMING

1. Once the dissociative process is established, it is maintained and modified in a variety of ways:

• More traumatic abuse.
• Brain wave manipulation.
• Fear.
• Pain.

2. Brain wave stimulation

2.1 Flashing lights timed to the various brain waves.
• Alpha waves.
• Beta waves.

2.2 Sound wave generators in programming that invite sympathetic patterning in the brain.

2.3 Greek Alphabet Programming
Alpha
- The first level of programming/training. This programming/training initially separates or reinforces the separation between the right and left hemispheres of the brain. Another goal is to allow the passing of information easily between the conscious and the unconscious mind. This will enable the unconscious to overcome and override the conscious mind. Alpha programming/training utilizes the repetition of stimulus and response patterns to achieve its goals. Optimum Alpha training is begun in very early childhood and infancy to obtain Platinum level performance.
- Stimulation in Alpha programming is a combination of electrical impulses, light flashes, lasers, sounds and smells to create systemic sensory overloads. This sensory overload optimizes the dissociative function of the normal brain, overloading the single hemisphericity, forcing the brain to involve greater areas of both hemispheres.

Beta
- The primary goal of Beta is to promote uninhibited sexual behavior, as a replacement for the natural sexual experience. The programee becomes defined by her sexual ability, feeling a sense of superiority by virtue of her ability to sustain pleasure from perverse sexual acts, and the ability to dissociate from the concurrent pain. The Beta programming is designed to create a sexual slave. Beta programming must begin in infancy and after Alpha programming is initiated.

Gamma
- The primary focus is to IDENTIFY, BLOCK AND REPORT. Gamma programming is a Nazi-type reinforcement system designed to create a robot-like initiate. Induction is performed via a bombardment of electrical currents and magnetic charges. Gamma programming forms the third side of the triangle and is essential for the platinum level performance. If failure occurs in this level of training, the safety-level or safety-net is not created. Gamma is the glue that secures the three-sided system. The "cruz gammatta" is the symbol of power (swastika).

Delta
- Programming via slow rhythms that are deliberate and intense. Programming is concentrated in the frontal lobes of the brain normally associated with deep sleep. Death, power, cult involvement, high priest programming, hitmen, governmental plants and the Mafia fit into the goals of the Black Delta training.

Epsilon
- Promotes family values: family purity, loyalty and the importance of the generational ties. The goal of programming is the permeation of the image of the supremacy of a particular bloodline. The programming continues at this level throughout life. Triggers for this type of programming cause life-long allergies and asthmatic reactions.
Zeta
• The initiate is programmed with the rewards of their sacrifices through the visual and auditory stimulation of the multi media devices.

Eta
• Gold level programming is about control and power to flip the system over and around, couched in military "coup" type terms. This level is developed to instill the efficacy and predominance of power, administration, responsibility and hierarchy.

Theta
• Reinforces the spiritual/psychic abilities such as ESP, PKE and Astral Projection. Attempts to be like God.

Kappa
• Warning! Promoting the urgency feeling. Time is of the essence, pushed to promote the call back programming related to the dates and times of the cult calendar.

Mu
• Control and power, preparing and training the various councils. Programming designed to corrupt the immune system is perfected here. The immunoglobulin Mu chain of the auto-immune system is the largest and most powerful immunoglobulin, and when activated, manipulates the protein molecules in the blood to result in the destruction of otherwise healthy organs and tissues.

Nu
• Oversees Mu. The GOAT-HEAD. Indoctrination to the EYE. Programming consists of varying degrees of light, sound and mechanical waves. The programming perpetrates the relief via the experience, that one has great powers over nature and can transform from one shape to another, pass through solid matter, and live in air, water, or earth.

Sigma
• Combining all other training outcomes to set the foundation for the seals, and ultimately concludes with the final installation of the seven seals. No coincidence that Sigma represents a backwards 3, and that $6 \times 3 = 18$.

Omega
• Death - the end.
  12:00  = Omega (Death).
  3:00   = Sigma (Seals).
  6:00   = Alpha (Platinums).
  9:00   = Eta (Golds).
GENERAL INFORMATION ON TYPICAL TECHNIQUES OF PROGRAMMING – FRITZ SPRINGMEIER

Three years: Black Mass – creates locked-up or obscure child, which forms the base for dark side programming.

Snakes and spiders: To play dead – you are safe if you are dead.

Wax masks – fire torture – thus thinks face has melted.

Anchor: a stimulus linked to and triggers a physiological / emotional state.

Gamma programming is secret layering in of demons.

Must be degraded from spiritual being to an animalistic reaction pattern.

The power of a lie has to be preserved and fueled by tradition – manifested via rituals.

They must will to seek the truth again.

Book of Pherylit: a Druidic book for rituals – gives four symbols which can be made to evoke four elementals also called four basic portals.

Visualization said to be the key to the occult, and to opening portals, with these four signs.

Mirrors used – many of them – create images.

Porcelein Face Programming: Fire torture; wax on faces – burn – ‘face’ melts away – gets new identity. Then the Programmer ‘generously’ gives traumatized alters a porcelain mask. This alter may be given a ‘gem’ that becomes a secret name.

When handler dies, replacement handler wears mask to look like previous handler. Porcelain casts made of people’s faces – then masks made. Human baby skin used to construct mask from victim’s facial cast.

A mask is worn by Illuminati victim when they are married to the Anti-Christ.

Often part of Camelot and Shakespeare programming.

General Information
GENERAL INFORMATION

If you can’t get through to programming or memories or counseling:

• Remove Labyrinth out of alter’s mind.
• Destroy with fire of God.
• Dethrone those in charge thereof.

THOUGHTS OF SUICIDE, DEATH, SELF-DESTRUCTION, MURDER

• Ask God to arrest alters in the spirit and to subdue them and the programming, demons and human spirits who was sent to activate this.
• Ask God to issue a restraining order from His throne room.
• Do the Petition against Suicide (see Petition-section).

IN CASE OF SILENCE FROM CERTAIN ALTERS

• Break codes of silence and redeem back their voices, sounds, vocal cords and thoughts through the blood of Jesus.
• Break the shock and fear caused through these rituals.

IN CASE OF IMPLANTS OR CURSE PINS

• They will surface as memories or start to cause pain or burn.
• Anoint with oil.
• Ask Holy Spirit to burn them out.

ETERNAL EIGHT (∞)

• Break the link with Egyptian sorcery, the link to eternal damnation.
• A rebirth had to take place in order to be birthed into Satan’s kingdom for eternal damnation. Pray this through. Reverse this ritual.

Host
• Renounce rulership and dominion as new age leader and positions of God-like power deciding over issues of life.
FINANCES

In the case of Freemasonry and the person is struggling with finances, or female parallel societies like Golden dawn, Temple of Set and Solomon. These are linked to the High Council and the New World Order. It means there are connections to world banks and finances. Satan would have used the person to bring finances into his kingdom. This he will use against the person, as it works as a tithe into the satanic kingdom. The person will be reaping famine and poverty and not blessing.

- Bring these connections and tithing under the blood of Jesus (confess).
- Do the Petition for Finances (See Petition-Section).

IN CASE OF POOR SPELLING

Most children in the cult are taught to write backward for use of spells and covert communications in the cult. This develops a kind of dyslexia and could contribute to poor spelling.

- Ask God to heal the physical nerves and brain center controlling these cognitive functions and ask God to reverse the damage caused by this type of learning.
RULE OF THE VICTOR (ROV)

By
Leonard M. Anspach

Rule of the Victor has specific application in dealing with the MPD/SRA individual. During the course of counseling, alternate personalities will often feel uncontrollably compelled to some behavior which is ultimately detrimental to the physical or spiritual health of the individual or counselor. Frequently this is the result of spirits being sent by cultists to activate the internal programming of the alters. The counselor must intervene for the individual's benefit. This paper is specifically intended to focus on one aspect of spiritual warfare involved in helping the MPD/SRA individual in this situation. ROV may have other more generalized warfare applications. Suggestions are included at the end of this paper.

Although there are varying levels of expertise and sophistication, the cultists who victimize the individuals we meet in the counseling office are incredibly organized and systematic in their approach to creating alters and programming them through various traumas and demonic rituals. To whatever degree they have been effective with the counselee, the "rule of the Victor" will be valuable in not only protecting your client, but spiritually defeating those that have caused the damage.

CASE STUDY

In the course of counseling, we found that cultists were sending spirits to activate the internal programming of alters. These spirits would be bound and then sent where Christ sends them. This process would be repeated frequently with the same cultists sending spirits each time. Upon investigation, we found that each time spirits were sent the cultist would lose a certain percentage of his power. Over time the battle was draining him of power. The cultist would use rituals to gain more demonic power to replace that which he lost as well as enlist support from other cultists in his personal network. Sometimes the cultic network would send spirits directly against the counselee, at other times they would transfer power to the cultist in need.

Faced with this scenario, it became obvious to me that we were involved in a very real battle. Satan was using cultists to attack us with spirits. Although harassed, we were being successful with the counseling process. Several issues however bothered me.

1. Being strictly limited to a defensive reactionary posture.
2. This could never be considered a "victory", only a successful defense.
3. The inability to stop the cultists from perpetuating the spiritual dynamic of their work against other victims and us. We should be able to stop them in their mission of advancing the kingdom of darkness.
Reflecting upon Biblical examples of warfare, two issues were clear. The victor dictated the terms of defeat and the future military capability of the conquered foes. When the Philistines dominated Israel they removed all blacksmiths from Israel to guarantee their inability to produce weaponry (1Sam. 13: 19-23). In other cases, thumbs, big toes or right eyes were threatened or removed to insure these individuals could never fight again (Judges 1: 6-7; 1Sam. 11:2). Horses and chariots were restricted or destroyed to eliminate any offensive military threat (2 Sam. 8:4; 1 Chron. 18:14). The spiritual warfare dynamic of my counseling was not disarming or defeating any of the cultists attacking us. The spirits that were sent against us were defeated but not the individual sending them. I was dodging bullets but not defeating the foe.

In terms of battle we are "more than conquerors through Him that loved us" (Rom. 8:37). NT principles of warfare would never support a continuing "no-win" situation such as I was facing. In any given battle between darkness and light, Christ has already secured the victory. It is our responsibility as His servants to use our authority in Christ to press home that victory. Macmillan's observations concerning our use of authority as illustrated by the conflict between Amalek and Moses in the wilderness (Ex.17) are pertinent here.

All through the day until the going down of the sun. "Moses held out the rod over the valley in which Israel strove with Amalek." Was he praying? There is little doubt that his heart was lifted to God in unceasing supplication for the untrained soldiers of his people. But his holding out of the rod was a demonstration of the authority committed to him over the unseen forces which drove forward the Amalekites, and which operate behind every battle (see Dan. 10:13, 20). Not in the visible but in the invisible, lies the secret of success or failure. Over the spirit foes of Israel, which sought to thwart the purpose of God, and to hold back His people from the land of their inheritance, Moses exercised the authority vested in him as the representative of Jehovah. By his sustained resistance to these mighty principalties and powers, their ability to aid the Amalekites was nullified. And as the sun went down, the beaten tribesmen suddenly withdrew….Lifting up his hand holding the rod, he took authority in the Name of Jehovah over the foes of God's people. In his capacity as the representative of Jehovah he was exerting the authority of the throne when he lifted up his hand. It was a declaration of divine judgment to be executed upon Amalek and upon the demon powers who energized those cruel warriors in their enmity against Israel."

[John Macmillan, The Authority of the believer]

This is the concept behind "rule of the Victor". It is not merely a prayer, although our ministry must be rooted in prayer. It is the statement of a command to and against the powers of darkness based upon our position in Christ in harmony with Biblical spiritual warfare principles. "Rule of the victor" may be applied against every cultist that in any way exercises his/her will against the progress of the Kingdom of God in you or your client's life/ministry".
JURISDICTIONAL AUTHORITY

The Bible clearly recognizes that God's kingdom is an organized structure of authority. Satan's kingdom is also organized in a systematic authority structure with various demonic ranks. Ranks among angels is a fascinating subject. "There is enough evidence to say that there are distinct and graded ranks, but not enough evidence to make a complete comparison or organizational chart." Fred Dickson - Angels, Elect and Evil

Evidence also indicates that in addition to ranks there are regional or geographic responsibilities. For instance, the "Prince of Persia resisted the angelic messenger to Daniel" (Dan. 10:20). This was high-level demonic interference by a spirit that had responsibility for the region of Persia. The text also indicates that the "Prince of Greece will come later" (Dan.10:20). In Rev. 2:13 (throne of and dwelling of Satan) there are references to regional strongholds of Satan. This appears to be an influence above and beyond the work of personal spirits I am calling these cultic (regional) spirits.

Similarly, in dealing with cultic structure, there are regional responsibilities on a humanic and spiritual level. Whenever a cultist sends spirits against an individual, there appears to be a jurisdictional protocol not unlike law enforcement protocol between city and county, county and state, state and federal, etc. This protocol, in an organization of strict authority, requires that outsiders that send spirits into the regions where you or your client are located must receive permission from whomever has jurisdictional authority. ROV may be applied to whoever gave permission for the spirits to enter the territory as well as the sender of the spirits. This further depletes the cultic power structure. Specifically, ROV, may be applied against any cultist or region, past or present, who exercised their will against your client. This includes all that were involved in the initial traumas and rituals as well as any currently engaged in the spiritual attack.

The justification for stripping the cultist's followers and victims is again based upon the authority structure of the cult. The "defeat the leader, get the followers" concept or principle of representative battle is illustrated in the David-Goliath scenario. If the general is defeated, the followers are also defeated.

WHAT 'RULE OF THE VICTOR' IS AND IS NOT

ROV appears to be a vital tool for the spiritual defeat of darkness. It is based upon Biblical principles of warfare and authority. I have tested ROV over the course of the last 9 months hundreds of times. Prior to the application of ROV, many cultists sent spirits repeatedly. After the application of ROV, there has not been a single incident of any cultist sending spirits a second time. There is every indication that they have been effectively stripped of demonic/cultic power and can never regain it through participation in rituals or any other means.
There are indications that cultic spirits, used to advance the kingdom of darkness, are removed but personal spirits of lust, anger, bitterness, etc. remain. Although incapable of advancing the kingdom of darkness through demonic means, these defeated cultists are able and do communicate through normal physical channels with their personal contacts in the cultic network. Normally they request their contacts to join the battle and attack your client. ROV may then apply to the new cultist/region engaging their will against your client. The continuing application of ROV penetrates deeper and deeper into the cultic authority network, defeating more and more sophisticated members and regions of the cult family.

ROV is relatively simple to apply and should be considered an effective weapon in the battle against the spiritual dynamics of satanism/darkness. It should, however, not be taken simplistically. Cultists do not take defeat graciously. The battle will be tiring and demanding. It will require alertness. It is difficult work. Whenever possible, work in a team. ROV is not a substitute for dealing with an individual who has given ground to the enemy through sin. Confession based upon truth is the only means of breaking the power of spirits gained through an individual's sin. ROV is not a substitute for the hard work of progressive sanctification.

Intercession should be made on behalf of the defeated cultists. No matter how heinous their conduct has been, they are also victims (to one degree or another) of demonic blinding and deception. It would be appropriate to pray that the god of this world's grip upon their understanding would be broken and that they would see and believe the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ. Pray that God would raise up a servant to pursue this individual with the truth and that they would be delivered from the kingdom of darkness and translated to the Kingdom of the Son of God's Love, to the praise and glory of His grace.

OTHER POSSIBLE APPLICATIONS

MISSIONS, particularly in spiritistic or other dark cultures where occult power is used, i.e. witchdoctor, shaman, Muslim Imam, etc.
• If there is a spiritual attack by this cultic power upon the missionary or his/her ministry, ROV may be applied.
• Regional cultic powers will seek to interfere with any evangelistic or church planting effort. Continued application of ROV will free the region's populace in order that they might hear and respond.

PASTORAL
• If darkness is interested in defeating the advancement of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, it is quite possible that the cultists pray specifically for the spiritual disruption and defeat of local church ministries and pastors. ROV could be regularly applied prior to the start of the services.

SPECIAL CONFERENCES, where truth is presented, i.e. spiritual warfare conferences, pastor's conferences, mission's conferences, marriage conferences, etc.
HIGH PROFILE MINISTRIES, i.e. back to the Bible, Radio Bible Class, Grace to You, Insight for Living, etc.

STATEMENT OF ROV

I exercise "Rule of the Victor" over all the regions that have set their will against __________, against all those regions that have permitted spirits in or through their territory. I command that they be castrated (cut off) from ever receiving power from darkness again. I require the immediate disbursement of all their funds from the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of Light (spoils of war), the immediate destruction of all their books (magical arts/sorcery), and the immediate reversal of all their schemes. Penalties applied. To the pit!

One individual's response to ROV

The silence all around her
Does not proclaim the sound
Of the battle now ensuing Upon this battleground.

Satan's host once cheered with laughter
At the pawn within their hands
They knew that they were winning
She was accomplishing their plans.

But their sneers turned into anger
And their joy turned into grief
When what they saw before their eyes
Was far beyond belief.

She was standing firm on solid ground
With the sword of truth displayed
And the angels of the Lord of Hosts
Were all about arrayed.

Her eyes were set above her
Focused on no earthly gain
She looked upon the throne of Christ
And not upon her pain.
She was crying for His strength
   His help in time of need
And tears of love were in her eyes
   For her Saviour she did plead.

His tender arms reached out in love
   And put her in His hand
Where no one could snatch the hope
   Given by this Man.

He promised then He'd win the fight
   All she had to do was stand
And with a shout of victory
   He gave the great command.

The angels flew with power and might
   To carry out His word
Because of Him now Satan's hosts
   Would see her as the Lord's.

   So in this silent room
   Do not be deceived
There is a battle raging
   Great glory is received.

   Jesus is the Master
   The battle He has won
All glory, laud and honor
   Let us give unto the Son.
HUMAN SPIRITS

- Bind demons assigned to the human spirit.
- Determine whether the human spirit has received Christ, if so, assure them of their salvation. IF NOT:

  - Pray for the salvation of their soul, asking the Lord to deal with them according to his mercy and grace and to remove them from the client.
  - Check to be sure the client is willing to release the human spirit.
  - Break the power of the “transfer of spirit” ritual and sever all connecting cords.
  - Preach the Gospel and give scripture.
  - Ask the Lord for a revelation from Jesus Christ of Nazareth.
  - Ask the Lord to send His escort angels to take the human spirit to his/her rest, or wherever He wants to take them.
  - Deliverance from demons, familiars, all look alikes, etc. and demonic memories.

Information concerning dead human spirits at p. 171.

WORK OR STUDIES PLAYING A PART IN THE PURPOSE OF THE ENEMY

Host

- Pray and repent on behalf of any parts where your work or studies may have been part of Satan’s plan and any support received from the demonic in this time.
- Ask God to redeem back your work or studies and to cleanse it with His Blood.
- Covenant with the Lord with regards to your work or studies to be pure, holy and clean and to be used to glorify His Kingdom.

Counsellor & Host

- Pray for direction with regards to the future.
THE SPIDER NETWORK – GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE SPIRITUAL CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SPIDER TO CONSIDER WHEN MINISTERING TO CULT SURVIVORS by T. Andrews

The Spider is seen in India to be associated with Maya, the weaver of Illusion (also according to Fates in Greek mythology and Scandinavian Love).

Associated with weaving, measuring and the cut of the threads of life.

To Native Americans, the spider is the grandmother – the link to the past and the future. Now is influencing the future (woven into what you will encounter in future).

Spider involved in the maintaining of balance between:
- past and the future,
- Physical and Spiritual
- Male and Female

The Mysteries of ebb and flow, ‘rhythm’ of ‘nature’, rise and fall, flow and flux as represented by the ‘Wheel of Fortune’ is ‘taught’ by the spider.

The spider awakens creative sensibilities.

Spiral-shaped webs = the traditional form of creativity and development.

Spider found in the web: ‘reminds’ us that we are the centre of our own world / the world is woven around us.

Spider has 3 predominant expressions of magic:
1. Magic energy of creation (A symbol of Creative power).
2. Associated with assertiveness of that creative force of keeping the feminine energies of creation alive and strong.
3. Associated with its spiral energy, the links with the past and the future.

Spiral (converging at a central point - Labyrinth) of web is something to be meditated upon. (Are you moving toward central goal or are you scattered and going in multiple directions? Are you focused?)

Spider is guardian of ancient languages and alphabets:

- Chinese alphabet; attribute to Ts’ong Chien
  - god with dragon face and four eyes.
  - formed alphabet from patterns of the stars, the marks on the back of the Turtle; and the footprints of birds in the sand.

- Runic alphabet – created by Norse god, Odin.
  - after hanging upon the great tree of life for nine days and nights, twigs fell off and spelled our certain formulas and words

- More primordial alphabet
- formed by geometric patterns found within spider’s web.
- Many see this as the true alphabet – that is why the spider is seen as the teacher of language and the magic of writing.

Spider is keeper of knowledge of the primordial alphabet.

Spider teaches how to use the written language so that words weave a web around those who would read them.

Spider teaches humans to feed fires and keep the fire in a circle.

MPD IN THE BIBLE

I have been the Pastor of Morning Star Testimony Church for ten years. The people that make up this local fellowship have been brought here by God out of a desire that He might have His purpose realized in a representative way as set forth in Paul's prayers (Eph. 1: 17-23; 3: 16-19; 4: 12-16; Phil 1: 9-11; 3: 7-17; Col. 1: 9-12; 1 Thes. 3: 12-13; 11 Thes. 1: 10-12; 2: 16-17; Heb. 13: 20-21), in conjunction with our Lord's prayer in John 17: 21-26. In Eph. 4:13 it is stated that it is God's purpose for the universal Church to finally arrive at the goal which is summed up in the phrase “one mature man”, i.e. the corporate Church coming to the “measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ”.

As I continued to teach the Word, a number of families and individuals began to manifest symptoms that pointed to a possible background of severe abuse. Through the process of counseling these people, it became apparent that some were survivors of multi-generational satanic ritual abuse. I had worked and counseled with these people using the conventional Biblical procedures that, under normal circumstances, should lead a person to freedom in Christ. However, I did not see final resolution to many of the problems that were emerging in these people's lives, resulting in frustration in their walks with God. It was not until I began reading about the phenomenon of MPD in the context of satanic ritual abuse that I began to understand that I needed more than conventional counseling methods to lead these people to freedom through Jesus Christ. The terrors and horrors that these people have reported are beyond what most people could ever believe. I have read extensively from both secular and Christian literature, as well as clinical textbooks on MPD and dissociative disorders. I have also attended numerous seminars over the past two and a half years to become better equipped to deal with the emerging phenomenon effecting many of God's people. I have been involved with hundreds of hours of counseling and have learned most of what I know from working with those people who are extremely complex, poly-fragmented multiples.

As I began working with the reality of MPD and ritual abuse I had to come to grips with the theological issues around this controversial subject. I firmly believe that, in the original languages of both the Old and New Testaments, the Bible fully substantiates and describes the present day phenomena of shattered and broken personalities, which has come to be designated as MPD. The issues of SRA, child abuse, human sacrifices, etc. are well documented in the Old Testament scriptures, especially in the context of the practices of the Canaanites, as well as the Israelites when they went into apostasy, cf., the reign of Manasseh. I want to present from the Old and the New Testaments some representative passages that are descriptive of what has been labeled by the mental health profession as MPD.

I begin with Is. 61: 1-3 and with Luke 4:18. I'm not attempting a complete exposition of these passages, but merely intend to highlight some words and phrases that bear upon the subject at hand. In Is.61, Isaiah prophesies concerning the future mission and purpose of the Messiah's advent and ministry. Verse 1: “He has sent me to preach good news to the afflicted.”
The term “afflicted” includes the idea of the poor, wretched, weak and helpless members of society. They usually were overwhelmed by a sense of need and inability to deal with their situation. The passage goes on to say that God sent Jesus Christ to “bind up the broken-hearted.” The infinitive construct of the word 'chabash' is used as a medical term to describe the dressing or bandaging of a wound. Please compare Ez. 34:4 with Zech. 11:16, where the term is used in the same manner.

The phrase 'broken-hearted' is the main focus of the passage in relation to the present day phenomena of MPD. I believe the language is broad and extensive, covering a wide range of effects of emotional and mental distress or psychological abuse. As we shall see, the language clearly allows and is descriptive of a fragmented personality, known by clinicians as MPD. The passive participle of 'shabar' means “to break or to crush into pieces.” The term occurs, in it's root form, 147 times in the Old Testament. This passive represents a state and condition of those who have been the recipients of the action, i.e. they are shattered victims. The participle is a masculine plural of extension denoting that the human heart can be shattered into many pieces. The literal use of this word refers to the shattering of pottery (Jude:7, :20; Lev. 11:33; Jer. 19:11; 34:18; 51:17), but is used in a variety of other ways as well. It is used figuratively in these passages as well as in Ps. 69:20, Ez. 6:9 (describing God's broken heart) and Jer. 8:21. These references all describe a broken and shattered heart.

According to Zondervan Pictorial Encyclopedia of the Bible, Vol. 3, pg. 58, the heart, a language of Scripture, refers to the inner man, the function of the mind where people remember and think, the fountain and seat of people's thoughts, the desires and affection, purposes, etc. It's nearest equivalent is 'ego' which represents the "I", self, the person. If the person's very self, i.e. his mind, emotions and will, are shattered repeatedly through extensive and chronic abuse in early childhood, this commonly results in MPD as a coping mechanism, a natural way of self defense in an unnatural situation.

The adjective 'sheber' is used literally to describe a breaking, fracturing, crushing or breach, like the breaking of pottery (Is. 30:14), or the breaking of a limb (Lev, 21:9, 24:20). It is also used figuratively in a psychological sense in Is. 65:14 and Prov. 15:4.

The masculine noun 'shibbaron' in conjunction with the term 'loins' is used in Ez. 21:6 to describe the breaking or the shattering of the loins. The loins in the Old Testament are viewed as the center of physical strength as well as the seat of the emotions. Consequently, when they are broken or shattered, the strength is gone and the person is helpless. The breaking or shattering of the loins therefore denotes deep emotional distress and bitter anguish. When such events occur systematically in the context of cult indoctrination perpetrated against little children, it results in the most chronic form of dissociation, namely, MPD.

The remainder in the paragraph in Is. 61 further describes those who are afflicted as those taken captive. The word "taken captive" is a passive participle of "shabbah" which describes those taken captive as prisoners of war.
Chronic child abuse and/or ritual abuse opens the door for little children to be taken captive as prisoners of war by Satan and his hosts. The phrase "and those who are bound" is the passive participle of 'asar' which means to be bound with chords and fetters. The passive voice again emphasizes that these afflicted people are the recipients of the action, victims and helpless to defend themselves, at least externally.

We will now notice the New Testament reference to the passage in Luke 4:18 where Jesus begins His public ministry at Nazareth on a Sabbath day reading in the Synagogue. Most of our modern versions do not quote the complete text, which is found in the majority text as well as in the King James Version. The phrase "to heal the broken-hearted" in the Greek is the articular perfect passive participle of 'suntribo' which basically means 'to grind', rub or crush together. The term was used in secular Greek for the breaking of bones, the smashing of limbs, skulls or entire bodies of man or animals in battle. Thayer's Greek Lexicon, pg. 606, defines 'suntribo' as to 'break in pieces', to shiver. Arndt and Gingrich, pg. 793, defines the term in a similar way as to shatter, smash, crush.

In the figurative sense it describes the results of the severe abuse resulting in extreme sorrow and distress, emotionally and mentally. The word is used in it's literal sense in the New Testament in Mt 12:20; Mk 5:4; 14:3; Jn 19:36; Rev 2:27. Of particular note is that 'suntribo' is used to describe the apparent internal crushing and bruising that a demon inflicted upon a person when being expelled during an exorcism by the Lord Jesus Christ (Lk. 9:39). The demon was probably very angry at being expelled and was retaliating against his hopeless victim for having to depart. The word is used in Rom. 16:20 for God's final crushing judgment which He will inflict upon Satan through the Church at the return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The next relevant term in Lk. 4:18 is to "set at liberty those who are downtrodden" or bruised. This is a perfect passive participle of 'thrauo', which means 'to break, to break in pieces, to smite through.' According to Schmidt quoted by Thayer in his Greek Lexicon, pg. 562, "thrauo, to shatter, is suggestive of many fragments and minute dispersion." Anyone working with survivors of multi-generational SRA with resultant MPD should have some understanding of the effects of severe childhood trauma upon its victims. Schmidt's reference to "many fragments and minute dispersion" is quite descriptive of a person who is poly-fragmented MPD.

How encouraging to realize that at the very beginning of Jesus' public ministry, He proclaimed that He came to heal the very ones whom Satan had so desperately shattered through sinful man. We have a multitude of such shattered people in this generation who are waiting for the Church to be available to be His healing instrument.

Acts 10:38 is highly significant in the above context: "You know how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him." Please notice what the passage states: "Jesus healed ALL who were oppressed by the devil"!!
The articulate present passive participle of the word 'katadunasteuo' describes those people who have been under the tyrannical rule of a vicious potentate who has been habitually exercising his power over those under his control in a hurtful and oppressive manner. From such passages as Jn 5: 1-9 it is obvious that Jesus didn't heal all who were physically sick or handicapped, but in Acts 10:38 the passage clearly states that Jesus healed ALL who were mentally, emotionally and spiritually oppressed by the devil. How many of our churches have multitudes of people who are severely "depressed" or "dysfunctional" and need to be delivered or healed by the same Jesus Christ in and through the members of His Body, the Church?

In my first paper I briefly discussed Isaiah 61:1, Luke 4:18, Acts 10:38 and other passages in relation to the present phenomenon of Multiple Personality Disorder (MPD) in the context of Satanic Ritual Abuse (SRA). In this second paper I want to present what is Biblically described as the heart or spirit that has been crushed or pulverized. The semantic field will include the Hebrew verb and noun forms dakha, dakhah, dokh, dakh, dqq and daq. I want to say at the outset that I am not stating that the Bible is explicitly referring to the phenomenon defined as MPD. What I am seeking to communicate is that the Biblical language used to describe the oppressed and abused is remarkably revealing in the original language. According to The Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament, Vol. III, pg. 195ff, the Hebrew terms referred to above literally mean to crush, pulverize, to break or dash to pieces, to be ground up fine, to oppress or abuse.

Many of the people God has brought into my life and ministry have reported what they have described as being reduced to dust, fragments, or hundreds of "parts", etc. Those reports have come from people who have a background of multi-generational SRA. As a result of the chronic traumatic abuse in infancy and early childhood, these people have been pulverized, reduced to dust, poly-fragmented in the most unimaginable ways possible. This pulverization occurs in the soul, the mind, the heart and the human spirit, as a result of the most intense form of demonization in the context of SRA. This abuse in its most insidious form is executed by the demonic, orchestrated by Satan through the instrumentality of the demonized perpetrators.

As we begin to examine the Scriptures and the terminology referred to in this paper, I am aware that in the realm of semantics words that have a literal meaning may be used in a figurative or metaphorical way. For example, Ps. 10: 17-18 says, "O Lord, Thou hast heard the desire of the humble; Thou wilt strengthen their heart, Thou wilt incline Thine ear to vindicate the orphan and the oppressed, that man who is of the earth may cause terror no more." In verse 17 the "humble" are the ‘anil’ (Heb.). This denotes the afflicted, poor, wretched, weak and helpless; those overwhelmed by their sense of need and their inability to deal with the situation. This verse goes on to say that God will strengthen their hearts and listen attentively to their prayers. In verse 18 God promises to vindicate the orphan or fatherless. Many children who have grown up in the context of multi-generational satanism have fathers and mothers who are MPD as a result of their being abused by their parents. These parents, in turn, have been programmed to abuse and incest their own children in order to cause the splitting or fragmentation of their personalities.

This phenomenon is described as dissociation. In association with the dissociative process, dense amnesiac walls or defensive barriers develop between the dissociated aspects of the personality. This means that the child may grow up with little or no memory of his or her parents' abusing them until later in life when those defensive, amnesiac walls begin to break down. The point I want to make is that children who grew up with parents as the primary abusers are in a real sense 'orphans.'
They have biological mothers and fathers, but the real meaning of the terms ‘father’ and ‘mother’ from God’s point of view, nourisher, sustainer, protector, are without fulfillment. If parents betray their roles as God’s stewards and caregivers, they betray the very meaning and purpose of being a father or mother. Children who grow up in this context of abuse are in a real sense God’s orphans. The Word of God is filled with many wonderful promises of God’s special care and provision for such people.

In Psalm 10:18 God promises to vindicate the orphans (fatherless) and the oppressed (Heb. daq), i.e. those who have been crushed, pulverized or dashed to pieces. Is it not significant that the Holy Spirit uses terms that appear to anticipate and even literally describe the effects of severe traumatic abuse?

In Exodus 30:36 and Numbers 11:8 the Bible describes the preparation of the incense that was derived from various fragrant substances and ground to powder or fine dust. According to Exodus 32:20 Moses took the golden calf, burnt it and then ground what remained into powder. The same terms are used to describe Josiah’s destruction of the idolatrous images of Asherah and the crushing of what was left into dust (11 Chron. 15:16). In these passages the Hebrew use of these words is obviously used in the literal sense: to pulverize or crush into fine powder or dust. Yet the Holy Spirit uses this same Hebrew root form to describe those who have a distressed, crushed, broken and contrite heart as a consequence of one’s own sin or because of the sin of others perpetrated against the helpless and defenseless (Ps. 38:8; 51:8).

Psalm 34:18 states God is near to the brokenhearted, i.e. those shattered inside; and He delivers those who are crushed (Heb. daka) in spirit. Everyone who is a survivor of any form of severe trauma, including SRA, will be crushed or pulverized in spirit! This may be clinically defined as MPD or, according to DSM IV, Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID). Regardless of the clinical terminology, God promises to rescue, deliver and save such people. God’s name is on the line, pulverized saints of God!! How He will do this, when He will do this, how long it will take, I cannot say; but God has promised to deliver those who are crushed, pulverized, poly-fragmented in spirit, heart and mind!

My experience is that God uses these very people to be instruments or vessels of His love and healing. Such instruments must be, first and foremost, sensitive to the leading and guiding of the Holy Spirit. It is God alone who is perfect in knowledge, love and power, who must be the origin and source of all that we do as instruments in His hand for the deliverance of those taken captive by Satan. As Christians and counselors, we must become "strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might" in order to be proficient in the whole realm of exorcism, deliverance, etc. As God's vessels to those who are bound, we must also be diligent to acquire a basic understanding of the dissociative disorders, and especially cult-generated MPD as a strategic component in leading people to healing and wholeness in Christ.
As of the writing of this paper, the author is not aware of any written literature which adequately delineates in a comprehensive and definitive manner the spiritual and clinical protocols required to bring a complex MPD/SRA victim to resolution. Those of us who have been working with this population have various levels of proficiency and knowledge. My present state of knowledge is growing exponentially as I continue to work with these people whom God has brought into my life. I am gratified to see God’s victory and deliverance progressively being realized in these pulverized saints. I believe these pulverized saints of God are destined to be His primary means of crushing Satan under the feet of His people, the Church (Rom. 16:20 w / Is. 26: 5-6 w / Micah 4: 6-7).

Many survivors often ask, “Where was God when I was being abused, crushed, terrorized, humiliated, etc.?” I would like to address that very important question, knowing that only God Himself is able to give an adequate answer to each individual. Isaiah 63:9 states, "In all their affliction He (God Himself) was afflicted." In Ezekiel 6:9 God was shattered and broken because of the adulterous hearts of His people who had turned away from Him. The suffering of God’s people throughout the ages has always been a great enigma, i.e. Job and many of the Psalmists’ experiences. The sufferings of the Israelites under the cruel yoke of slavery in Egypt is another example of this question of suffering. Chapters two and three of Exodus reveal in a remarkable way God's intimate knowledge of His suffering people. "Now it came about in the course of those many days that the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry for help because of their bondage rose up to God. So God heard their groaning; and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And God saw the sons of Israel, and God took notice of them" (Ex. 2: 23-25). Notice verse 25. The Hebrew says "God saw the children of Israel and God knew"(Heb. yada). This means He was intimately aware of their sufferings and misery. In Exodus 3:7(b) God says, "I have seen the affliction of my people and I have given heed to my peoples' cry ... for I fully know and am intimate (yada) with their sufferings and sorrows." Verse 8 says, "So I have come down to deliver them..." Verse 10, "So I will send you Moses", a man through whom God brings deliverance. Today God's appointed means of deliverance is a Man called Jesus (Jn. 9:11) Who works through His Body, the Church, to bring deliverance to the afflicted and needy. But the question must be addressed, "How can a loving and caring God allow little children to be pulverized, broken and shattered like those who have come from multi-generational SRA? I will seek to answer that difficult question by asking an even more profound question: "How could a loving and caring God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, allow HIM to be wounded for our rebellious acts and crushed or pulverized (Heb. daka) for our iniquities?" (Is. 53: 5, 10).

An even more astonishing question would be: "How could this same loving and caring God be pleased to crush (Heb. daka, piel intensive stem) His uniquely begotten Son, putting Him to grief?" Do you know why God was so pleased to crush and pulverize Jesus Christ in our place as our substitute?
Because GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD of lost sinners, dead in trespasses and sins, that He did something about it! He gave all that He had—His uniquely begotten Son, as our sin-bearing substitute on a despised Roman cross, so that "whosoever believes in Him should not perish" (Jn. 3:16) but have the quality of life God has in Himself—eternal life!

To everyone who knows what it means to be pulverized, shattered, fragmented and crushed, God the Father and God the Son know the full implications of what it means as well! All because of our sins, or in reality because of God's great love that DID SOMETHING about our sins, including the sins of those who are the abusers! God placed the sins of the whole human race on Jesus Christ and judged Him in our place (Is. 53:6b)!

Now I want to show you a most profound phenomenon about our amazing and wonderful God. Look at Isaiah 57:14-15: "And it shall be said, 'build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstacle out of the way of My people.' For thus says the high and exalted One who lives forever and whose name is Holy, 'I dwell on a high and holy place, and also with the contrite and lowly of spirit, in order to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.'" In verse 15 God states that He is the high and exalted One who lives, dwells or inhabits eternity. God is from everlasting to everlasting (Ps. 90:2), exalted above all time and space because He is the transcendent one who is before all time, above all time and beyond all time. The verse says He is HOLY. He is completely unique in all of His attributes, perfect in His character. This means He is to be respected, revered, honored and worshipped as the One and only God. His name or His character is HOLY. He lives in a high and holy place, the very highest of heaven, the heaven of the heavens. And now notice, all those who have been pulverized, crushed and broken: God also dwells with the contrite and lowly of spirit! 'Contrite' is the Hebrew adjective 'dakha', which means to be crushed, pulverized, thoroughly bruised and broken of spirit. Just think of this, the transcendent holy God who lives in eternity above all time also dwells with the crushed of spirit!! The lowly are those of us who have been humbled, those who have learned that without God we are nothing, helpless and hopeless, but with God we have a hope and a future. The perfect, sinless humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ knew that apart from God the Father He could do absolutely nothing! See John 5:19 and 30. He was the humble, lowly and innocent Lamb of God that took away the sins of the world (Jn. 1:29).

Verse 15 of Isaiah 57 continues by saying that God dwells with the broken and humble of spirit in order to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the crushed, or thoroughly bruised and broken. The word 'revive' means to give or impart life. Dissociation is a form of death. Traumatized minds, hearts and spirits are often occupied by demons who bring death, who perpetuate the original trauma and maintain and enforce the dissociation or separateness within the alter systems. Jesus Christ is the Life. He must be allowed entrance into every part of the heart/mind/spirit that has been fragmented, in order that He might dwell there. His presence brings revival because Jesus Christ is the Life of God in the soul of the believer, in the Person of the Holy Spirit. The enemy has come to steal, kill and destroy, but Jesus came that we might have LIFE, and having that Life, we might come to enjoy that Life in ALL its fullness.
Jesus Christ is God's full and complete answer to the worst that both Satan and man has perpetrated against the innocent, the helpless and the pulverized!

“Lord, I pray for everyone who has experienced devastating trauma resulting in a crushed or broken spirit, that You would manifest and impart the Life that raised Jesus Christ from the dead into every aspect of their mind, will, emotions, spirit, soul and body, with the result that each pulverized saint would become whole, complete and lacking in nothing (Jms. 1:4).”

“Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved complete, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He who calls you, and He will also bring it to pass.” I Thess. 5: 23-24.

3. Building the wall: Growth in and application of the following:

3.1 Faith

3.2 Knowledge of the Word of God

3.3 Obedience
3.4 Discipline

3.5 Contact with Holy Spirit for guidance

4. Weapons of warfare

4.1 Spiritual armour - Eph. 6

4.2 Keep standing

4.3 Petitions - especially to secure and protect process and people

4.4 O.T. warfare principles, e.g. I King 20

4.5 Rule of the Victor - This is a strategy that was given by the Lord to Pastor Leonard Anspach in his work with survivors. The ROV is based upon Biblical principles of warfare and authority. ROV is aimed at cultists attacking your client and regional spirits.

   The Biblical principles that are used are the following:

   4.5.1 The victor dictated the terms of defeat and the future military capability of the conquered foes - I Sam. 13: 19-23; Judges 1: 6-7; 1 Sam. 11:2; 2 Sam. 8:4; 1 Chron. 18:4; Rom. 8:37; Ex. 17.

   4.5.2 Jurisdictional authority: The kingdom of God is an organized structure of authority and the kingdom of Satan is also an organized structure of authority and this must be taken into account in the application of ROV. ROV can therefore be applied to the local groups and spirits as well as groups and powers coming in from other regions to attack your counselee.

4.6 Deliverance

In DID/SRA cases deliverance is an important part of the whole counseling process and critical for spiritual freedom and healing. If not handled carefully continuous deliverance sessions can be experienced as a form of spiritual abuse by some or all of the alters. The following factors are important in the planning of the deliverance sessions:

- timing - make sure it is God's timing
- spiritual strength of the host as well as the system
- emotional strength of the host as well as the other alters
- stability in environmental factors
- continuous abuse
- current contact with cult
- memories linked to the areas to be handled
- safety issues
- substance abuse
- availability of support group afterwards
The goal of deliverance, spiritual warfare and intercession is to achieve spiritual freedom for all the alters of the counselee and is therefore aimed at residential demons, strongholds in the mind and the strongmen attached to that, generational curses, cultural sin and territorial spirits and rulers. Sometimes it is necessary to deal with memories and trauma first before the demons can be cast out.

4.7 Psalms and other specific scriptures given by God.

4.8 Praise and worship.

4.9 Work through the systems: from the inside to the outside and vice versa.

4.10 Handle every part of the system when it is the appropriate time.

4.11 Pulling down altars - Judges 6: 25-26

"Pull down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father, and cut down Asherah that is beside it; and build an altar to the Lord your God on the top of this stronghold in an orderly manner."
We are conceived and born as little bundles of NEED!
Our basic needs are:
- To be accepted
- Nurtured
- Comforted
- To have security / protection
- Peace
- And Purpose.
All these needs are met by being unconditionally loved. Our parents are the first people who are meant to supply our needs.

As we grow, we move through certain stages of development. Each stage requires certain circumstances in order for us to grow successfully through that stage. Certain good and strong character traits are developed in us if we do receive the needed attention and stimulation. Other negative and unstable characteristics develop in an environment of deprivation of basic needs and stimulation.

It seems that our basic needs urge specific stimulation from the important others around us. The stimulation affects our ability to cope with the everyday stresses of life.

During each stage there are certain character traits one will develop, but only under condition of the right/needed support from those around you. If these support systems are not in place, certain negative traits are developed and the person will be lacking the ability to develop successfully during the following stages! This thus clearly indicates the importance of the fulfillment of the basic needs at each stage in life, mentally, emotionally and spiritually.

During the first stage, we see that one of the crucial developments is to be able to move to joy from every negative emotion. For e.g. from feelings of rejection, abandonment, irritation, frustration, disappointment, anger or sadness to a place called ‘joy camp’.

According to research, there is a place at the base of the brain referred to the joy center.

The important aspect to understand here is then that only at the point of knowing our way back at joy camp, and living from joy (understanding that this can be the norm) we can start moving to maturity! Spiritual, emotional and mental maturity is therefore not possible unless we know how to live from our secure position of joy! (The joy of the Lord is my strength available from Kanaan Ministries).
What happens to us when we do not receive these basic needs? We experience trauma. Trauma is pain on the emotional level. Our minds, however cannot discern between emotional and physical pain.

Any form of pain is experienced as a huge bundle of electrochemical impulses (see Wounded Soldier available from Kanaan Ministries).

The mind (brain) deals with it, by releasing chemicals – one of which is called endorphins – to help the body push the pain to the unconscious part of the brain. It forms a “gate” on the traumatic (painful) information and the body (and person) can carry on to function as normal (usual). (See: Understanding Emotional Pain available from Kanaan Ministries)

This however has specific effects on our overall development and can prevent us to function effectively in our everyday walk with the people around us and with the Lord.

Our brain-development has an amazing role to play in dealing with the kind of stimulation we receive from our surroundings, even from conception.

We are born with 100 billion neurons (nerve cells) in our brain. But these are not connected and are awaiting stimulation to grow and connect – to form paths that will eventually become familiar and speed up our responses to certain triggers from our surroundings.

Messages or information get transferred from one nerve cell to the next via electrical impulses. The impulse crosses the gap (synapse) in the form of chemicals called neurotransmitters. Some common neurotransmitters are: endorphins, serotonin and dopamine. Most anti-depressants are effective by controlling the serotonin levels in the brain. (If the serotonin levels are too low, depression kicks in).
Each neuron contains certain branching, called dendrites. The dendrites have ends called terminals and it is from these terminals that the messages are transferred. These branching grow with stimulation and form more and more connections!! In other words, the more stimulation, the more connections. (Louw, D.A.; Von Ede, D.M.; Louw, A.E.)

The moment any traumatic event occurs, certain neurotransmitters are released to help us cope.

These neurotransmitters are therefore intensely involved in the growing and connecting of the dendrites in our brain as well as the forming of new pathways. This determines our perceptions, interpretations and thought patterns linked to triggers and determining certain reactions.

Another fascinating aspect of the brain is the ability to receive or reject certain messages, determined by specific receptors at the terminals of the receiving neuron. This crucial choice will be due to whether the ‘shape’ of the receptor can accommodate the ‘shape’ of the neurotransmitter. It can be compared to finding the right key to fit into the receptor ‘keyhole’. The neurotransmitters can therefore be seen as keys unlocking the potential and ability to grow! It seems that when certain receptors are in high demand, they will eventually either increase in concentration per receiving dendrites, or become highly sensitive to the ‘fitting’ neurotransmitter. This causes certain pathways easier to follow in our minds.
Therefore: It becomes increasingly difficult to change habits, perceptions and thought patterns the more used our minds come to certain pathways. The more exposure to trauma of whatever kind, the more likely to have either highly sensitive receptors for the specific neurotransmitters active with the handling of trauma, or an increase in the concentration of these kind of receptors.

This might be why the understanding of the Father’s love and the ability to receive it, are such a battle for many who have been through much trauma.

If a child/baby did not receive the basic needs during the various stages of development, the ability to receive God’s love, to feel accepted, welcome and secure are not developed and need to be prayed for. The receptors need to change, the balance in the various neurotransmitters need to become Godly, etc.

Now with this understanding in mind: How do we utilize this information in prayer, specifically to people we have identified as lacking in the basic needs and according to the Life Model, not connected to joy camp?

(Please also see: Living from the Heart Jesus Gave You – Dr. James Frieson)

One possible way of helping is assisting the counselee in actively praying the Petition for the meeting of basic needs! (See Petition-section). And encouraging him/her to spend as much time possible in the healing Presence of God the Father!
BRAIN STRUCTURE IN DID’S AND OTHER VICTIMS OF ABUSE
– Fritz Springmeier

Different personalities are often in different neuro psychological states.

Some of these states are dangerous and they can actually die in absence of trained medical help.

Glutamate (amino acids) is an important neurotransmitter involved in the storage process of memories.

The basic Roadmap of Fear through the brain (Alice Park):

Fear senses will send a message of the fearful experience / shock / pain / etc. to the central portion of the brain. Here the stimulus activates two different neural pathways. One which would be the relatively long, circuitous route through the cortex. During this route a most elaborate and accurate processing of information takes place.

The other route can be described as an emergency short cut. This brain-road soon reaches an almond-shaped cluster of cells called the amygdala.

The Amygdala is seen as the emotional core of the brain. The amygdala has the primary goal (role) of triggering the fear response. The information passing through the Amagdala is then tagged with emotional significance.

The Amygdala also activates the body to fight or run. It is not designed to be accurate but quick in response.

The Amygdala then simultaneously fires up the hypothalamus. This structure helps the brain to learn and form new memories. It supports the body systems to remember previous experience of potential danger in order to avoid similar occurrences. It also supports the system to remember what situations seem safe.

By this time: The info on the pathway has reached the cortex. The cortex confirms that there’s danger present and figures out that it is indeed causing pain.

Once the shock has worn off, a part of the brain called the prefrontal cortex (operating like a brake) sends an all-clear signal / message and informs the amygdala that the coast is clear – it (the amygdala) can relax. This is not easy – it seems more difficult to turn off a stress response than to turn it on.

Hypothalamus bridges the mind and the body. It works as part of the limbic-hypothalamic system.

This system operates as the determining center for what state of mind the brain is placed in.
The immune system communicates directly with the hypothalamus part via the “immuno-transmitters”.

One single nerve fiber cell have 600 connections. The average brain contains 10 000 000 individual neurons (nerve cells). Each has 10 with 100 zeros worth of interconnections. The average brain has vastly more interconnections than the total number of atoms in the universe.

There are +/- ½ million different chemical reactions every minute. It increases with intense activity.

Certain chemical imbalances can cause some personality traits:
- raving paranoia due to too much dopamine in the emotional centres and too little dopamine in the seat of the reasoning area.
- reducing levels of serotonin will cause a person to be unable to connect disagreeable consequences with what provoked them. This entails the inability of a person to protect him-/ herself from danger.

The enzyme: Horseradish peroxide (HRP) – serves as a marker / highlighter which allows us to see how the brain cells function.

In trauma and programming:

- the DID’s brain differ from a non-DID person’s brain. Different personalities are often in different neuropsychological states.

- Brain stem scarring, torture and drugs enhance memory. With brain stem modification via hypnosis into hypnotic state.

- With total sensory deprivation e.g. placing victim in a salt water tank with electrodes – while shocking the body until it stops all movement, will put the mind in a primitive state of consciousness. This victim’s mind will then be open for post-hypnotic commands to do something on certain dates.

- 10-15 repetitions in 1 second will be enough to cause the brain to lose interest e.g. 3 gunshots, 3 light flashes will be standard access triggers for Monorah slaves.

- In Monarch slave’s brain the left and right hemispheres work simultaneously and various personalities will be busy working simultaneously on different tracks.

- The right and left Thalamus – just above the brain stem is the brain’s selective attention mechanism. RIGHT: connected to attention to visual shapes. LEFT: attention to things describable in words.

- During dissociation the brain begins to reverse the primordial brain functions, e.g. pain is pleasure / love – this may cause these victims to plead for torture.
- the limitation of sugar and protein will force the brain into submission.

- In Monarch programming drugs often help to facilitate hypnosis.

- The mind can control breathing, heart beat, blood pressure. The Brain produces a substance, tiny peptide molecules called enkephalin (similar to morphin). This substance reduces pain and can be hypnotically trained.

- Hyperventilation aids a person to induct into a hypnotic trance. Torture depersonalization, fear, anxiety stimulates the body to hyperventilate. This then "aids" the hypnosis process until the victim is in a complete hypnotic trance.

- There are five basic levels of subconsciouness. The deepest trance is a very creative level.

- A program is placed at the same level that the mind uses to tell the heart to beat.

- High Tech equipment stimulates orgiastic state (sexual ecstasy) part of the brain. This state allows the mind to open up to all unconscious states. A sophisticated brain wave machine then programs thoughts into the victim’s mind.

- Babies are specifically interacted with so that those specific areas in the brain will develop to maximum.

- The brain areas grow according to how much stimulation and use that area receives.

- Babies are taught to match identical items very early – even prior to speech. This enables them to build mirror images into their minds.

- Training of victims start before ego-states. In other words before 4-5 years of age.

- The Brain does not contain a cohesive selfhood or self-identity.

- The Multiple’s brain is like an orchestra – the programmer becomes the conductor to bring order out of chaos.

- A common way to wash away pain is running water.

- REM sleep helps to restore effectiveness of certain brain pathways in which norepinephrine is the transmitter substance. If they program different alters to have different sleep patterns, their personalities can be adjusted.

(Please see Petition for Meeting of Basic Needs and the Restoration of the Brain)
Avalon is the name of the realm where King Arthur, the Knights of the round table and Merlin can be found and actually exists in the spirit and accessing that place means that one is activating yourself in one of the realms of those that will be reestablished when the New World order is established. Power bases are the Dragons of the Ancient World as well as the sorcery of Merlin and other wizards. Using the net often can be a way in which they are able to trace who is using what. Obviously those playing these games are marked and demons are assigned as well as their incorporation into the New World Order takes place.

PINEAL GLAND

- Blood from Heart
- Through meditation or knighting ritual with Blood and Spear
- Grail Castle

Pineal Gland

Through meditation increasing "enlightenment" from lowest chackra to highest

Coiled serpent (kundalini – spiral energy)
USING MEDITATION
(on ‘stone of light’ or TM or Drugs); one then moves:

Through 7 phases of the moon or 7 chakras.

Through meditation, the blood from the heart (blood on/from spear) transforms the pineal gland into final stage of enlightenment - thus clairvoyant powers of perception (3rd eye).

Spear bleeding in King Arthur ceremony =the heart opens the centre of man’s consciousness (Pineal gland). The eye of perception sees false for truth and truth for lie!

The one having the spear has the hearts of the people – if you have their hearts – you can control (‘enlighten’) the level of consciousness / perception!

It is also believed that the one that has the spear, has the control of the entire world. He also carries the key to eternal life!
TRAPS YOU NEED TO BE WARNED ABOUT

1. CLIENT TRAPS

1.1 Rushing

Healing and living are the goals of treatment, not getting finished. Do a thorough job, not a quick one, and try not to dissociate from life during treatment.

1.2 Resistance to memory work

Respect the amnesia. It is there for a purpose, to protect from pain. Doing difficult work before its time can cause the system to lose its equilibrium.

1.3 “Integration” problems and fears

This topic can detract from the therapeutic process. Cooperation and healing really are the immediate objectives in therapy - not becoming "fully fused." Use words like “sharing”, “flunity”, “joining” and "merging" - words that describe the process accurately.

1.4 Weakness and terror management

Memory work can flood. Systems can get overwhelmed. Watch out for environmental failure, and for too much emphasis on memory work.

1.5 Hoping for therapy’s end too soon

Things often get worse before they get better. The thickest amnesia hides the most painful feelings, and can be the last to erode. Explain this process when they reach that part of therapy.

1.6 Listening to “debunkers”

Whoever disbelieves survivors should be ignored. "Debate" talk shows and "debunking" articles are attacks on the veracity of survivors, and they retraumatize some selves, elicit denial in others, and cause suicidality. Debunkers are dangerous.

2. SPIRITUAL TRAPS

2.1 Spiritual interference

"Oppressive Supernatural States” are different than personality states. They are highly oppressive, illigical and truth-twisting, and they interrupt every important relationship in the client's life. They take a weakness and exploit it to the maximum level of destruction possible. Demons attached to a vow.
2.2 External deceivers

"Spirit guides", some "inner self helpers", "angels" or other "oppressive supernatural states" can seriously interrupt therapy.

2.3 Religious spirits

When guilt abounds and grace is blocked, religious spirits may be the reason. They twist the truth. "Jesus died for your sins" can be twisted to "You caused His death, and don't deserve His love." She belongs to me.

2.4 Family spirits

Intergenerational spirits are often overlooked.

2.5 Over-spiritualization

Alleged "demons" may be personalities. Unknown feelings often come from selves.

2.6 Spirits may pose as personalities

If there is only a voice, but nothing else, the state is very likely external to the system, probably an oppressive supernatural state.

2.7 Incomplete exorcism

Some demons remain hidden during exorcism. Pray for guidance. Exorcism sessions should result in peace.

2.8 Religious abuse

When personalities are mistaken for demons, and exorcised, the person is severely hurt.

2.9 Spiritual abuse

Therapists should not dismiss spiritual issues, treat all problems as though they are psychological, or try to accommodate demonic states. This often results in therapy "drop outs."
3. RITUAL ABUSE TRAPS

3.1 Teams, churches and communities fracture over this issue

Everyone's deepest feelings are evoked when this comes up, so expect lots of intensity.

3.2 Alienation between the selves

Internal accountability - the "Buddy system" helps.

3.3 Truth - especially scripture - gets horrifically twisted

He who is in you is greater than he that is in the world.

4. SPIRITUAL STRENGTHENING - THE BATTLE IS THE LORD’S

4.1 Discipleship is always square 1

When there is not enough faith in the system, intra-system hostility continues.

4.2 Prayer for healing and cleansing

Periodic cleansing helps those who acquire new wounds from life's on-going struggles or from the pain of new memories being uncovered. Joining the "Multiple Group".

4.3 Be alert for the enemy’s lies

Demons attached to a stronghold.

Demons attached to a vow.

4.4 Deliverance: Seeking an undivided heart

Double binding the spirits can open the door to truth. Binding spirits and affirming personalities. Personalities working together to expel demons. RICK HAMMOND: More than Survivors, Chapters 10 - 11.
THE FIVE ESSENTIAL AREAS OF TREATMENT
by Ps Leonard Anspach

1. ALTERNATE PERSONALITIES

Each individual suffering from MPD will have a system of personalities (separate and distinct collections of mind, will, and emotion). The number, complexity and arrangement of these alters will vary from case to case depending on several factors (to be discussed later). Each alter must be treated with respect as an individual possessing value and significance, no matter how abrasive or offensive his presentation may be. In some cases, due to extreme fracturing, certain alters can be dealt with collectively. Each alter must be guided to a willing surrender to Jesus Christ and adopt His truth as His value system for life. Without this commitment, there is no sound manner to determine right and wrong in an alter's values nor is there an adequate basis for dealing with any demonic interference in his life. Each alter must be perceived by the counselor as crucial to the overall success of the counseling process. Each alter's cooperation and assistance is pivotal for the counselor's effectiveness. Each one will possess a job of some kind. Some will know their job description, others will not. Understanding each alter's function and giving each a new job description if the old job is inappropriate (i.e. old job: suicide; new job: protect life) is important. Alters, like any person, do not like to feel useless or unimportant. Eventually, after all other areas have been addressed, each alter will need to be integrated. The integration process involves memory work, abreaction and processing of the traumatic experience.

2. PSYCHOLOGICAL DAMAGE

The individual and the alters have experienced some form of trauma that has caused damage to the soul (mind, will, and emotions). The distortions of reality and truth as well as the deviant value system that has been learned through dysfunction must be corrected by learning the truth of how God designed the mind, will and emotions to function. The counsellor must remember that an alter's view of life may be quite myopic. The data available to him in his personal experience may be purposefully limited by the cult in order to influence his belief structure and subsequently his behavior. For instance, if an alter is only permitted to surface during Satanic rituals (never during normal daily living) he quickly learns through observation and instruction that there are only two types of people in the world: those that are hurt and those that do the hurting. He may then be given the opportunity to experience a sampling of both. With this limited perspective, it is understandable that most alters would choose to become a victimizer and not a victim. Therapy should address the inadequacy of his perspective, the opportunity to choose to be different, and the assurance that God loves him and will cleanse and free him from his guilt.
3. PHYSIOLOGICAL DAMAGE

Frequently, due to the chronic severity of the trauma, individuals will experience unresolved medical problems with no medical history to indicate a cause. Bones are sometimes broken, purposely or accidentally. The trauma experienced to all body openings can cause such problems as TMJ weak bowel muscles, gynaecological difficulties or scarring, etc. This does not include the list of physiological symptoms that can be caused by the emotional trauma or stress upon the body. The physiological issues must be addressed by a competent physician or appropriate specialist that is willing to cooperate with the counsellor and give adequate care in a sensitive manner that will not further traumatize the counsellee.

4. SPIRITUAL ISSUES

In MPD especially SRA, the most obvious spiritual issue is the need to deal with any and all alters that may be demonized as a result of what they have experienced. Neglecting to deal with this arena may result in a wide spectrum of undesirable consequences from therapy progressing slowly or being stalled entirely to serious or successful suicide attempts. In addition to the demonic interference (which is a major factor in highly complex MPD/ SRA), the alters have been conditioned and instructed in error, not truth. Wholeness is facilitated by the development of true spirituality in the alters and counsellee. A Biblical view of identity in Christ, Who God is and what He is like, and what God intends life to be like are all essential areas of learning for the alters. (Neal Anderson's material in Victory Over the Darkness is valuable for this purpose).

5. PROGRAMMING ISSUES

Programming in the MPD/SRA is a sophisticated combination of trauma based on behavioristic conditioning and demonic enslavement. Although the cult may use every conceivable method of mind control known to man, from drug induced hypnosis to unspeakable forms of physical, mental and emotional torture, the real power behind programming is the demonic control gained in the individual's mind. Programming is a spiritually (demonically) based system. If the demonic empowerment is broken, the mechanism of programming can easily be dismantled. One indication of demonically empowered programming is the attitude of an alter prior to and after the programmed behavior has occurred. For instance, a given alter may be cutting his wrist. During therapy, the alter is dealt with concerning the wrongness of this behavior and he genuinely agrees that such behavior is wrong and commits himself to never do it again. During the next contact with the patient it is obvious that more cutting has occurred. The same alter is addressed and admits his responsibility for cutting but acknowledges that he knew it was wrong (rational) and didn't want to do it (volitional) but ended up doing this destructive behavior anyway. After it was done, the alter shows clear indication of grief and remorse (emotional) at his behavior without the counsellor prompting the response.
This scenario, in which the alter's rational, volitional and emotional structure was violated in order to accomplish some destructive or inappropriate end, is normally an indication that demonical driven programming, cognitive restructuring and other psychological methodologies will not effectively break programming if it is demonically driven. This programming must be broken spiritually. Once the programming has been broken, cognitive restructuring and other methods of learning truth should be utilized in helping the individual learn new habits to replace old inappropriate behaviors (Rom. 12:2; Eph. 4: 22-24).

Every case of MPD or MPD/SRA will not involve all five areas mentioned above but the most severe cases will. Neglecting any of these issues present in the client will interfere with long term wholeness and healing. There may be dramatic therapeutic progress but unless all issues are resolved, it will only be a matter of time until the client experiences a measurable deterioration in his condition. Admittedly, some cases of MPD may not have any programming or spiritual interference. In these cases, counseling systems other than the one outlined above may be successfully used with long term beneficial results. However, it must be realized that all cases of MPD and MPD/SRA are not equal. The etiology of MPD and MPD/SRA are quite different. An accurate assessment of the category of MPD or MPD/SRA a client falls into is essential for effective treatment.
COMMON BELIEFS OF MANY ORTHODOX SATANIC CULTS MEMBERS

1. Satan is god, having all power over all the earth. He rules over the earth with a highly organized army of entities, referred to as "rulers, authorities, powers of darkness, and spiritual forces (i.e. demons)". It is a privilege to honour and serve him. A serious satanist will meditate daily to receive his instruction for the day from the spirit world and will participate regularly in rituals.

2. Vows to Satan are irrevocable; there is no way out of satanism except death. These vows made by each alter and sealed with their own blood renounce the "other god", as well as Jesus Christ, all the sacraments and all the prayers and petitions of faithful Christians who might intercede for them. They are usually repeated until it is a total part of their being.

3. To disobey Satan or carry out a ritual inaccurately incurs punishment, sometimes to the point of death. Therefore one's very life is dependent upon strict obedience to the cult leadership, and the accurate performance of participation in rituals.

4. Coven leaders and their directions are to be obeyed without question regardless of personal opinions.

5. Secrecy of cult proceedings is of utmost importance and betrayal of the cult is a life threatening risk.

6. If anyone leaves the cult, exposes cult secrets, or begins to serve Almighty God, he/she is a defector. Defectors are punished by torture. If the cult is unable to physically bring the defector back to be tortured, they will begin a campaign to break the defector emotionally. If the defector has advanced within the cult's hierarchy or is otherwise valuable to the cult, the person's life will be spared if they agree to continue serving the cult. If they refuse to return and serve the cult, they will be targeted for abduction and a torturous death. (Alters who begin to disclose information in therapy are considered defectors by the other alters, therefore "they must be destroyed." In my experience, some of the suicidal and/or self-mutilating alters are motivated by this belief.)

7. Self is to be exalted and the seeking of wealth, prestige, power and a personal pleasure is encouraged without regards to others.

8. Advancing in the cult hierarchy, as a general rule, is reserved for those who have an ancestral history of obedient service to Satan. Advancement generally requires competing against those who are in the next highest level, on occasions these are competitions to the death.
9. Curses, spells, hexes, vexes, incantations, etc. play an important part in the life of a satanist. They are regularly used to:

- Bring blessings upon self, family and/or friends; or
- Bring affliction or punishment to those who thwart their plans or are considered enemies.

10. Rituals are an integral part of the satanic belief structure, as the performance of these rituals is what empowers the curses, spells, etc. These rituals usually involve the perfect completion of a prescribed routine while simultaneously generating a high concentration of energy. Since sexual orgasms release large amounts of energy, sex plays a large part at generating energy for the rituals as well as carrying out other acts that evoke intense fear and anger.

11. Children are required to be present and participate in most religious rituals to Satan, these participations include:

- having the children observe the horror of what is happening;
- carrying out sexual relations with the children (oral, anal and vaginal);
- and inflicting other unspeakable mental and physical abuses against the child. Satanists believe that they receive energy and power from the intense emotions of an innocent child. This violation of a child is in direct opposition to the Judo-Christian and humanistic values of providing love, kindness and protection for children.

12. Flesh and Blood - both animal and human - are an integral part of satanic worship and rituals. There is a life force in blood that Satan craves - even demands from his followers; it empowers him. In exchange for the sacrifice of blood, Satan promises to give the worshipper power and protection. This continual partaking of flesh and blood is the antithesis of the Christian doctrine of the Lord's supper or Eucharist. According to Christian theology, the one and only sacrifice for all mankind was made almost 2000 years ago with the death of Jesus Christ. Now all that is required is to remember that event symbolically by partaking of bread and the fruit of the vine, not real flesh and blood (Matt 26: 26-29). The satanist's goal is to mock and defile all Christian doctrines.

13. Sacrifice, both animal and human, is what Satan requires; and in fact, there are some occasions during the year in which human sacrifice is mandatory. Therefore, there is nothing wrong with what our society would call murder. Sacrifice during worship or the taking of life in the service to Satan is not murder; to give your own child in sacrifice to Satan is a high honour. Training for the act of sacrifice begins very early in a child's life, rendering the child somewhat desensitized to death. Consequently, children are trained at an early age to kill (sacrifice) others, on command.
Christians and Jewish Christians are considered most excellent candidates for sacrifice. While those having purer Jewish roots are considered even more valuable candidates, since they are referred to as God's chosen people.

14. The above beliefs are important as they are the means to bring about by infiltrating churches, all educational systems including religious seminaries, civic organizations, youth groups, day care centers, government (i.e. local, national and international), medical and legal professions, etc.

15. In conjunction with the end of the age (when the heaven and earth as we know it will disappear) - the followers of Satan will be commanded to kill every non-satanist they can reach. At such a time, the followers of Satan will finally be victorious over the followers of Jesus Christ and Satan will receive his "rightful place" as god of all.

KEY ASPECTS OF COMMON RITUALS

• Baptism  All manner of being submerged in various water sources - i.e. wells, ponds, lakes, tubs, etc. Counterpart and blasphemy of Christian baptism ordinance.

• Blood Covenants  The sealing of contracts, etc. with blood.

• Born again Ritual  Buried alive in a box, coffin, person, animal carcass, etc. Usually buried with a dead body or body parts. Can also be preceded by a person having to participate in human sacrifice or simulated sacrifice of another child to whom they have bonded. May be left three days, three hours etc. Feels black, cold, dirty (due to body being anointed for burial with all manner of foul things put on person). Feelings of abandonment and difficulty in breathing. Rescued by a person dressed like Satan or some other authority figure other than family and birth into the 'new family'. Break all ungodly bonds and assure of new birth into the family of God.

• Bride of Satan  Done at various ages depending on the group. Usually accompanied by human sacrifice, communion, and sex orgies. Basically like an engagement or promise of future marriage.

• Communion  Mockery of Christian "Lord's Supper" or Eucharist. Partake of flesh, blood, urine, etc. Takes many forms, but these elements are included.

• Feast to the Beast  Early September. This is a mockery of the Passover Meal. Involves human sacrifice, sex orgies, extremely high energy service, almost to the point of chaos.
• Marriage to Satan Primarily teen years. Usually has the form of an official wedding with bride dressed in black, white or any colour. Satan usually appears to be very attractive at first. Marriage is consummated by sex with Satan where his appearance changes to be very frightening and grotesque. Followed by sex with high officials of the group. May also be followed by "feast to the beast" celebration. Mockery of the concept of Christians being the bride of Christ. Ask the Lord to provide an official divorce before the courts of heaven and declare the marriage null and void, etc. Break all sexual bonds, cast out all demonic entities that entered and ask the Father to declare him/her a spiritual virgin.

• Night of Curses and Blessings Held regularly - monthly, quarterly, etc. depending on the group. Sometimes blood sacrifices - animal or human. Always sex. Anything to create high energy. Used to appease the demons and empower them to carry out the desired curses and blessings placed on the altar.

• Sex rituals Very common ritual used to create power and energy at services. All combinations of male, female, child and animal including oral, anal and vaginal. Break all soul, spirit and heart (emotional) ties, demonic, human and over spouse as well.
ONE RITUAL = MANY ALTERS (EXAMPLE ONLY)

ALTER PERSONALITY =

THE MOTHER WITCH ENTERS THE ROOM

A1 = PLAYING

A2 = BEING DRESSED FOR RITUAL

A3 = GOING TO THE PLACE OF RITUAL

A4 = BEING A VICTIM IN THE RITUAL

A5 = BEING WORSHIPPED BY CULT MEMBERS. RECEIVING POWER, RANKING, GLORY, ETC. (INDICATING CASTLE IN HEAVENLIES)
WEAPONS WHEN DEALING WITH CASTLES

• Horses and fiery chariots of the Host of Heaven against the guards and legions of demons.

• Praise and worship of saints cause walls of castle to fall.

• Roar of Lion of Judah and the battle horns sounded in the spirit (Captain of Hosts leading the battle).

Please see study book on Intercession and Spiritual warfare by Vanessa Pretorius.

RESURRECTION FROM DEATH IN RITUALS

Most likely a marriage contract to a spirit when raising someone from the dead, means that the person’s spirit is tied to the realms of the dead in an attempt to receive information and guidance from the ancient spirits and dead ancestors. This will lead, guide and determine certain directions taken in the spirit realm, which in turn affects the spirit realm. Satan could use this to affect the condition of the church and the spiritual conditions over cities and towns.
SHAMANISM – ANIMAL TOTEMS

1. The creator

   There is no one animal that always represents the Creator. The Creator dances in all animals. The same holds true for minerals and plants. The Creator is part of everything and everything is part of the Creator.

2. Tortoise

   The animal totem for this stone is the Tortoise. Lessons we can learn from tortoise are ancient wisdom, experience, patience and endurance.

3. Lizard

   Lizard is the animal totem for this stone. From him we learn adaptability, optimism and good cheer.

4. Loon

   Loon is the totem for this stone. We can learn about mystery, transformation, fidelity and maneuverability from Loon.

5. Turtle

   Stone 5 has the turtle as its totem. From the turtle, which is one of the four elemental clans (element earth), we learn honor, ancient wisdom, stability and protection.

6. Frog

   Frog is the animal totem for this stone, and the second of the four elemental clans (element water). From him we can learn about evolution, mystery, transformation, humor and communication.
7. Thunderbird

Thunderbird is the third elemental clan of the inner circle (element fire). From the thunderbird, humans can learn lessons in goodness, kindness, cleansing, healing and very important to learn humility.

8. Butterfly

This last stone of the inner circle is butterfly. She is the fourth elemental clan (element air). From the beautiful butterfly, humans can learn transformation, growth, evolution, change and how to experience joy.

Spirit keeper animals.

(Stones 9 – 12)

9. Waboose

Shamanism
(Red Indian Magic)

Spirit guides will most likely be animals. The Totem of the coven will be the guardian spirit placed over person. The connection here is that of mother witch, through rituals done at birth and with umbilical cord of person. This will cause certain emotions controlling person (sub-personality involved with memory and ritual). When praying through this, one needs to address the spirit guides as well as the various abilities and emotions connected to the victim through the animal spirits. Cut all soul ties. Abilities may include seeing well in darkness, howling, breathing under water, exceptional eyesight, etc.

The soul ties and umbilical cord with the mother witch needs to be cut and all ungodly seals broken. Pray through any memory of these rituals using the M-section.

Ask God to remove all dead human spirits.
Lead the person into renouncing all titles, names and rankings received through these rituals. Cancel all agreements and quench the false fires in the name/title – giving ceremonies. Also pray through the following:

1. RED INDIAN MAGIC

Kachinas = Voodoo dolls – represent spirits.

RANKINGS AND FUNCTIONS OF DEMON SPIRITS

- Chiefs – territorial.
- Guards – gatekeepers.
- Disciplinarians – torturers.
- Mothers – women.
- Dominant – males.
- Wizards – elements of nature.
- Runners – couriers.
- Clowns – joker/trickster (Coyote).
- Animals – shape-shifters.
- Hunters – hounds of hell.
- Connectors – connect different parts to different objects, e.g. moon, sun, etc.

SACRED DOORS
(shape-shifting)

During rituals different doors open to enter into the levels of the spirit realm. There is always a backdoor to exit.

NB: The person has to be taken out of the realm through this door – I Kings 13:9 – otherwise the trickster is involved.
If the person exits through the front door, it will look like the person is free, when, in fact, it was just a transformation from the power animal involved back to the normal.

The doors can be destroyed only after the person has been removed.

SPIRITUAL PATHWAYS
(leylines)

Leylines are different levels in the spirit, each one linked to sacred doors (entrances and exits). (See teaching on Four Elements available from Kanaan Ministries.)

ALTARS, TOTUMS (ASHERAH) & HIGH PLACES

I Kings 13: 2, 3 – prophecy against above-mentioned; also II Kings 23: 14-16.

Ask God to strike hands raised up against [persons] because of victory won; use ROV; I Kings 13.

Come against rituals linked to dancing, fires, music, high places, sacrifices, etc.

THE “GREAT UKTENA”
(serpent with divination)

- False healing.
- Water spirits.
- Giving of gifts and ranking.

Use Eze 34:12 for petitions and Eze 34:25 against power animals.

See Advanced Training for Counselors and Intercessors available from Kanaan Ministries for more information on animal spirits.
ALIENS - GENETIC ENGINEERING

Alien abduction with regards to DID represents a specific kind of section in the spirit realm and has to do with programming. Indications are that some sort of implanting has taken place.

Sexual transplants, cloning and other tests would have been done. Also possible is cross programming with alien spirits – this has to do with bearing the seed of the serpent, the anti-Christ.

Biopsies are taken from organs, like the heart, through main arteries. These parts are then grown in laboratories to create bodies. Other parts like skin, blood vessels, bone and marrow are also removed but through different methods.

Sometimes these parts are fused with animal parts and then planted back into the person until this is fused and growing in the person and then again removed to be planted into the clone.

With blood, the gene pools are isolated and selected and then combined with other gene pools - a combination of people’s blood mixed together to obtain desired effect. Depending on the bloodline iniquities, this actually determines the physical appearance of the clone.

All parts are then fused and grown together to 'create' these flesh bodies with animal capacities like breathing under water, total night sight in order to live in darkness. These creatures appear to be without a soul; they are like robots in their functioning. They are just shells - houses for demons and dead human spirits who had the promise of new life on earth.

This occurs when children are sent into the underworld by death, induced by drugs. These victim children enter different levels to collect these spirits and bring them back with them as they are resurrected - this is the only gateway.

Also with this kind of death, children receive messages and codes secretly assigned to them by the "Ruler". This will stay with them only until the time comes for this assignment to happen. With this they get a guardian of the secret and a special seal to keep it in place.
These clones are a counterfeit creation of Satan to copy humans without a will, emotions or a soul. This way no-one can lay a claim on them as they "don't exist" - only as aliens in people's imaginations.

The opposite also happens. Babies are stolen from their mother's womb and then brought to full term in laboratories. But through this growing and developing stage, they are deformed by all sorts of DNA injections. Sometimes limbs and organs like eyes are removed and swapped for animal fetus parts. This way you get humans with animal parts and animals with human parts. These babies never grow very old as they are gravely ill and must be on constant drugs to prohibit rejection of body parts.

People suffering from incurable diseases or bad deformities are often the result of victimization in hospitals and institutions. Experimenting takes place during normal treatments or operations - they receive implants or animal matter or blood and have to return after a certain incubation period to have it removed again. Usually by this time it had a fatal effect on the person's health as they already contracted some strange condition they name after someone.

Prayer

Destroy the calling that the connection with them caused and destroy the service that the person provided for them. Further prayer can be done according to prayers for memories (Memory-section).
FROM: THE SUNDAY TELEGRAPH, JULY 19, 1998

A creature part-pig and part human bred to perform menial tasks, test drugs, and supply organs for transplants. It sounds like science fiction, but it will happen if certain scientists have their way.

Booty and the Beast

James Langton on the billion-dollar race to patent our genes.

In the ancient myths, the Chimera was a monster. Part-lion, part-goat and part-serpent, it was slain by the hero Bellerophon and placed under the Lycian volcano that still bears its name.

The modern Chimera slumbers no less fitfully in the bowels of the United States Patent and Trademark Office in Washington DC. Part-Chimpanzee, part-pig, part human, this monster is real – or at least it would be, should technology ever over-ride morality.

An application to patent the Chimera was made last December, although its existence was not revealed for several months. The process covers the genetic manipulation, test–tube creation, surrogate implantation and birth of an animal – animal? – that could be up to 50 percent human.

Such a creature could be trained to perform menial tasks carried out by the less skilled members of the work force, but without such expenses as wages or health benefits. It could be used to test experimental drugs. Or its organs could be harvested for human transplantation. Either way, the rights to make such a valuable commodity could make someone very rich.

Not, however, if Stuart Newman, a cellular biologist at New York Medical College, and Jeremy Rifkin, a writer and activist on biotechnology issues, have anything to do with. Their 21st-century Chimera patent is intended to foil the growing commercial interest in genetic and biological patents and prevent such monster from being created. “Our idea is to establish a genetic conservancy,” says Rifkin “If we win, then no one else can create these creatures for at least 30 years.

Their patent, though, is not unique. The US patent office has received more than 13,000 bio-technology patent applications this year, already a third higher than the total for the whole of 1997. It is processing 7,000 applications for entire genes – human, animal and plant – and has granted nearly 2,000 more.

To date it has patented the genetic blueprints for 85 mice, three rabbits, a sheep, a guinea pig, a fish and a cow. There is a tobacco plant with a firefly gene that glows in the dark. One of the mice (you may have seen the photograph) can grow a human ear on its back.
Other products are even more improbable. One company has patented a process that will duplicate the cellular structure of orange juice, but without the bother of trees and fruit. Not duplicate — it rally is orange juice. And scientists at Harvard are cultivating cells taken from a young boy to grow him a new test-tube bladder to replace his own failing organ.

Nearby, in Cambridge, Massachusetts, a company called ReproGernesis is growing real human breasts in a laboratory. The process takes cells from a woman’s thigh, and then cultivates them in a breast-shaped mould of polymer plastic. When the mould dissolves, a perfect living breast is ready for implantation.

Here is a scientific miracle that will transform the lives of millions of breast cancer victims. But James McNab, the head of ReproGenesis, have spoken of an annual market at least double that of women who undergo mastectomies. Don’t like what nature has given you? ReproGenesis can Build a Better Boob.

The Newman-Rifkin chimp-boy is the dark side of genetic technology. Their patent — filed in 30 different combinations — already overlaps with those filed by John Gearhart, a researcher at John Hopkins University.

Gearhart is taking cells from aborted human embryos with the intention of growing spare human parts. It may soon be possible to regenerate any organ — even a lost limb — to order. The difficulties are substantial but not insurmountable. Humanity will profit, but so, presumably, will Mr. Gearhart and his backers, the Geron Corporation of Menlo Park, California.

The US Patent Office has said nothing about the Gearhart spare-limb factory, but the Chimera considerably agitates it. Only four weeks ago, Bruce Lehman, the commissioner of the office, took the unprecedented step of denouncing what he called “monster” and indicating that he would deny such patents as “immoral”.

The US Patent Office normally refuses to comment on any patent pending it is not supposed to make moral judgments on applications unless they appear to fall foul of amendment 13 of the United States Constitution. Which forbids slavery.

In the past few years, it has allowed patents for animals that contain human genes, but has not specified how many are acceptable. The Newman-Rifkin creation merely raises the stakes. It demonstrates, as is the intention that the American Government has yet to draw its line in the sand on genetic experimentation.
Jeremy Rifkin, who does not have a scientific background, is regarded as something of a gadfly among the scientific establishment: the distinguished Harvard paleontologist Stephen Jay Gould has pronounced him guilty of “anti-intellectual propaganda masquerading as scholarship”. But few would deny that the issues he raises are profound.

His new book, The Biotech Century, to be published in Britain this September, is a useful road map for the 21st century. Rifkin, 52, believes that the world is in the early stages of a revolution as momentous as the change from an agricultural to an industrial society, possibly even ranking with the transition from the Stone to the Bronze age. He also maintains that the futurists have done us all a disservice by focusing exclusively on the implications of developments in information technology, not biotechnology.

“This is to misunderstand the shift that is going on in the global economy,” he says. ‘For the past 40 years, the revolutions in information and the life sciences have been operating in parallel. What has happened in the past three years is that they have come together to forge a new global environment. The real shift in focus is from exploiting things like mineral resources to exploiting genes.”

Outside the pages of the Wall Street Journal and the Financial Times, few people realize that a genetic “land grab” is taking place on a scale that rivals 19th century colonialism.

This time the prize is not gold and diamonds, but the unexploited gene pools. Last year an expedition headed by Dr Noe Zamel, a geneticist from the University of Toronto, and financed by Sequana Therapeutics of I XXXXJolla, California, arrived on a South African navy ship at the tiny isolated island of Tristan da Cunha in the Atlantic Ocean.

The scientists were anxious to examine the population because more than half suffered from asthma. After taking blood samples from 270 of the 300 residents the team announced that it had uncovered two possible genes responsible for the disease. Their detailed findings will be announced in time – patent pending, of course.

Earlier this year, the Swiss pharmaceutical giant Roche Holdings announced a 125 million pounds deal with Decode Genetics, a Reykjavik biotech company. Roche hopes to unravel the Ice-land gene pool, one of the least polluted in the world.

Icelanders are famous for their blond hair and blue eyes, both highly marketable commodities., but also for such 20th-century afflictions as alcoholism, diabetes, solon cancer and schizophrenia. The Icelandic Prime Minister, David Oddsson, has hailed the project as “extremely important” for securing foreign investment. The profits, however, will belong to Roche Holdings.

Sometimes it is individuals who find themselves the target of corporate marketing. Nearly 15 years ago, John Moore, an oil surveyor from Washington State, nearly died from a rare form of leukemia which caused his spleen to swell to 40 times its normal size.

After the spleen had been removed, Moore made a remarkable recovery. Looking for answers, his doctor, David Goode, discovered that Moore’s blood contained unusual amounts of proteins capable of stimulating the immune system to fight diseases like Aids and cancer.

Goode and the University of California at Los Angeles created a cell line from Moore’s spleen, selling the rights to a Swiss pharmaceutical company for 9.4 million pound, which in turn generated sales worth 1.9 billion pound. Moore, who now calls himself “Spleen less in Seattle”, sued Goode and UCLA for a piece of the action. He lost after an American court ruled that he had no rights over a product developed from his own body.

Secure in such judgments, US companies have taken out dozens of patents on familiar ailments. Here is a selection of the diseases now “claimed” by multinational corporations in America:

- Obesity Gene. Patent granted Millennium Pharmaceuticals, licensed to Hoffmann La Roche.
- Colon Cancer Gene. Patent pending, University of Utah/- Johns Hopkins University/-Foundation for Cancer Research/Zeneca Ltd.

Companies “owning” these genes may shortly develop their own cure, or secure a hefty licensing fee from others seeking to do so.

In the next few years, almost all of the 60,000-plus genes thought to comprise the human body will be identified. The Human Genome Project, a 1.9 Billion pound’s international research venture, expects to complete its work of decoding the three-billion DNA fragments which constitute humanity by the year 2005. A number of commercial rivals say they will reach the target even sooner.
Can life be patented? The US patent office apparently accepts that this is the case. In Britain and Europe the question is less clear. European law, in particular, allows for moral considerations when granting patents. Newman and Rifkin will present their Chimera to the European Patent Office in the next few weeks precisely to test how far the European Union is willing to go.

The multinational corporations have no such worries. In the past year, several of the biggest have been snapping up dozens of biotech start-up companies. At the same time they have been divesting themselves of chemical and immoral divisions.

One senior technologist at Microsoft has condemned the fear of clones as ‘just another form of racism’

Gearhart takes cells from aborted human embryos with the intention of growing spare human body parts.

Corporations such as Du Pont and Novartis, the pound 17 billion behemoth formed last year from the Swiss companies Ciba-Geigy and Sandoz, are spending billions of dollars each year buying up or reaching licensing agreements with hot biotech prospects.

Other names are famous for different reasons. Bill Gates, the founder of Microsoft, is investing millions of dollars—admittedly only a fraction of his $55-billion fortune—in biotechnology. He is a major investor in Darwin Molecular, which holds the patent for the premature ageing gene responsible for Werner’s Syndrome, and the Icas Corporation. Both companies have developed computer programs specifically designed to decode the human genome.

Gates believes that the fusion of information and biological technology presents the way forward in the next century, when, as he puts it, researchers will combine both: “To bring about a change in the human condition that will make anything we have done to date seem infinitesimal by comparison.”

Equally significant may be the views of Nathan Myhrvold, senior technology officer at Microsoft. Writing in the on-line magazine Slate (owned by Microsoft), Mr. Myhrvold condemned the “fear of clones” as “just another form of racism”

Cloning, her pointed out, was simply a more efficient version of older selective breeding programs, and no different from naturally occurring twins. “What is so special about natural reproduction anyway?” he asked. “Cloning is the only predictable way to reproduce.”

Few people realize that a genetic “land grab’ is taking place on a scale that rivals 19th-century colonialism.
SRA METHODS

BRAINWASHING / INDOCTRINATION METHODS AND EXPERIENCES

Used to obtain total control and desired response.

- ELECTRO STIMULI attached to the head, sexual organs, nerve endings, etc.

  Purpose: To break the will, obedience, personality layering, silence or multi-personality disorder.

- INGESTION of animal/human urine, feces, blood, orgasmic secretion, flesh, organs (especially penis of baby boys).

  Purpose: Degradation, spiritual power.

- ISOLATION in closets, coffins, dark places, holes, cages, or snake pits.

  Purpose: To break the will, obedience, to destroy the personality, punishment.

- DRUGS

  Purpose: To confuse reality, to relax muscles, to control.

- FORCED PARTICIPATION IN SEXUAL ACTS: Hetero and Homosexual acts; sex with the dead, animals, children, objects (cross is used often and acts performed on church altars). Often performed with physical abuse.

  Purpose: To instill fear, degradation, confusion, guilt, control, traumatize, personality layering, gain power, to appease their god. Children, especially boys under 3 or age 6, and Christians are the ultimate sacrifice.

- FORCED PARTICIPATION IN RITUAL SACRIFICES: Murder, defamation, mutilation of children, adults, animals.

  Purpose: To instill fear, degradation, confusion, guilt, control, traumatize, personality layering, gain power, to appease their god. Children, especially boys under 3 or age 6, and Christians are the ultimate sacrifice.

- STARVATION

  Purpose: Obedience, confusion, malnourishment causes chemical changes in the body affecting the mind.

- CEMETERY/GRAVES: Robbery, desecration, initiation, buried alive.

  Purpose: Degradation, guilt, traumatize, punishment for disobedience, a proof test.
• PINS AND NEEDLES: Some groups use small pins inserted in sexual organs and other various areas. These are used to punish, bring pain to the enjoyment of others, mock operations, injection of drugs.

Purpose: Personality layering, program for future dates, to forget names, faces, etc.

• BLACK HOLE EXPERIENCE: This experience is common to all survivors. It consists of being suspended upside down in a pit of some sort, containing human or animal body parts, sacrificed babies, a brother or sister, snakes or spiders, for up to 24 hours or more. The survivor is forced to watch or participate in the sacrifices. This is used for misconduct. This is one of the hardest memories to work through because of the level of confusion and guilt.

Purpose: Punishment.

• RE-BIRTH RITUAL: This is usually performed on a young child. They may be enclosed in the cavity of a dead person or large animal such as a cow. They are left there until the ritual is over and then pulled out as a form of birthing.

Purpose: Counterfeit the Biblical term to be born-again. This is a difficult memory to work with because the person will be confused with what the Bible states about being born-again. Used to bring about personality layering.

• THE MARRIAGE TO THE BEAST/SATAN: This is an actual wedding ceremony with demons conjured and Satan himself, present. There is a sexual act to consummate the marriage and it is always with pain. The ceremony usually occurs on the 5th birthday of the female child. The little girl will be groomed to take over as a high priestess to rule the coven. There are vows and they feel strongly that their soul belongs to Satan. The adult survivor at times may speak of Satan manifesting himself at night for sex or speak of sex with Satan. This, in the adult state, is usually with demons.

OTHER MEMORIES

• Ingestion of animal/human flesh, blood, urine, feces, organs, body parts.

• Beatings, flogging, scourging, cutting, burning.

• Animal/human organs inserted into the vaginal or rectal cavities, plus nose and ears.

• Hanging by the limbs, digits or upside down cross.

• Smeared in blood or feces or semen.
• Forced sex with animals plus oral sex.
• Memories of dogs eating babies alive.
• Urinated on by men and women.
• Necrophilia - sex with the dead.
• Killing siblings
• Branded

• HUNTING PARTIES: Person released, hunted like animals, then killed.

QUESTIONS FOR IDENTIFYING CONFLICTS

- What is it you most want to avoid, to not think about, to not deal with or discuss?
- Whenever problematic feelings/behaviours/thoughts occur, ask yourself: "What's the conflict?"
- What is it you would have to contend with if you’re not to engage in this thought/feeling/behaviour?
SOME TIPS FOR THE SURVIVOR

WHAT YOU HAVE TO DO TO GET BETTER

• Choose to be better with all your focus and might.

• Have a quiet time with praise and His Word.

• You have to be around functional people. Watch and learn the basics of life: how to cook, clean, handle finances, decorating houses, keeping things in order.

• Buy a file cabinet. Put papers in it. God likes order. He ordered the universe. You are in charge of ordering yourself.

• Take responsibility for your life. You get only ONE life. You are accountable to God for the use of it.

• Make a plan for your life. Ask God for a vision. Break it down into small chunks - daily, weekly, monthly goals.

• Don't act on feelings only. Use your will to choose. You paid a lot for it. That's why you are so hurt.

• Commit your life daily to God. Tell Him He can do whatever He wants with it.

• When you need to complain, limit it. It is like poison - a tool of the evil one to keep you sick.

• Ask yourself what circumstance or person is reminding you of in the past.
• Ask God daily to give you eyes to see His love, His beauty, His abundant comfort, His joy and the abundant life He promises.

• Don't limit yourself by saying, "I can't". If God wants you to do it, the Holy Spirit will give you whatever you need.

• Eat, rest, exercise wisely.

• Find out what restores you. Seek out fun and fellowship.

• Support people are not to be used. They are to be appreciated. Make yourself pleasant to be around in your dress, manner and speech. Try always to edify yourself and the people around you.

• You have a choice in all things except dying. Be creative in finding out what they are. Ask God for the wisdom to make the best choice.
THE DISSOCIATION PROCESS: A CONTINUUM LINE
by Dee Brown

Family characteristics:
- Incest
- One perpetrator
- An otherwise "normal" family life

The child learns to dissociate when abuse occurs. He often will leave his body and view the scene from a safe place. He then stores what happened in his memory until it is safe to remember, often 20 or 30 years later. The “night child” does not talk to the “day child”.

Family characteristics:
- Sexual abuse by multiple perpetrators.
- Physical violence
- Emotional abuse
- Alcohol / drug use
- Mental illness
- Abuse mainly by members of the primary and extended family.

With more abuse occurring, the dissociative process becomes more complex. Each different situation calls for the child to react in a different way. Using his ability to separate himself from his reality by splitting, he forms different personalities to deal with each situation. Little information may be shared among these parts.
Family characteristics:
- Same as middle column but more extreme and cruel.
- Extreme sadistic abuse by multiple perpetrators, many from outside family.
- Ritual abuse
- Participation in organized cults (satanic, religious, KKK, etc.)

With extreme abuse, the child becomes an expert at forming parts to deal with any occurrence. The parts become distinct personalities and often share no information with each other. They often act independently of each other. This condition is called multiple personality disorder. There may be hundreds of these parts, either fully formed or fragments.
How to Be a Caring Friend to Someone in Pain
by E. Sue Blume

How do you help someone who is struggling with pain, including the pain of incest recovery? How do you avoid saying the "wrong" thing? How do you offer yourself in a way that creates a climate of openness, trust and safety?

Here are some guidelines:

When your friend is in pain...

DON'T TRY TO "FIX IT"; don't feel obligated to find a solution. You can't change her life; only she can - or should. Ultimately the issue isn't this particular problem, but her growth. Besides, when you jump into "action" mode, she won't get to do what she needs to do, which is to vent her feelings; only once this is done can she explore her choices.

DON'T TRY TO TALK HER OUT OF HER PAIN, cheer her up or minimize the problem. NEVER say "Don't cry, be mad, be upset," etc. (These are only examples - use your own words.) You can't take her feelings away and if you sound like you are trying to she will feel as if she needs to defend her right to have them (or she will feel as if she is bad for having them).

NEVER JUDGE OR CRITICIZE her or her feelings ("You're too sensitive"). Painful feelings are a natural, healthy response when one has been hurt; they need to be identified, experienced, and expressed. It's not your job to agree to disagree with her feelings. They are never "right" or "wrong"; they are simply true.

AVOID SUCH DISMISSING AND USELESS RESPONSES as "It's in the past," and "You have to learn to let it go". DON'T tell her, "It happened for a reason", "It was meant to be" or "It was God's will." If (and only IF) this is her belief system too, these statements have no place in the conversation until after the feelings have been expressed and resolved.

DON'T SAY "I KNOW HOW YOU FEEL", unless you can be sure you really, really do, which usually means unless you have experienced exactly the same thing, and even then, be really careful. DON'T say "It'll get better" or "I'm sure this will work out", unless you can prove it. Do say, "I believe in you and I believe you'll get through this", "Help me to understand", "Tell me what that was like for you".

IF YOUR FRIEND SAYS SOMETHING SELF-CRITICAL, such as "I'm ugly," or "Everybody hates me", DON'T SAY "NO YOU'RE NOT" or "I don't". You cannot reassure her out of low self-esteem. Instead, invite her to explore what she feels (which is another way of saying "I value you.") Say, "It sounds like you're feeling really down on yourself (alone); tell me more about it."
DON'T GIVE ADVICE. Telling your friend what to do treats her as if she's incompetent (but you’re not). Besides, those are YOUR answers; she must learn to find her own. If you have a problem with a choice she is making, it may be OK to tell her in a caring and non-judgmental way that presents your feelings. ("I hurt inside (get scared for you) when I see you returning to this abusive relationship.")

DON'T ATTEMPT TO DIRECT HER to a particular resolution of her feelings, such as the "letting go of anger" or "forgiveness". That is proselytizing, which is controlling and presumptive. No one is entitled to make the decision about how to resolve pain other than the one who feels it.

Neither do you have the right to demand that she share your feelings about her situation or about a person who has hurt her - or the right to expect her to act in a certain way in response to her own feelings. For instance, YOU may be enraged at her father who molested her, but she may be scared to feel her anger. Or she may not be ready to give up the relationship, as you want her to. You CAN tell her what YOU feel - even that it's hard for you to go to her parents' house with her, and that you're not sure if you can any more - but if this is what she feels she must do, you must accept that - and hopefully find it within yourself to support HER - though not her decision.

NEVER QUESTION YOUR FRIEND'S MEMORIES OF CHILDHOOD ABUSE. If it is difficult for you to believe, to face, that such terrible things can happen in this world, admit that this is YOUR struggle. Offer to learn, and DO. Recognize your own limits and biases, and try to overcome what you can. Never deny the other person's reality. Never. (This applies to other issues she may be wrestling with, such as homosexuality.)

DO ASK "OPEN ENDED" QUESTIONS - questions that cannot be answered yes or no. Help your friend to LABEL her feelings: "It sounds like you felt jealous." Sometimes, saying (if it's true), "I would have been so ... (frustrated, crazed, overwhelmed)" might give her permission to admit to feelings that she struggles to identify or admit to. Careful use of such statements as "That must have made you so ..." may also be helpful. Your friend will develop a sense of mastery through the understanding of her experience. You can also tell her that (and how) you identify with her situation or feelings, but be careful to not switch the focus to your stuff.

DO OFFER ACKNOWLEDGMENT of her situation - “Yeah, it is tough to ...” or “It’s painful when ...”

DO ASK HER WHAT SHE WANTS YOU TO DO. Just to listen? To give feedback? To remind her of her strengths? To tell her she's not crazy? To distract her? (While it is really necessary to learn to see the humor in life, make sure that's what she needs, rather than an outgrowth of your own discomfort.) Does she want you to hold her hand? To sit some distance away? To hug her? (NEVER use her need for comfort or physical affection as an opportunity for sexual contact.)
THE ONLY TIME IT’S OK TO DISREGARD HER WISHES IS IF SHE IS SUICIDAL. Ask her if she has a plan (it only needs to be realistic in HER eyes); is she "getting her affairs in order?" If she is in danger, do not agree with any request to keep secrets, and do whatever you can to get her to professional help. To be a true friend, you may need to risk the loss of her approval.

To be a true friend, you must know your limits. This applies to a friend with a drug, alcohol, eating problem or other such self-destructive patterns as well. You need to quell your rescuer fantasies, if they are in operation, and urge that she seek some form of recovery assistance. If she is turning to you instead of taking responsibility for herself; if she talks over and over about the same complaints, but repeats the same patterns; if she vents but doesn’t change, say, obsessing about a break-up, talking more about the other person’s feelings than her own, then you may help most by saying to her, "This is more than I can help you with. Perhaps you need to take this to a/your therapist/recovery group". If talking to you helps her to return to the pattern that hurts her, then you are enabling the problem, not the remedy.

IF YOU ARE A CARETAKER, with a great need to be needed, you must always ask yourself "Whose needs?" “Am I meeting by what I say or do?” If you really are there for HER needs, you will support her, even if what she wants to do is to be alone, or to turn to somebody else. Actually she should always be encouraged to seek help wherever she can find it. Territoriality in relationships is self serving, although it's OK to be human and face that you are jealous or feel rejected (though not necessarily share with her, at that moment).

DO FACE YOUR AND HER POWERLESSNESS. Not every situation can be corrected. Sometimes stuff happens, and mighty awful stuff at that. Life can seem - or be - very unfair. Things can happen that people don't deserve ... over and over and over! Sometimes there are no "answers"; sometimes the process of working through a problem takes a REALLY long time. Learning to deal with life as it is is one of the greatest challenges we all have to face - all of us. Her turn may be now. Yours will come.

THERE ARE NO PERFECT ANSWERS. You and she need to accept that sometimes the best thing to do is to make sympathetic noises. Or to say, “I'm so sorry.” Or "My heart aches for you." Or "How awful for you." Or, simply, "I'm here."

ACTIVE LISTENING, FEEDBACK, UNCONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE, AND EMPATHY ARE THE BASICS OF HELPING. ACTIVE LISTENING is repeating back to the other person a paraphrase of what they've said - using your words, saying "What I hear you’re saying is ... It shows the other person they've been understood, and can focus the conversation. It forces you to really listen, too. FEEDBACK is more active, involving the listener’s perceptions and thoughts. "Are you aware that even though you say you're angry, you're smiling?” or, "I remember that you used the same words to describe your feelings about your mother." UNCONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE is an attitude. It does not mean, as many people mistakenly think it does, not having your own mind, or agreeing with everything the other person says or does.
What it means is that you do not confuse PERSON with behavior: Your reactions (and remember they are YOUR reactions, rather than a truth about the rightness or wrongness of the other person's choices) are about a behavior; you must not use that to suggest that the person herself is "bad". If I accept you unconditionally, I can disagree with you, but I accept you, and treat you as a person of value.

Finally, EMPATHY, perhaps the most important skill necessary in any relationship, is the willingness and ability to see things from the other person's perspective, and to understand them through the meaning that they would have for that person, rather than imposing our own meaning on them. This process is valuable because it makes the other person feel truly heard - not just her words, but her experience. As a bonus, empathy builds closeness. It requires vigilant self monitoring.

Love is a verb. It is how we treat someone. One of the most generous gifts of love we can give a friend, a partner, or a family member is to truly listen - without taking over, judging, blaming, or imposing our values or interpretations. Thus we meet the ultimate goal of empowering our loved one who is suffering, through the cradling of her pain.
CHARACTERISTICS OBSERVED IN OCA/DID PATIENTS WHO BECOME FREE OF CULT CONTROL AND COMPLETE THEIR HEALING by David W. Neswald, M.A., N.C.C., M.F.C.C.

Presentation at The Delphi Centre Seminar Series: Critical Issues in Therapy for Trauma, Dissociation and Organized Sadistic Abuse - Understanding and Neutralizing Mind Control Conditioning in Organized Sadistic Abuse: Common Obstacles and Practical Interventions.

Princess Margaret Hospital for Children
Perth, Australia
11 August, 1995

The following attributes are those found by this author in survivors of Organized Catastrophic Abuse (OCA), with a presenting diagnosis of Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID), who appear to have TRULY escaped cult control and fully integrated their alternate personalities. It should be noted that none of these patients displayed ALL of these attributes ALL of the time. However, though none of these attitudes were encouraged by the therapist, all such characteristics were present, and were generally found to be quite strong. I wish to emphasize that the author does not necessarily advocate these characteristics. He is simply reporting what is present in this particular patient population. You may draw your own conclusions.

1. REFUSAL TO SUICIDE

These patients will typically decide, relatively early in treatment, that suicide is no longer an option for them. They understand that suicide is NOT the way out, TREATMENT is the way out. Suicide is no longer viewed as their 'safety net'. They decide that no matter what happens, whether they live or die, that they will not die by their own hand.

2. REFUSAL TO INDULGE IN SELF-PITY

Almost to a person, these patients spend very little, if any, time feeling sorry for themselves. This is not to say that they do not feel badly about their histories, or that they do not become depressed. However, very little energy is spent bemoaning their situations, or complaining about how awful their lives are. The attitude is something like: “My life HAS been awful, now what am I going to do about it?”
3. REFUSAL TO EVER GIVE UP

These patients display tremendous tenacity of spirit. They make a commitment to heal no matter what the obstacles, no matter how long it takes, no matter how many therapists they must go through, no matter what they remember, no matter what they find within their system(s).

4. REFUSAL TO MAKE DEALS OR NEGOTIATE WITH THE CULT

These patients realize that there is simply no benefit in cooperating with the cult. They fully understand the following:

- While they may, in the short-term, continue to be hurt by the cult for non-compliance, they would be hurt for the rest of their lives if they remain under cult control.
- They cannot protect anyone still under cult control. Those they care about who remain under cult control will continue to be hurt whether they (the patient) comply with cult demands or not.
- Their compliance with cult demands will not protect anyone outside the cult (Therapists, etc.) who may be being threatened.
- Succumbing to cult threats or blackmail only reinforces their continuing, and gives the bad guys more leverage and ammunition.

5. WILLINGNESS TO LOSE WHATEVER IS NECESSARY IN ORDER TO HEAL

There is an acceptance among these patients that they may lose things, relationships, positions, or people, that may be important to them during their process of healing and leaving the cult. They believe that such losses are well worth it, if in order to keep them they must remain under cult control. This is an unsolicited attitude which is brought by the patient to therapy. It is NOT (nor should it be) an attitude encouraged by the therapist.

6. HEALING IS THE TOP PRIORITY IN THEIR LIVES

Similar to the foregoing, these patients come to therapy with the attitude that NOTHING is more important than their healing. They work hard and remain focused upon their healing above all other things. This does not change, even with encouragement of the therapist for them to attempt to live a more balanced life.

7. WILLINGNESS TO LOOK AT ANY MEMORY, NO MATTER HOW THREATENING

Though understandably frightened and horrified by their memories, there is little hesitancy to pursue these memories and work them through. The therapist is often working to slow them down rather than speed them up.
8. ANGER AND FRUSTRATION STAYS DIRECTED AT CULT - NOT AT SELF OR OTHERS

The inevitable anger and rage which ensues as a result of processing their horrific abuse is rarely self-directed. It is similarly rarely directed at those who are not directly involved. Rather, the rage remains directed at the abusers themselves, and serves as a powerful motivator for continued healing.

9. HIGH SELF-MOTIVATION

These patients rarely will passively wait for a therapist to “tell them what to do”. They seem to have a problem solving mentality, and will come up with new and remarkably effective strategies for overcoming therapeutic obstacles and streamlining their healing.
Centuries ago, the patriarch Job cried in anguish of soul, "Man dieth, and wasteth away ... and where is he?" In the next breath he asks, "If a man dies, shall he live again?" Then in answer to his questions he shouts triumphantly, "For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another." (Job 14:10, 14; 19:25-27)

Where are the dead? This question has rung, out again and again through the corridors of time. Where does man go after death? Does he become non-existent as atheists and scoffers assert? Or is he conscious in some other state of existence? Does real personality survive death? If so, in what form? Can the dead communicate with or influence the life of the living?

At the outset, one needs to be aware that this subject is extremely emotive, and its discussion will bring out in to the open hidden and suppressed feelings, for as soon as you start talking or questioning the existence and location of dead people the response involves facing up to guilt and grief, not to mention memories of rejection and broken vows (or promises). Beware of the reaction before you commence delving too far into this crucial area.

Paul states in Ephesians 6:12, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" - our conflict is with spirit powers.

The major issue to be resolved is primarily this:

1. Does life exist after a physical death?

2. Is it possible that those who have physically died are able to (and do they) have any influence over the living?

At the outset, we need to clarify that those who die in Christ, that is, in a righteous state and relationship, do not create a problem in this discussion. Our reference area is to deal with the influence of the dead upon the living.

Before we consider the matter, let us look at several scriptures that need clarification:

Proverbs 9: 13-18 (Amplified Bible)

v18. But he knows not that the shades of the dead are there [specters haunting the scene of past transgressions], and that her invited guests are [already sunk] in the depths of Sheol [the lower world, Hades].

The dead [Heb] REPHAIM.

Moffatt Translation, vs. 18: "Little he knows that dead men are within, the guests of Death."

Young's Literal Translation, vs.18: "And he hath not known that Rephaim are there, in deep places of Sheol, her invited ones."

Farrar Fenton, vs. 18: "But he knows not the Dead who are there - that she calls to the deeps of the grave."

Also - Proverbs 2: 18-19; 5: 3-5; 7: 27.

William Wilson and Aaron Pick in Old Testament word studies of this verse gives clear understanding that the Amplified rendering is accurate. This implies that the dead are mobile - ref. haunting the scene of past transgressions. Many testimonies can be brought to light to confirm this. Recently whilst in Papua New Guinea I had occasion to minister to a young woman who was troubled by the spirit of her grandmother. The spirit had been seen on numerous occasions by other members of the family (since the grandmother physically died) including the local pastor. The girl was, whilst grandmother was living, totally under her control. This did not cease at death. She had the appearance physically of a person who had aged ahead of time. On ministry to her, by asking God to send His angels to gather unto Himself the spirit of the grandmother, the young girl was released from bondage and instantly changed physically. There are many illustrations I could give of situations here in New Zealand where I have ministered to people being troubled by the spirits of dead persons - in one case a spirit of a person who died at the turn of the century.
These are not familiar spirits in the sense of deceiving spirits, but are in reality the spirits of the dead.

_I Samuel 28: 1-20_

Many people contend that the spirit being that was called upon to speak was a deceiving impersonating spirit.

Vs.13 - “I saw gods ascending out of the earth” - literally - “I saw spirits coming up out of the bowels of the earth.”

Vs. 12 - "She cried with a loud voice"- indicating her terror at what she actually saw.

What she did was wrong, and forbidden by God - but she did it - and the spirit of Samuel spoke unto her.

Note that a deceiving spirit from Satan would not give the counsel that was given - they are deceivers, not speaker of truth!

These verses show the ability of spirit beings to re-appear:

_Job 14:11-21_
_Psalm 88:10-12_

_Ecclesiastes 9:5_

THE DEAD

The usual method of disposing of the dead was by burial - _Gen. 23:19; 25:9; 35:8; Judges 2:9; 8:32._

Burning was looked upon as something abominable, as an injury to the dead - _Amos 2:1; 1 Sam.31: 8-13; Amos 6: 10._ It was used by priestly law and custom, only in a few cases to render the death sentence more severe, or to purge and cleanse the area of sin.

_Joshua 7:25_ - And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? The LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

_Leviticus 20:14_ And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

_Leviticus 21:9_ And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.
NOT to be buried was considered a disgrace -

Amos 2:1 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

I Kings 13:22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

I Kings 14:11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

I Kings 16:4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

II Kings 9:10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

Isaiah 33:12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

Jeremiah 7:32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter; for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray [them] away.

Jeremiah 8:2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

Jeremiah 9:22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

Jeremiah 14:16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

Jeremiah 16:4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

Ezekiel 29:5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

The spirits of the unburied dead wander restlessly about, and in Sheol are crimed to lie in the corners.

Ezekiel 32:21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her graue: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

Company [Heb QAHAL] Assembly, Congregation, Hosts, Multitude.

Isaiah 14:15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

Burial alone so bound the spirit to the body that it had rest and could harm no one. It was therefore the sacred duty of everyone who found a corpse in the open field to give it a burial.

I Kings 14:11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

I Kings 16:4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

I Kings 21:24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

Jeremiah 7:33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

II Samuel 21:10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.
THOUGHTS ON COMMITTAL FOR UNCOMMITTED DEAD,
AND CLEANSING THE LAND, e.g. still-born babies, miscarriages, abortions; accidental deaths like civilian disasters, floods, earthquakes, fires, civil disasters involving transport, road, rail, sea and air; victims of war-torn lands, invasion of lands, etc; famine, drought, etc.

Ezekiel 39: 11-16. Note verse 12b ... to cleanse the land ... How? - By burying the dead.

Levitical law required that human remains be buried, and that whoever touched the dead killed by war, or violence, was unclean.

Numbers 19:16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

Further, if a person was hung or crucified on a tree (or cross) the injunction was that the deceased must be buried before sundown, in order that the curse on the individual be not transferred to the land and thus become unclean.

Deuteronomy 21:23 His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

Galatians 3:13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is everyone that hangeth on a tree:
14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Joshua 10:22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.
23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which grewt with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.
25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.
26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening 27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.
The Scriptures further teach that shedding of blood by murder would cause the land to be polluted. The only way that land could be cleansed where blood had been shed by murder or killing, was when the blood of the murderer was poured out upon the land, thus requiting the curse.

Numbers 25: 30-34, see also Leviticus 18: 24-30, 2 Kings 23: 4, 26-24 and Isaiah 26:21 - Blood here refers to guilt as in the case of Abel, where it is said his blood is crying out from the ground (Genesis 4:10 - And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.). The guilt of the earth will be disclosed and no longer able to hide its slain.

God further spoke and declared that land wherein there had been blood shed, and it had been defiled, would know the displeasure of God by the withholding of the natural elements that would normally cause the land to flourish. God also stated that false prophets would have great freedom in that nation, and that covetousness, greed, oppression, and dishonest gain would be rampant.

Ezekial 22: 23-29 - but note that God seeks for a man to stand in the gap that He might not destroy the land. Vs. 30-31.

THE PROVISION OF GOD THE FATHER FOR HIS CHILDREN

To free people, families, cities, nations and land from the effects and outworking of the curse of defilement:

Deut. 21:22, 23; Gal.3:13, 14.

Vs.22 "... a sin worthy of death" - (literal Hebrew - of the judgement of death). The Hebrews understand this not of putting to death by hanging, but of hanging up a man after he was stoned to death, which was done more ignominiously of some heinous malefactors. We have the examples of Rechab and Baanah who for murdering Ish-bosheth, were slain by David's commandment, with their hands and feet being cut off, and then they were hanged (up) - 2 Sam. 4:12. Note also Joshua 8:29; 10:26; Numbers 25:4. This fate was ultimately administered to the Lord Jesus Christ - Matt. 26:66; 27: 26-44.

Vs. 23 - "... he that is hanged is accursed of God..." (Hebrew literally - is the curse of God).
That is, it is the highest degree of reproach that can attach to a man, and proclaims him under the curse of God as much as any external punishment can. They that see him thus, hanging between heaven and earth would conclude him to be abandoned by both, and unworthy of neither.

In John 19: 16-42 (note vs.31) we see Christ as the One Whose blood was shed - the just for the unjust - He Who did no sin for sinful man - and bare our sins and be exposed to public shame and ridicule, as these malefactors were that were accursed of God. In verse 31 we read where He was taken down in the evening (at sunset) and buried with a view to fulfilling the requirements of the law. In token, now that the guilt was being removed, the law was satisfied, and it demanded no more.

Then He and those that are His (His whole house) ceased to be a curse.

NOTE:
- the curse was transferred to His body when He hung upon the tree.
- the law was fulfilled when the body was taken down.
- the land was cleansed when the body was buried.

We see of course the provision for the Church, which is His Body, His House - His Temple - in being washed, and cleansed by the complete satisfaction which Christ made.

Throughout Scripture, not to be buried was considered a disgrace. The burning of the bones or body was looked upon as a judgement on a body and was sometimes spoken of as purging an area of sin e.g.

Amos 2:1
1 Sam 31: 7-13
Amos 6:10
Joshua 7: 19-26

When bones were not buried, God often spoke of a judgement that came upon situations, e.g.

1 Kings 13: 20-22
1 Kings 14: 10-11
Ezekiel 29: 1-5

According to Encyclopedia Biblica, the correct Hebrew interpretation of Ezekial 32:23 and Isaiah 14:15, is that the spirits of the unburied dead wander restlessly about, and in Sheol are condemned to lie in the corners. Isaiah 14:15 clearly relates to Lucifer in context. The Hebrew word for sides means recesses, and is used in Isaiah 37:24 and 1 Sam.24:3. The word has its origin in the Hebrew usage of a natural cave or sepulchre where recesses were dug out of the walls of the main vault to lie the dead.
It was the understanding of the Israelites that burial alone so bound the spirit to the body that it had rest and could harm no one. Coffins were not used by the Israelites, only the Egyptians, hence it was considered a matter of vital importance that if the land was to be cleansed, and the requirements of the law fulfilled, then bodies and remains should be properly buried in places set aside for burial.

It was therefore the sacred duty of everyone who found a corpse in the open field to give it burial.

Ezekiel 39: 11-16 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-Gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

Ecclesiastes 6: 3-4 If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many; and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

Job 3: 14-16 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves; Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver: Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

Psalms 58:8 As a snail which melteth, let everyone of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

There are obviously many lives that have died and the spirits of the (unrighteous) dead are in some way tied to the lands in which we live. God has also provided a way for us to make present tense in our experience that which happened historically at Calvary.

We need to consider the obvious - that we cannot go around and gather up the scattered remains of those who have been cremated, or died, either voluntarily, by us, or through wars, atrocities, disasters, etc. If we were to find the remains of another human person we should seek to have them buried. But, we must deal with the events of the past in order to cleanse the land in the present.
The following list of scriptures show that God wants a people who will identify with the sins of their forefathers and themselves, and then transfer those sins to the SIN-BEARER, the Redeemer.

Nehemiah 9:2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

Isaiah 65:7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

Jeremiah 11:10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

Daniel 9:16 O Lord, according to all Thy righteousness, I beseech Thee, let Thine anger and Thy fury be turned away from Thy city Jerusalem, Thy holy mountain:
because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

II Samuel 14:9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless.

Psalms 109:14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

Isaiah 14:21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

Ezekiel 4:1 Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and portray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:
2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.
3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.
4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it:
according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.
5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.
6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.
7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.
8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

The prophet to bear the iniquity for the nation!

We need to present to God in confession and true (humility, contrition) repentance and godly sorrow the sins of ourselves and of our forefathers, including those of defiling the land through the shedding of blood and taking of life (e.g. not just Maori wars, but modern day mass murders of abortion) and in faith transfer the sins to OUR SIN-BEARER, the Paschal Lamb.

John 1:29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

Exodus 12:3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a house:

Exodus 12:13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over You, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

Matthew 26:17-30 - feast of the Passover kept by Jesus with admonition to eat the flesh and drink the cup...

I Cor. 11:23-34 - early Christians encouraged by Paul to continue in partaking of "feast of remembrance".

I John 1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

John 20:23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

As we come to the Father, in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, confessing and identifying, with both our own sin and the sins of our forefathers, we by faith, transfer to Christ the Substitute Sacrifice, the Curse-bearer, the defilement of the land, and the responsibility of the uncommitted dead. God will grant to us cleansing, healing, release, and a fresh awareness of His presence.

This chart represents examples of Ruling spirits in the heavenlies that influence and interact with each other for the purpose of controlling an individual’s mind and subsequent behaviour, as well as controlling that individual’s physiological functioning. Their communication lines go first to the individual’s resident mind controller represented visually to the person as the Queen of Hearts, but their work is not limited to working through that spirit.

RITUALS CONNECTED TO PRISMS

Prisms control or “enable” a person to handle excessive physical, spiritual and emotional pain/abuse.

A prism is the culmination of all colours and reflects white light. The “power of the prism” works through light. A prism is built on a triangle → pyramid. The whole New Age concept is focused on light, enlightenment, the healing powers of light, white-lighting people for protection, meditation on the white light - not to mention the “Angel of Light” - Lucifer.

The rebirthing ritual between dead pharaohs takes place by placing a false phallus on the mummy, linking it to the Star of Isis in the heavenlies and the spiritual sexual enactment between her and Osiris.

The prism is linked to the metal band, placed around the head. The upside-down triangle is ingrained into the molecular structure of the metal band at the place of the third eye.

Whoever transmits orders/assignments, e.g. how to kill this victim in a catatonic state without ever recalling it, somehow does it through either brain waves or electronic images, very similar to virtual reality. The band is around your head. The images are played through the prism, going directly into the brain, activating the body into the relevant motions.

MIND CONTROL SLAVERY AND THE NEW WORLD ORDER

High-tech slavery is alive and well on planet Earth. Ever since World War 11 when the United States Government's Project Paperclip sponsored the resettlement of about 2,000 high-level Nazis in the United States, the technology of mind-control programming has advanced rapidly. "The Germans under the Nazi government began to do serious scientific research into trauma-based mind control," write Fritz Springmeier and Cisco Wheeler in their book, The Illuminati Formula used to create an Undetectable Total Mind Controlled Slave. "Under the auspices of the Kaiser Wilhelm Medical Institute in Berlin, Josef Mengele conducted mind-control research on thousands of twins and thousands of other hapless victims." Mengele, known as "The Angel of Death", was one of the approximately 900 military scientists and medical researchers secretly infiltrated into the United States. There he continued his 'research' and trained others in the black arts of mind control. This work in behaviour manipulation was later incorporated into the CIA’s projects Bluebird and Artichoke that, in 1953, became the notorious MKULTRA. The CIA claims that these programs were discontinued, but there is no credible evidence that "the search for the Manchurian candidate" (the title of the definitive book by John Marks) ever ceased.

In fact, Captain John McCarthy, US Army Special Forces (Ret.), who ran CIA assassination teams out of Saigon during the Vietnam War, told his friend, LAPD whistleblower Mike Rupert, that "MKULTRA is a CIA acronym that officially stands for 'Manufacturing Killers Utilizing Lethal Tradecraft Requiring Assassinations"'. Thus the CIA's official obsession with producing programmed killers through MKULTRA contained more than 149 sub-programs in fields ranging from biology, pharmacology, psychology to laser physics and ESP.

More recently, new evidence points to the continuous use of so-called trauma-based programming techniques to accomplish the same goal. These include the deliberate induction of Multiple Personality Disorder (MPD) in involuntary human subjects-in essence, human guinea pigs.

MPD has been reclassified by the American Psychiatric Association as Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID). The psychiatrists' bible, the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM-IV), characterizes it on page 487 as:

A. The presence of two or more distinct personality states;
B. At least two of these identities or personality states recurrently take control of the person's behavior;
C. Inability to recall important personal information that is too extensive to be explained by ordinary forgetfulness;
D. The disturbance is not due to the direct physiological effects of a substance or a general medical condition.

No matter what name is assigned to the problem, however, to create this condition by conscious intent is an atrocity so depraved that trauma-based mind-control programming remains the de facto Secret Holocaust of the 20th century.
Known as the Monarch Program, it has been verified and corroborated by numerous survivors like Cathy O'Brien, author of Transformation of America, Brice Taylor, author of Starshine, and K. Sullivan, author of MK.

But no paper trail has been found which leads from the CIA's MKULTRA to the Monarch Program—a catchphrase for mind control involving US military, CIA, NASA and other government agencies.

Attorney John W. DeCamp's groundbreaking book, The Franklin Cover-up, about high-level pedophilia, also describes the sordid details of Monarch. "Drugs are not the deepest level of government-sponsored evil," he writes. "I think the lowest level of Hell is reserved for those who conjured up and carried out the 'Monarch Project'. 'Monarch' refers to young people in America who were victims of mind-control experiments run either by US government agencies such as CIA or military intelligence agencies."

DeCamp's client, Monarch abuse survivor Paul Bonacci, has a story which parallels the victimology of O'Brien, Taylor and Sullivan. It's an extensive cross-corroboration of perpetrators and their methodology for "the production of a horde of children in whom the soul is crushed, who would spy, whore, kill and commit suicide"—in the words of investigative reporter Anton Chaitkin, quoted in DeCamp's book.

Recovering Monarch victims speak of ongoing trauma through "ritual abuse", also known as "satanic ritual abuse" because of the identifiable iconography of a belief structure associated with, satanism or Luciferism. By using drugs, hypnosis, torture and electroshock, the Monarch criminal perpetrators have produced new and succeeding generations of victims.

This is not science fiction, but science fact. MPD involves the creation of personality "alters"—alternative personalities or personality fragments which can be used for specific tasks, usually for illegal activities like delivering drugs or other black-market activities (mules), messages (couriers) or killings (assassins). These alters, or soul fragments, are segregated and compartmentalized within the victim's mind by the repeated use of stun guns, drugs and hypnosis, which isolates the memories of their experiences.

An alter can be accessed by anyone who knows the "codes" or "triggers". These triggers, which induce an altered or trance state in a programmed victim, can be anything including telephone tones, nursery rhymes, and dialogue from certain movies or hand signals.

According to Springmeier and Wheeler, whose 468-page book has become a reference in the field: "The basis for the success of the Monarch mind-control programming is that different personalities or personality parts, called 'alters', can be created who do not know each other but who can take the body at different times."
The amnesia walls that are built by traumas form a protective shield of secrecy that prevents the abusers from being found out and prevents the front personalities who hold the body much of the time to know how their system of alters is being used.

The mind-control programming, however, has not worked according to plan. In fact, the perpetrators, in their arrogance and hubris, never dreamed that their methods could fail, the retrieval of survivors' photographic-like memories of actual abuse incidents, including images, sounds and smells, constitutes a major exposure of human rights abuses. These victims bear witness to the secret atrocities of the so-called New World Order.

MORE ON ILLUMINATI MIND CONTROL

According to John Coleman, author of Conspirators' Hierarchy: The Committee of 300: "The Illuminati is very much alive and well in America... Since the Illuminati is also known as Satanism, it must follow that the CIA was controlled by a Satanist while Dulles had charge of it. The same holds true for George Bush [a member of the Order of Skull and Bones]."

"Given the ghastly mind-control experiments constantly being conducted by the CIA, and its past connections to fiendish monsters like Dr Campbell and Dr Sidney Gottlieb, it does not take much to conclude that the CIA follows satanic roads," Coleman concludes in his monograph, "Illuminati in America".

With regards to "the brainwashing capabilities of the Tavistock Institute as well as US Department of Defense projects like the Advanced Research Project Agency", Coleman writes: "The bottom line of the projects is mind control as predicted by the book, The Technocratic Era, by Zbigniew Brzezinski. The project goes by the name 'Monarch Program' and it is a vast project involving not only the CIA but the Army, Air Force and Navy with all of their skills and vast resources."

SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS

Satanic ritual abuse, the horrific torture and sexual abuse of children, has been a key component in the creation of mind-controlled slaves.

Mind-control survivor K. Sullivan has written an astounding book called MK-a fictionalized account of her life, which describes the world of multiple personalities. To her credit, Sullivan has been able to reconstruct from her memories the actual mechanics and methodologies of going from one alter state to another. A programmed assassin and sex slave, Sullivan says she was abused and raped by Robert Maxwell, Henry Kissinger, George Bush and Billy Graham, among others. One of her controllers was deceased CIA operative James Jesus Angleton, who has been widely regarded as a KGB and Mossad asset.
In a recent interview, Sullivan spoke about her background as a "family-generational slave" to the elite and about her stepfather, now deceased, who was initially her primary programmer. His cover was a church-going, upstanding citizen, a professional mechanical and systems engineer with a curious interest in robotics.

"There were a number of people who trained, conditioned, then broke my will, broke my psyche and programmed me in different altered states," she said in a recent interview.

"My father was the one who did me the most. He did it through terror. He did it through torture. He was a very brilliant man, and he seemed to enjoy doing it to me and other children."

Confirming that her father was "horribly abused as a child", Sullivan added: "I know that for certain. His father was a Welsh Druid who had been sold as a child to a ship captain who brought him over to the US. At least that’s the mentality in my family, for slavery of children to be okay. I heard this from older family members. They’ve never denied it. But my grandfather was a covert Druid as well. I’m sure he brought the religion over with him. One of the things he would do is go to the graveyard near his house and dig up bodies, then take them into the basement and take them apart and have fun with them. And he also did rituals out in the woods sometimes at night. He would sacrifice babies. And I was exposed to that. So I’m sure my father was, too, which left him no other alternative but to become like his father."

And how is this behaviour related to Satanism, or is it just generational child abuse?

"I think it’s both," she answered slowly. "And what it boils down to is these people are doing illegal activities. Criminals tend to find criminals: They tend to gravitate toward each other. It’s amazing how they can find each other out. My grandfather developed connections to the Mafia in our area. I understand it was the Colombo family. I don’t know what he did exactly, but I do have one memory of riding in a cement truck where he and other drivers with cement trucks were using the cement from the trucks to bury several bodies. So I guess they just did whatever needed to be done. That was in New York and Pennsylvania. My father was an assassin as well as other things, and these people really enjoy killing people. He killed people more for favours than for hire. He got to have as many kids as he wanted to raise.

Her father also had CIA and NASA Connections. "The CIA work seems to be rather covert. He worked for Western Electric and later on for AT&T," Sullivan said. "I found out, since then, that Western Electric has had very strong CIA des. I have been able to go through some of his papers since his death in 1990, and I have found on his desk calendar for that year that he had several contacts with NASA. Since then I have remembered that there were several facilities that he took me to that were NASA facilities. The NASA connections seem to be directly connected to the Paperclip connection. The Nazis were brought into the country and then were integrated into the NASA structure after the war."
"My father, because of his Celtic background, had very low self-esteem," continued Sullivan. "Being exposed to some of these Nazi war criminals seemed to mean a whole lot to him because he had a mother that was German. Between the Celtic background and a German mother, these men built up his self-esteem as far as being Aryan goes. He very much identified with them, and I think, from what I understand, he got a lot of his training especially from one man I knew as Dr Schwartz. He had slightly wavy black hair and very dark eyes. He was slim. I can't say his height because I was just a child. He had a definite German accent. People called him Herr Doctor or Dr Schwartz, one of the two.

Sometimes he was called Dr Black, He was a pedophile, for sure, and he was a very cold man. He liked to make kids think that they would feel safe with him, but he would do something that would upset the children and then they would be afraid of him after that."

MULTI-MODE PROGRAMMING

Sullivan said that she was used to sexually service both males and females in the Beta mode, and to do assassination, body guarding and intrusions in hostage situations in the Delta mode.

And what are Alpha, Beta, Delta and Theta programming? "Alpha was the basis for all the other programs," she continued. "It seems to be where a lot of information was stored in my memory, in my mind, that was used by programmers to develop the other programs. It's where some of my more generic alter states were also stored. Beta was the sexual servicing part of me. They also sometimes called the alter state Barbie'. It was supposed to be named after Klaus Barbie." (Like Barbie doll?)

Survivors Cathy O'Brien and Brice Taylor were also subjected to Beta, or sex-slave, programming. They, like actress Marilyn Monroe, were called "presidential models" mind-controlled slaves for the use of high-level politicians. According to Springmeier's book: "In 1981, the New World Order made training films for their novice programmers. Monarch slave Cathy O'Brien was used to make the films How To Divide a Personality and, How To Create a Sex Slave. Two Huntsville porn photographers were used to help NASA create these training films."

Sullivan recalled: "I was used both as a child anti as an adult in those alter states, and I had more than one. In those alter states I would not resist. I had no anger. I was an absolute sexual slave and I would do whatever I was told to do."

Delta programming is military-assassin; programming that has trickled into popular consciousness through movies like La Femme Nikita, its American remake Point of No Return, and The Long Kiss Goodnight.
Regarding the Delta programming, Sullivan said: "It was when I was used to do hits, kills, and also body guarding and hostage extraction. I had a great number of alter personalities that had specialized training and had different modes to do different things."

Why was the training kept separate for different alters? "Part of it was so I wouldn't recall too much at any one time if I did start to remember," she said. "And also because they hand-pick each pan out for a certain type of situation. If you had a part coming out that was very loyal to people that that part was body guarding, you don't want that part going off and killing somebody. And you don't want a part that's specifically programmed in kill.

Coming out and feeling sorry for the target. So you have to keep the emotions and the motives separate as well. And so that's why they had to have different parts."

Sullivan's description of Theta programming seems to correlate with the development and use of so-called extrasensory powers and extra physical abilities.

"Theta was where they used-I don't like the word 'psychic' because I think it's been so misused-thought energy," she said. "I just knew it as magnetic-type energy from the individual to do a number of different things that they were experimenting with, including long-distance mind connection with other people, even in other countries. I guess you would call it 'remote viewing' where I could see what a person was doing in another state in a room or something like that. "It was both a actual programming and experimentation. Because what they did was they kept it encapsulated in several parts of me, several altered states. It was a lot of training, a lot of experimentation."

Theta programming also implies the use of thought energy to kill someone at a distance.

"A lot of times I ran across other victims with Theta programming," Sullivan said in a recent CKLN radio interview. "One of the movie and book themes they used extensively was Dune, by Frank Herbert. It won't be too hard to figure because what they taught us was that we could cause things to happen to other people. It was to build up rage inside. It would come out in a form of pure energy that would hit them... They had talked about people imploding internally in their digestive organs. I don't know because I can't see what goes on inside another body, but I do know that it does work."

The calculated admixture of doing good and evil seems to be a hallmark of the Illuminati methodology. It's as if they recognize, at a spiritual level, that all the horrible karma they create can be balanced by generous philanthropic gestures; for example, giving a billion dollars to the United Nations, or other nations of extraordinary compassion.

"Also, they tried to use me for hands on healing because I had a grandmother who was a healer from Sweden," said Sullivan. "So they were trying-that was me and several other survivors I've talked to since-to use them in that mode also.
And hands-on healing means that you would focus electromagnetic energy into the other person’s body."

BRICE TAYLOR'S ORDEAL

Another book, Brice Taylor’s Starshine: One Woman's Valiant Escape from Mind Control, corroborates the experiences of Cathy O'Brien and K. Sullivan. Even though it, too, is a fictionalized account, the book clearly indicates that major crimes have been and are still being committed by the major players of the world’s power elites.

Brice Taylor was also a "presidential model", and in a recent interview she went into intimate details of her many experiences with politicians promoting the New World Order.

"What it [being a presidential model] means," she explained, is that your program is to have sex with presidents: and I did overhear this, that different politicians were encouraged to use CIA escorts for sex, so they wouldn't be in a vulnerable position if they ever disclosed any national security secrets to anyone on the outside, or for blackmail."

And how would she characterize this so-called New World Order? "It is an attempt to bring in a One World Government in which elite families have things the way they want. Their belief was that the planet was overpopulated and that something bad to be done: psychological and biological warfare. They considered mind control as a tool, their ace in the hole-something really different that would act as an invisible weapon."

ADVENTURES WITH HENRY K. AND THE COUNCIL

In her recovery, Brice Taylor also had memories of being used by Henry Kissinger as a mind-controlled courier.

"If you program someone to have a perfect photographic memory and total recall, then you have the capacity to be able to deal with many different tasks and assignments simultaneously," she explained. "Henry Kissinger created a 'mind file' inside of my head. I would be sent around to all these leaders to keep their data --on some of their projects or whatever their agenda was--sorted. When they'd meet people, I would be programmed by either Kissinger or Nelson Rockefeller: This was in the mid-1960s."

But who's running the 'show'? "I think there's this other layer that I call 'The Council' in my book," Taylor explained. "I know that this is a group of men that stand head and shoulders above even Kissinger and the Rockefellers. They have been genetically engineered in a way that they have [she hesitated, searching for the right words] different leadership abilities, and they are actually the ones running the plan."

They refer to themselves as "the Council"?
"Yes. When I was telling other people within the intelligence community about it that was involved in it, they said they call themselves 'the Council'. The CIA has all these mind-control operatives that are working for the government. Then there's the Council, which also understands about the mind-control project. But the Council is not CIA-controlled. They could take someone like myself and be able to debrief me to find out what my agenda was."

MULTIPLE BAD MEMORIES

And how did Ms Taylor first figure out she was suffering from MPD and that she was a programmed multiple?

"It started in 1985," said Taylor. "I had a very serious car accident in which my head went through the windshield. I began to have memory flashes like a memory bleed-through from one alter to another. I think what occurred was I begun having access to both sides of my brain. Before, with all the sophisticated programming, half my brain was shut away from me. Now the neuron pathway; had opened up because of the accident. I know of other women who have also had memories come hack."

So a blow to the brain had broken up the programming?

"Exactly," she said. "They programmed me with perfect photographic memory. When memories came back, like the ones with Kissinger, I not only could hear his words and his voice, I could smell his cigar. I could smell his farts. I mean, I could hear and see as I remembered everything in my mind."

THE SATANIC RITUAL MURDER CONNECTION

Missing children, sexual abuse of children and pedophilia around the world all point to the involvement of an organized network of high-level criminals who covertly control the legal system. Former FBI agent and private investigator Ted Gunderson agrees. He claims "there's a considerable overlap from various groups and organizations, but one of the driving forces is the satanic cult movement today".

In his video, Satanism and the CIA’s International Trafficking in Children, Gunderson refers to the notorious black magician Aleister Crowley. "The Satanists have used his writings as a guide," he says, referring to Crowley's Magic in Theory and Practice.

In Chapter XII, "Of the Bloody Sacrifice" (p. 94), Crowley writes: "It would be unwise to condemn as irrational the practice of those savages who tear the heart and liver from an adversary and devour them while yet warm. In any case it was the theory of the ancient Magicians that any living being is a storehouse of energy, varying in quantity according to the size and health of the animal, and in quality according to its mental and moral character. At the death of the animal this energy is liberated suddenly.

"For the highest spiritual working one must accordingly choose that victim which contains that greatest and purest force, A male child of perfect innocence and high intelligence is the most satisfactory and suitable victim."
"We're talking about human sacrifice here," says Gunderson.

More recently the 'tradition' of human sacrifice has been promoted by the late Anton LaVey, founder of the Church of Satan, who wrote in the Satanic Bible (p. 88) that "the only time a Satanist would perform a human sacrifice would be if lie were to serve a twofold purpose; that being to release the magician's [sic] wrath in throwing a curse and, more importantly, to dispose of a totally obnoxious and deserving person".

Note the casual reference to murdering someone because lie or she 'displeased' the Satanist black magician. Ding-dong, LaVey is dead, but his crimes live on. He's been named by several of his victim-slaves as a mind-control perpetrator. The late 'peril' himself wrote in the Satanic Bible (p. 90) "the ideal sacrifice may be emotionally insecure, but nonetheless can in the machinations of his insecurity cause severe damage to your tranquility or sound reputation".

The Satanists, after all, follow Crowley's injunction: "Do what thou wilt. That is the law." In other words, Satanists as gods themselves will decide what to do bypassing God's laws as well as the laws of men. It sounds like the modus operandi of the Illuminati.

Gunderson makes this further comment in his video: "In my estimation, there are over three million practicing Satanists in America today. How did I come up with these figures? I have informants. For instance, in the South Bay area of Los Angeles with a population of 200,000, [an informant] told me there are 3,000 practicing Satanists. That is where the well-known McMartin Preschool case took place. I have an informant in Lincoln, Nebraska. In Iowa City, Iowa, a town of 150,000, 1,500 Satanists. It averages to about 1.5 per cent of the population."

Gunderson asserts that "...50,000 to 60,000 individuals are sacrificed every year. There are about eight satanic holidays."

The sick joke of it all? The FBI keeps a count of stolen or missing cars, but is yet to keep a tab on missing children in America.

A CRYPTO-SATANIST IN THE FBI?

You shouldn't be surprised to know that FBI Supervisory Special Agent Kenneth V. Lanning, of the Behavioral Science Unit of the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime, denies the existence of satanic ritual abuse in his 1992 Investigator's Guide to Allegations of Ritual Child Abuse. Lanning's intellectual posturing and specious reasoning should be studied as a prime example of serpentine logic. His semantics are brilliant, as he claims that "the words 'satanic', 'occult' and 'ritual' are often used interchangeably" and "it is difficult to define Satanism precisely". Then he frames the discussion of Satanism in non-judgmental terms that "it is important to realize that for some people any religious belief system other than their own is satanic". As Pilate asked "What is truth?";
Lanning asks, "What is Satanism?" He writes that at "...law enforcement training conferences, it is witchcraft, santeria, paganism and the occult that are most often referred to as forms of Satanism.

It may be a matter of definition, but these things are not necessarily the same as traditional Satanism." He almost trips over himself, declaiming the impossibility of knowing the definition. Then he dismisses satanic ritual abuse as a simple psychological problem: Obsessive Compulsive Disorder.

Of course, if he had taken the time to interview true believers, he would know that it's an actual belief system based on the ritual performance of torture and murder in loyalty to Satan and as an exchange for future rewards from the forces of darkness.

Lanning's denial, ignoring the evidence of mind-control atrocities and ritual abuse, is astonishing. Is Lanning a crypto-Satanist? He's publicly denied it, but he didn't have to bother. The US Constitution protects his "freedom of religion".

FATAL JUSTICE REVISITED

Private investigator Ted L. Gunderson was dragged kicking and screaming into the netherworld of Satanism, child kidnapping, drug smuggling and other corruption.

Before he retired in 1979, Gunderson was the FBI Special Agent in Charge in Los Angeles. He headed the FBI office, where he had 800 people under him and a yearly budget of over US$24 million. Since then, Gunderson's role as a private investigator and security consultant has led him to expose CIA drug dealing, child kidnapping and trafficking, mind control and satanic murder-for-hire groups. He has also investigated many high profile cases like the Dr Jeffrey McDonald case, the McMartin Preschool case, and Nebraska's Franklin Cover-up case, the Oklahoma City Bombing case, the Inslaw/Octopus case, and many other real-life criminal conspiracies.

"Shortly after my retirement, I was asked to investigate the Jeffrey R. McDonald case as a private investigator," said Gunderson in a recent interview. "He's a doctor who was convicted of murdering his wife and two children at Fort Bragg, North Carolina on February 17, 1970. I put in about 2,000 hours on the case. He had been convicted and sentenced to three consecutive life sentences. Much to my surprise, the evidence that I read, the information I developed ... I've established beyond any question of a doubt that this man is absolutely innocent."

Gunderson continued: "I obtained a signed confession from Helena Stokely, the girl in the floppy hat, for those who are familiar with the case. She said Dr McDonald did not commit these crimes. They were committed, she said, 'by my satanic cult group'. 'It was my initiation into the cult that night,' she said."
After a while, Gunderson realized that the McDonald case was a classic case, of US Government crime and cover-up.

"She gave me detailed information about movements within the house. She told me she attempted to ride a rocking horse in the child's bedroom that night, but she couldn’t ride it because the spring was broken. The only way she could have known that was to have been there that night.

"I submitted an 1100-plus page report in March 1981 to Judge William Webster, who was then the head of the FBI, with a personal letter to him and to the US Department of Justice. Much to my surprise, my 19 witnesses including Helena Stokely started calling me and telling me, 'Hey Ted, they're trying to get me to recant.' And I'M telling myself, 'That isn't the responsibility of the FBI. The FBI is supposed to gather information, not destroy it.' And that was my first clue that we had a serious problem in that case and in the other cases I handled. I noticed in each instance that evidence was destroyed, lost, stolen; that there were strong indications of corruption.

"So I asked myself, 'what's going on here?' And over the years I started gathering materials. Up until about two years ago, I kept saying there's a loose-knit network operating in this country, involving drugs, pedophilia, prostitution, corruption, etc. From my research, I'm convinced it's much more serious. It's much more than a loose-knit network. It is a conspiracy. And you know how the media goes after you when you use that 'c'-word. And I'm going to prove it to you. By the way, this conspiracy involves pornography, drugs, pedophilia and organized child kidnapping.

"My 'missing children' lecture documents that the Finders, an organization in Washington, DC, is a CIA front,” said Gunderson. "It's a covert operation involved in international trafficking of children."

He was referring to a US Customs Service report, which states that the Finders case is to be closed because it is "an internal CIA matter". Gunderson added: "These people – the satanic movement in the world – have set up preschools for the purpose of getting their hands on our children. The parents drop them off at nine in the morning and pick them up at night". Far-fetched? Think again. In The Law Is For All, Aleister Crowley writes: "Moreover, the Beast 666 [Crowley's reference to himself] advised that all children shall be accustomed from infancy to witness every type of sexual act, as also the process of birth, lest falsehood fog and mystery stupefy their minds whose error else might thwart and misdirect the growth of their subconscious system of self-symbolism."

SPIRITUAL WARFARE AND SATANIC IMPERIALISM

Sexual abuse of children and horrific mind-control technology may be tenets of 'faith' for the Satanist believer as well as the programmer. Or they may be symptomatic of a larger struggle on a cosmic scale.
In the end, it may be that spiritual warfare, or the clash of the absolutes, is the real reason why ritual abuse and high-tech mind control have been exposed. Meantime, satanic imperialism continues unabated, and the battle for planet Earth moves to the next stage.

DENAIL, PAIN AND ANGER – DR TOM HAWKINS

Excerpts from "President's Letter" (Dr. Tom Hawkins) "Education Matters" by Diane W. Hawkins, M.A. "Therapeutic Insights" by Dr. Tom Hawkins (Restoration in Christ Ministries: rcmoffice@rcm-usa.org)

Denial, the Key

"He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted (shattered in heart or mind), to proclaim freedom for the captives and release for the prisoners."

Isaiah 61:1

From "President's Letter"

....We are focusing this newsletter on the subject of "Denial" because of the many new insights we have recently gained concerning this key dynamic common to all cases of Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID). We are extremely excited because it seems that what we are learning may potentially speed up the healing process for people who have been deeply damaged by abuse.

While we have long recognized the role that conflict plays in creating and maintaining dissociative barriers, several years ago Diane began recognizing that "denial is the glue that holds dissociation together" and hypothesized that "when denial is no longer needed, neither is dissociation."

It was only after a prayer ministry team spent a week here this summer, however, that I fully picked up on this concept and began witnessing firsthand the phenomenal results occurring when all the reasons for denial are identified and resolved within the survivor.

.... DID is a complex disorder, and while I hope that applying this new insight will shorten the process, I do not want to give the impression that DID can now be "quickly" healed. I also want to emphasize that post-integration work needs to be done to address whatever issues remain and help the client adjust to living life as a single, whole person.

....In "Therapeutic Insights" I describe in more detail the approach I have developed over the past four years to identify the three Primary Identities of the survivor (characterized by Denial, Pain, and Confusion respectively), who are most directly related to the Core (or Original Self) and carry the strongest sense of self. I then focus more specifically on working with the Denial Identity, whom I believe is a major key to healing, and addressing the reasons this part is so invested in denial. I also share the two questions I have used in the last couple months which have seemingly led to the dramatic results I described above with the final outcome being that dissociation is no longer necessary.
"...when denial is no longer needed, neither is dissociation."

Once considered merely an annoying appendage to the diagnosis of Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID), denial is now being recognized as the glue that holds the dissociation in place. The fact is that DID would not exist without the mind's need for denial. In other words, when denial is no longer needed, neither is dissociation.

DID originates when severe, repeated childhood trauma produces intolerable conflicts which the young psyche, under extreme duress, resolves by splitting itself into separate identities. This enables part of the person to encapsulate the unbearable event so that other parts can live as if it had never occurred.

Intolerable conflicts arise whenever seemingly vital beliefs are threatened. These beliefs may involve survival, safety, functionality, identity, morality, religious commitments, or any other issue that is viewed as unable to be compromised.

For instance, most young children, because of their extreme vulnerability, believe that they cannot survive without a protective parent or caretaker. Therefore, if Daddy violently hurts the child, this creates an intolerable conflict with the child's belief concerning what is necessary for survival. The child resolves the conflict by creating a dissociative split in its own mind, which allows part of him/her to "not know" about the event and thus continue believing he/she has a protective caretaker and therefore the means to survive.

The same kind of intolerable conflict arises when a person is faced with an absolute need to function and yet is too overwhelmed by the impact of the trauma to do so or a person committed to high moral standards is forced to participate in "unthinkable" activities. Again dissociation provides the means by which part of the person can be separated from knowledge of the trauma and thus be able to do such crucial things as function normally or maintain its moral identity.

Perpetrators who understand the mechanism of dissociation may deliberately create such conflicts for their victims whenever their agenda calls for another split-off part or extreme secrecy. They can readily do this by subjecting the victims to trauma which seems unsurvivable or evokes intolerable emotions, such as life-threatening terror, humiliating shame, or unbearable guilt, or by forcing them to participate in activities which drastically conflict with their moral or religious beliefs. Each of these situations will generate an intense need to deny that the event ever occurred, which will invariably create the dissociative wall the perpetrators desire.
They can usually rest assured that the person will also be deeply invested in never taking it down as that would mean confronting the unbearable reality or emotions.

When, the key role which denial plays in both the origin and maintenance of dissociation is recognized, it creates a profound shift in therapeutic focus. No longer is it sufficient to process traumatic memories with the parts that experienced them. Instead the need for the dissociative barriers between the trauma-bearing and denial-maintaining parts must be addressed if true healing is to occur. This entails identifying and resolving the intolerable conflicts which seemingly demand their existence. This can be a very threatening process, but it will bring the focus of therapy to the true issues maintaining the dissociation.

Giving up denial can be a process for the survivor, passing through progressive stages. Often in the beginning the whole idea of being multiple may be denied. When the reality of the split-off parts is finally accepted, the reality of some, or all, of the trauma may be denied. Perhaps abuse by one perpetrator is accepted but not by another, or the memories of sexual abuse are finally accepted but not those involving anything Satanic.

Eventually the reality of the trauma in its entirety may be accepted, but "owning" it may be resisted. In other words, the primary denial-bearing identity accepts that all the horrible things happened but wants to continue to remain separated from them. Only when this key identity is willing to identify personally with the events and their implications can the dissociative barriers come down.

Since this involves a major change for the denying Core/Host rather than the trauma-bearing parts, the therapeutic focus belongs much more heavily on these identities than previously recognized. Somehow their threshold of tolerance must be raised at a deep psychological level. What was once considered absolutely unacceptable must be embraced as "ownable".

Changing this perspective will involve identifying, challenging, and correcting many false beliefs. It will also mean coming face to face with horrendous emotions and deep-seated identity issues. The truth is that becoming whole requires tremendous motivation, ego strength, and courage on the part of the survivor. When God is your partner, however, He promises to supply the grace and strength to enable you to do "all things" (Phil.4:13; 2 Cor.12:8)
"...we have been all too slow in recognizing that denial is a significant issue that cannot be ignored..."

Denial is certainly not a new concept in DID therapy. It has always shadowed the process in varying degrees. We have only recently recognized its critical importance, however. In the past, therapists generally tended to treat denial as merely a nuisance and were sure that continuing to unveil the memories would make the truth unmistakably clear, and the denial would vanish. To their dismay and astonishment, however, it often emerged as strong as ever months or even years later.

After learning about a type of dissociation at the level of the Core Self and presenting this concept to hundreds of survivors and various groups of therapists over the past four years, I have found an overwhelming majority of survivors acknowledge that part of their Core Self is holding firmly to denial. I have also come to recognize how critically important it is to address this part gently, but directly, and to work through the many conflicts this key identity has over "knowing the truth."

When bad things happened, this part seemingly concluded that it could not "know" and survive – or function – or maintain its moral integrity – or preserve some other seemingly crucial element of its existence or identity. Therefore, it built elaborate systems of alter-identities to contain the trauma and thus keep it from knowing the reality of the abuse. At the same time another part of the Core Self seems to have accepted the reality of the trauma and its accompanying pain. This part is usually separated from the part maintaining the denial by a third part that seems to act as a buffer between them, indicating the extreme investment the Core Self has in keeping the key denial and reality-oriented-identities from ever coming together. This middle part is often characterized by confusion.

We are now calling these three key identities (who are most directly related to the Original Self/Core [Original Person] and who carry the strongest and truest sense of self) the "Primary Identities." In general, we refer to them individually as the "Denial," "Confusion," and "Pain" Identities although in each specific case they may prefer slightly different designations. I always use the terms that are most comfortable to the client.

A degree of shared consciousness usually exists among these three Primary Identities, which allows them to appear as though they are functioning as one. They may do this so well that they fool most therapists – as well as themselves. Once the division among them is recognized, however, they may eventually come to realize that they are not always fully co-conscious with each other.
In dealing with the Primary Identities, you must become attuned to how subtly they can shift among themselves. I call it a "shift" rather than a "switch" because it is much less obvious than the switches which occur between alters or between the Primary Identities and alters. To recognize the almost imperceptible shifts between Primary Identities requires keen observation of any change in speech content, perspective, or body language. If the person suddenly starts talking about pain and has lost the perspective of "it never happened," the Denial Identity may have slipped away, which it is very prone to doing whenever anything is perceived to be overwhelming.

In order to address the Denial Identity, you first have to find it. While this might be easy in some cases, such as when this part serves the role of the Host, I often find that the Denial Identity is like the great Houdini, wearing a thousand faces and having a thousand ways to escape facing reality. If therapy is exposing overwhelming issues, this part will simply "not be present" just as it was "not present" when the events originally occurred.

As therapy progresses, however, and some of the alter-personality dynamics are resolved and demonic strongholds broken, the Denial Identity may not be able to hide nearly as well. The therapist must be careful, however, not to impose upon the Denial Identity (when found) the memories that other parts of the system have revealed. This will be counterproductive and in extreme cases can even result in potential lawsuits over "implanting memories."

The approach that I now recommend involves educating the system about the Primary Identities early in the therapy process. While validating the pain borne by the Pain Identity and the alters is essential upfront, I try to move quickly to help survivors identify their Primary Identities. I do this for each specific part by addressing its primary distinguishing characteristics. For instance, I might say, "I know that sometimes it probably seems like nothing bad really happened."

Once the three Primary Identities are identified, therapy becomes focused on bringing the Denial Identity to accept the reality of the trauma and all its implications, thus ending the need for the dissociation. I now see this as the key to healing. It is no easy task, however, and must be done with great care.

The first step is to help the Denial Identity understand its need for therapy. When you approach this part, you must do so without any evident agenda, however. Rather than trying to prove why you think he/she needs to be in therapy, just listen to the perspective being expressed and validate it. If you're told, "I don't believe this stuff is real," try to find a way, without lying, being flippant, or exaggerating, to identify with this belief. The most critical thing at first is to build a relationship.

Don't assume that the Denial Identity always denies everything, however. Sometimes if the survivor has been in therapy for a considerable time, the Denial Identity, when recognized, will have already accepted the reality of the DID. Nevertheless, the reality of the trauma or specific aspects of it may still be rejected.
Often the Denial Identity is aware in a general way of what's happening in therapy and can sometimes make spontaneous changes without your direct involvement.

By working gently and respectfully with the Denial Identity, you can build a relationship of trust. When this is firmly established, we have recently discovered that asking two specific questions provides a focus that seems to propel the client toward healing in a much more rapid fashion than we have previously experienced. In making this statement, I want to point out, however, that we suspect (but are not certain) that before these questions can be asked and successfully answered, the client must be far enough along in therapy that certain other key issues have already been resolved. We need more time and experience to identify just what issues this includes. At the very least it would seem necessary that they acknowledge their dissociation and are aware of the internal conflict existing concerning their alleged abuse.

The first question is, "What would happen, if you knew your entire history?" Sometimes a long list of potential disasters will spill out, such as "I would die" or "I would fall apart." Resolving these false beliefs or perceptions should then become the focus of therapy, as you will not progress very far until this Primary Identity has no more reason to resist knowing and owning the truth. While it is too soon to be dogmatic, it is possible that previous therapeutic attempts, which have tended to lead one on circuitous rabbit trails, may be due to this Primary Denial Identity resisting knowing truth.

Question 1:

Sometimes in working with the Denial Identity it is helpful to point out that not everything that has been reported by the alter-identities is to be taken as factual history occurring in the natural realm. Some of it may be the result of guided imagery or deceptive illusions directed by the perpetrator or may represent events occurring in the spiritual realm. Some of it may also be purely a matter of imagination or the result of suggestibility. When the person is no longer afraid to look at truth, he or she will probably be much more able to discern truth.

Question 2:

When all the issues hindering knowing the truth are resolved, the second question is, "Who would you be if you knew everything?" This question seems to provide a direct link to the true Core, or the Original Self, whom God created at conception. This is also generally the part who has experienced the new birth and has a "heart for God." Often when the reasons for denial are resolved, the Core's fear of facing life diminishes, and this previously protected part can take her rightful place without the need for dissociative barriers, which seem to melt away.
Admittedly, this seems to imply that healing for Dissociative Disorders is not necessarily a direct "integration," or bringing together of dissociated parts, as usually understood but rather a recognition by the Original Self that he/she can face all of life without the need to "be someone else." This seems to bring a spontaneous dissolving of the dissociative barriers. If this approach proves true, then it will be a major paradigm shift in treating the Dissociative Disorders.

While both the terminology and approach I am suggesting represent a radical change in DID therapy, I have found the general concepts regarding the Primary Identities to be extremely helpful in working with several hundred survivors. I have also been able to train people all over the U.S., Canada, and Australia in identifying and focusing therapy on these key parts, and they are confirming its effectiveness as well. Further time and experience are needed to document the validity of the newest ideas described in the last few paragraphs.

If you call us, we may be able to give you the name of someone in your area who is using this approach. We are also working to put this critical information onto a CD ROM so that it will be available on computer. In the meantime we are willing to schedule telephone time with any therapist desiring to discuss these principles and approach further. I believe they constitute a strategic "piece of the puzzle" without in any way claiming that they are the "final word" or embody all the dynamics needing to be addressed for the therapeutic resolution of DID.

MORE DEFINITIONS AND OCCULT TERMS FROM Care-giving: The Cornerstone of Healing

Abreaction A reliving of a past forgotten experience of trauma. Memories, emotional feelings and physical sensations are often a part of the reliving.

Alter Personality or Alter A distinct and separate identity with different values, a substantial range of emotions and a history of its own experiences.

Amnesia A fancy term for forgetting. Amnesia is a period of not remembering. The experience that is lost from memory by one alter is retained by another alter.

Bi-Polar Thinking or Splitting Seeing persons and objects as fitting into categories of good and bad and thinking in terms of all or nothing, black or white.
Borderline Personality  A kind of personality disorder that is usually quite resistant to progress in therapy. More therapists are beginning to believe that Borderline Personalities respond better to treatment using a cognitive framework. The authors believe that BP is a more primitive form of dissociation/coping by splitting persons and objects into categories of good and bad or bi-polar thinking.

Co-Presence  The influence of one personality on another personality who is dominating the body.

Co-consciousness  When a personality has awareness of another personality and can observe the other personality's behaviour, thoughts and experiences. Often in the beginning phases of treatment one or more alter personalities may have co-consciousness with the host personality, yet the host might have no awareness of the alter personalities or awareness of some alters, but not all alters.

Dissociation  A process of separating from an event or experience. Everyone has some ability to dissociate. Depending upon the extent of trauma and the person's ability to dissociate, a person may dissociate from emotional feelings, memory, body sensations, the total body (an out-of-body experience), or develop two or more distinct alter personalities.

Fusion / Integration / Merging  The process of joining two or more alters into a single personality. When this process takes place there is a blending of values and perspectives. The newly joined personality will retain the experiences and memories of the previously separated personalities. Integration is often an end goal of the treatment process but does not have to be achieved to reach a point of successful treatment. The primary goal is inner cooperation.

Host Personality  The personality who is "out" most of the time and is usually amnesiac to most of the abuse and alter personalities in the beginning of treatment. The role of the host is to carry on with the daily routine of life and to "fit" into society. When the host begins to be aware of alter personalities and the trauma they endured, it often feels unreal and the host will often want to deny the alters' reality due to the role and protective function the host had to maintain during the years of on-going abuse or trauma.
Personality Fragment
A part of the personality that is not fully developed and lacks the history of experiences and range of emotion that a fully developed alter personality presents.

Coven  Group of witches who gather together for ceremonies. Common number of members in a coven is thirteen.

Demons  Non-human spirits. According to the Bible, demons are angels who, along with Lucifer, rebelled against God and fell to the earth; they seek to embody living creations of God to spread their rebellion.

Dungeons & Dragons  A fantasy role-playing game which uses demonology, witchcraft, voodoo, murder, rape, blasphemy, suicide, assassination, insanity, sex perversion, homosexuality, prostitution, satanic rituals, gambling, barbarism, cannibalism, sadism, desecration, demon summoning, necromanticism, divination and many other teachings.

There have been a number of deaths nationwide where games like Dungeons & Dragons were either the decisive factor in adolescent suicide and murder or played a major factor in the violent behavior in such tragedies. Since role-playing is used typically for behaviour modification, it has become apparent nationwide (with the increased homicide and suicide rates in adolescents) that there is a great need to investigate every aspect of the youngster's environment, including their method of entertainment, in reaching a responsible conclusion for their violent actions.

Familiar Spirit  A demonic spirit that does the bidding of a witch or medium; may also be an animal indwelled by a demonic spirit. Often just called a "familiar" - a demonic spirit that acts as an intimate servant providing supernatural counseling and aid.

Fire  Symbol used for Satan.

Full Moon  Believed to have great magical power, prime time for occult rituals.

Goat  Satan is believed to appear frequently in the form of a goat; the goat's head has been a symbol for Satan since the 16th century.

Grimoire  A book of spells; generally the property of a witch or a coven.

Halloween  October 31st is considered the day of the year most suitable for magic or demonic activity; believed by the followers to be the time when the souls of the dead revisit their former homes; a major witches' holiday.
"Heavy metal cultivates a macho image with black leather chains and spikes or studs attached to leather wrist bands, belts and jackets. When you think of heavy metal, you think of power. Women are sometimes portrayed in degrading situations. Heavy-metal album covers and videos sometimes show women being dragged around by the hair, caged or being walked on a leash like dogs. The main focus of the heavy metaler is drugs, sex and rock 'n roll. The most alarming aspect of heavy metal is its preoccupation with the occult. There [are] some subtle and not-so-subtle satanic overtones in heavy metal. Album covers include such things as illustrations of devils' heads, crucified figures, demonic babies, skeletons, pentagrams, black candles and the occult number 666." (Quotes by Darlyne Pettinicchio, probation officer from Orange County, California, Director of the Back in Control Center, New Article, The Press Enterprise, Riverside, California, May 7, 1986.)

Incantations

Using repeated words, phrases or sounds to produce magical effects.

Key of Solomon

The most famous book of spells; legends claim it was written by demons and hidden under King Solomon's throne. It has been translated into various versions used today in occult practices.

Magic

Attempting to influence or control people or events by supernatural means. Black magic is done with an evil intent, calling devils, demons and evil spirits to cause harm to another person. Magical ceremonies regularly feature rituals, symbols, costumes, dramatic invocations to spirits and incense.

Magic Circle

When a circle is drawn on a floor and used for magical ceremonies; the magical powers are believed to protect those in the circle from evil.

Necromancy

Communicating with the supposed spirits of the dead, usually by holding a bone or some other part of a corpse.

Numerology

Divination by using numbers associated with a person's name and birth date.

Sacrifice
An offering made to a deity, usually on an altar. Occult sacrifices are performed ritually to placate a god and to offer blood, the foremost symbol of life. Many occultists believe that the ritual slaughter of a sacrificial animal releases life energy that can be tapped magically and used by the magician to enter the spirit realm.

Triangle, Trinity
A symbol that in occult circles invites a spirit to appear; magicians study triangles and numbers in three.

Voodoo
The use of spells, sorcery, potions, and fetishes to control the actions of another person.

JERICHO WALLS

Joshua 4:20 - Set up a stone pillar - a declaration to say that this is the place and the time that the Lord brought us through the "Jordan". I built a stone pillar at my front door.

Joshua 6 - Do as the Israelites did - commit self to the seven days and worship and march. I used my dining room and placed all things as the Holy Spirit revealed, in the middle of the table. Every day there was something new revealed and added to the heap. All things that belonged in "my Jericho".

This came to me as a result of one of my alter personalities doing rituals to build and keep up walls around me - keeping me and others locked up inside, and God out. GOD GAVE THIS STRATEGY, IT WAS INSPIRED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT, THAT'S WHY IT WAS FRUITFUL.

DAY 1

Petition for protection of all. The battle is the Lord's!!! Petition for all counterfeit plans of the enemy to be frustrated, especially in areas of legal ground. Also Is. 54:11, etc.

The Lord gave a new job to this alter person from Joshua 5, to be like Rahab who hid the spies, she has to help God's scouts and also direct them on route so that the city can be taken for God and she and her whole household will be saved (James 2: 22, 23; 1: 21, 22). Rahab was an innkeeper and a Madame in the city of Jericho, which means, "Moon City". I also pointed out to this alter that Rahab became honoured among the Jews and still is today and also that she was included in the bloodline of Jesus.

DAY 2

More things representing certain bondages were added to the pile on the table. God spoke some more from Joshua 7, showing me to get rid of all "Archan's treasures" - all things had to be devoted to God, the sword and fire and destruction. We will not be able to continue with the war successfully if this important lesson is not learnt. The Israelites were defeated at Ai (v.12) - they became weak and discouraged like water.

DAY 3

As the two days before, I marched and worshipped God, holding my Bible open in front of me, lifting it up before me as a symbol of carrying the Ark of the Covenant, as the priests had to do. Only this is the New covenant in Hebrews 7. Also a yoke was removed and I had to be yoked with Jesus and pull alongside Him as the leader. THE BATTLE IS THE LORD'S!!!!
DAY 4

As the preceding 3 days, plus I added a picture of Egypt, a symbol of the bondage we are coming out of.

DAY 5

Same as before but today I had to add a clock, representing time and other things. God reminded me that these things are all representing the elements that the enemy used to create the strongholds (Archan's Treasures).

DAY 6

Same as before but today we had to cut soul ties and do purification. We also broke bread (communion). Added money to the heap.

DAY 7

This is the day the walls fell. I marched and praised 7 times waiting for the Lord to blow the trumpet and then shouted. And they did fall!!! I am experiencing a new freedom and lightness as if the sun came up for the first time in my life.

5 DAYS LATER

Is. 60 - The Lord gave me command to use this and speak it over. Remember Jericho was a city walled in with guards on the walls. It was totally closed up with gatekeepers at the gates. Anybody could not just come and go. The Word says that it was tightly closed up because of the Israelites. These walls of my Jericho fell on day 7 and the city was cleaned out, but "Rahab and family" needed protection and a place to stay - she became part of the family through her obedience and faith.

I started speaking Is. 60 and it became clear:

- My walls shall be called SALVATION and my gates PRAISE.
- My taskmasters are RIGHTEOUSNESS.
- My officers PEACE - (this is the 'Egypt' from day 4. Ex 1:11). Genesis 11:6 speaks of the slave and taskmasters who was set over me.
- We shall no longer be exiles locked up in the 'Moon city', but we shall be called a house of prayer - ZION!
- The sun or moon won't rule over us but God will be our light.
- We will no longer suffer violence but restitution and restoration.
- And all of this God will hasten IN HIS appointed time!!!

The following information is sourced from several speakers. Some of them have stated that their techniques and thoughts are controversial. Most admit to being on a steep learning curve.

GENERAL THOUGHTS

All of us have two vacuums in our lives.
1) God shaped vacuum which only God can fill
2) Family shaped vacuum which only family / relationships can fill

MATURE

In the life model (developmental psychology) we have the following developmental stages:

• INFANT
• YOUNG ADULT • PARENT • ADULT

Through each of the above stages there must be a helping of each other – that is what community is all about.

• TYPE A TRAUMA happens when there is deprivation or an unsafe environment.
• TYPE B TRAUMA happens when bad things happen outside of a person’s control.

Maturity is our response to God. It is something, which has to be worked out by us. God has a plan to bring redemption to us. There is a lot of ministry that goes into people with type B trauma, and often there can be positive results. Type A trauma is the one that counsellors and caring others often want to give up on, because often the results are not forthcoming. How does a person recover from type A trauma?
• Adoption
• Testing

Boundaries need to be set with adoption. What a person will often find is that as soon as a type A trauma person begins to be comforted, comparison immediately comes to the fore. They will have an escalation of anxiety, feel unloved in the face of real love, be insecure in the new unfolding security and unsafe in the new safety they find. They can have disaster fantasies and their pain levels often escalate. This however is the process of recovery!

When a person has frostbite, they have to be thawed extremely slowly, because fast heating is agonizingly painful. So the process needs to be taken slowly, although one is inclined to pour out everything the newly adopted person might need.

Healing of type A trauma includes the following two facets:
• Adoption
• Death of old identity

We never get a new identity or dream until the old ones dies. God restores and heals our capacity to give and receive life.

An associative mind will undermine mind control, so that is what the therapist will strive to help the client to achieve. The more the healing flows, the more association and the less power the mind control will have.

THOUGHTS FOR THE COUNSELLOR.

A counsellor is a trained person who is equipped with knowledge and skill to help facilitate change in the lives of people.

The following are three important points to be borne in mind:

➢ Counsellors need resources – stagnation can come about when a counsellor does not have ongoing input and encouragement.
➢ Counsellors must not be isolated – discouragement can set in when a counsellor is isolated. It is important to be in contact with other people who are in the same field. It can help to discuss case studies – BUT – GET A RELEASE FROM GOD BEFORE SHARING ABOUT SOMEBODY. There is a code of ethics in the professional world, which protects the client’s privacy and case study. As Christians, we need to be sensitive to that as well. Keep exploring information. Find ways to be accountable.
➢ Personal growth for counsellors is important. It is difficult to impart to others if we ourselves have grown stale in our walk with the Lord. The flow in our own lives will directly affect our clients.

Make an attempt to balance the spiritual / psychological issues. An approach from only a spiritual point of view can be damaging, as the issues of the soul remain unattended and vise versa. God’s guidance through prayer is imperative!
THINGS THAT CAN GO WRONG IN CHRISTIAN THERAPY.

1) Your needs as the counsellor need to be attended to as well. Do not give out without looking after yourself. Just as you teach your client to pray on the spot as a new area comes up, so do that too with yourself. Let God into A traumas and into B traumas ON THE SPOT. Take care of yourself.

2) “God will take away my pain if I ask Him”. As a carpenter, Jesus would have made yokes for plough animals. The meaning of “My yoke is easy,” is “My yoke fits perfectly” (Matt 11) You will still have a load to carry, but He will help you bear it.

3) The need to be perfect. The rain falls on the just and the unjust – God gives nourishing rain to everybody. Be inclusive in your loving. Give only good things. God is GOOD, FAITHFUL and TRUE.

POSITIVE LESSONS

1) Listen well! Respond respectfully! Take things slowly, so that the pain can get worked through.

2) Constancy in relationships.

3) Do not push too fast, ahead of the person’s preparedness to deal or cope with issues.

4) Create a support system for the client to relieve pressure on the counsellor.

5) Encourage a sense of growing – reverse perception of being a victim.

6) Ask God to take charge of evil forces.

7) The needs of the client are highest priority in the relationship.

DAMAGING MISTAKES

Quotes from counsellors:

1) I did not understand how complex it was to deal with dissociativeness.

2) The crises never cease – and the worst mistake is to think that after each crisis that the worst is over.

3) Listening to others advice rather than staying focused on God’s will.

4) Giving the impression that the therapist will fix everything.

5) Boundaries need to be kept, but confrontation usually does more harm than good – encourage through the worst of times.

NB

• Loyalty must not shift from the cult to the counsellor, it must shift from the cult to their own self

• Dependence must not be encouraged

• You are no longer helping someone if you make them dependent . Counsellor dependence is destructive and an infringement on the dignity of the individual

• Do not be over gratifying to the client

• We must respect the client’s ability to make choices and make changes for themselves

• Being there emotionally becomes internalized

• Be the template for host being able to help alters
Patients who stick with treatment really do get well and really do get out. Even with ongoing attempts to crash therapy, genuine healing that is done cannot be undone!

Healing has to occur within a relationship. Good therapy occurs within a good relationship.
Good therapy is empowering and respectful.
• Respect personal limits
• Respect client’s boundary
• Integrity is where we apply honesty and respect in our personal endeavours

There are three stages of treatment, which are presented by two different therapists in the following way:

1. Containment, stability, symptom recovery
2. Modification of traumatic memory
3. Integration and rehabilitation

or

1. Safety
2. Remembrance and mourning
3. Reconnection

Healing needs two way trust. There must be co-operation, building, communication and teaching self-comfort to the client.

Do not force the client to fit into your worldview. Rather reach out to them where they are and gently lead them through. Extremes of spirituality are damaging. ‘Greater love has no-one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends’ John 15:13. Let us put our own agendas aside, so that we may help others.

Let the needs of the client dictate the relationship – not a set agenda. Our own experience needs to be put across as just that – our experience – and not expounded as a definitive fact.

In the processing of memories, not every memory has to be remembered. In processing individual memories, all parts involved should be encouraged to work together.
From one memory, many people inside can learn and be helped.
Teaching the client methods of self-comfort are important as the therapist cannot always be there.

It is important to teach the house how to co-operate and live together.
It is a helpful thing to have a lot of team meetings inside the house and give alters opportunities to have their say. BUT NOTE – not all clients are able to visualise or have team meetings inside. Some structures in DID’s do simply not work like that. In such a case do not force the client to visualise. One can instead use something like bringing all the alters into the Name of the Lord (Eg: using Prov 18:10). Bringing them into the presence of the Lord is powerful for them and brings a feeling of safety.

Allowing the client to ramble is good and to be encouraged – it helps people to sort out their thoughts and empowers them to come to their own conclusions. It helps them to make sense out of things.

Dealing with primary conflicts will help reduce the vulnerability of the core. Groups of alters cluster around a belief system. For example, if one takes a scenario such as: “you must rape your sister or we will carry on shocking your mother” – everything relating to this will be split – even the conflict will be split.

It is very important to have a system meeting a couple of times a day (defined as intentional contact), if the client is able to do this.

Communication enhances Co-operation

Communication will:
• aid the client in identification of primary or core conflicts
• provide opportunities to strengthen intra-system and extra-system negotiations
• reduce dissociative barriers

Another issue which clients may have a deep battle with, is the ambivalence to heal. This needs to be identified and addressed. This can be a natural defense. DID clients may not want to bring it up in therapy because of fear of abandonment by the therapist. Encourage them to talk about it. If the conflict issues are extremely painful, deal with it a bit at a time, until the whole situation is more stable.

When things such as excess helplessness and dependence and excess mind control programming keep playing over and over, it helps to understand it this way: mind control can be likened to a vast menu which can be pulled down and chosen from at any time, so as to avoid dealing with obstacles. The conflict is the thing, which keeps it going.
DID is a conflict driven phenomenon stemming from trauma.

Do not ignore unpleasant or difficult alters. They will strengthen against the therapist and hold up therapy, if not helped and understood.

Remind the client that the personalities are:

PARTS OF MYSELF

Rather than

OTHER PEOPLE

The way that the client views this will affect the integration and fusion.

A few words on ACTING OUT: things like; cutting, burning, hopelessness and chaotic behaviour show the therapist that the person is having trouble tolerating the conflict. By helping and gently confronting the conflict, acting out will come to a stop. Do not ignore acting out – it is the symptom that everything inside is not well and needs to come out. Acting out is part of the big picture. They often relate to core issues eg: rejection. It would be important to find out what the core issue is.

Consider integration as one of the primary goals of treatment. As long as there is a single trauma created alter outstanding, it means there is also an abuse related conflict which remains unresolved and unhealed. Some clients are not comfortable unless they are fragmented / separate. This is evidence of continued existence of abuse related conflict. If this remains healing is not complete.

REMAINING FUNCTIONAL BUT FRAGMENTED IS NOT EQUAL TO BEING HEALED.

A WORD ABOUT DIAGNOSIS

If dissociation is confronted too early it can end up hurting the client.

- The person might be too afraid and dissociate even more
- It might feel like a repetition of failure to them
- It could be used as avoidance of responsibility or escape
- It could cause chronic dependency
SPIRITUAL DYNAMICS

1) Surrendering unacceptable parts of self for healing, while patiently waiting for the Holy Spirit to reveal new areas.
2) Pay attention to what needs attention most.
3) Along with the balanced clinical approach, spiritual dynamics are paramount.
4) Spiritual dynamics are top priority – teach each personality to call on Jesus. Use Scriptures and break destructive spiritual ties.
5) Restoration takes time – and that’s O.K.
6) You are not treating an illness, but dealing with identity and destiny. Treat the whole person.

Any spiritual intervention needs to be with
1. Client consent
2. Client understanding

The client must be emotionally stable enough for this. If they are not, it can:
1. Promote emotional instability
2. Do serious damage

Some points to remember:
• God’s power is just as available to the client as it is to the therapist.
• God wants us to empower people – not make them dependent.
• Distortion factor of DID makes them susceptible to dependence on people.
• Just changing a person’s beliefs is not the same as healing (eg: quickly getting an alter to accept Jesus)

NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE COMPLEXITY OF THE SITUATION:
These people have been
• Absolutely owned by the cult
• Absolutely accessible by the cult

Nighttime is the most vulnerable time for re-contact from the cult.

Trauma recovery and maturity = Therapy.

Blanket prayers don’t seem to make much impact on dissociated memories and dissociated pain. God’s healing needs to be directed to the place that needs healing. Pin –point bombing!

Accusations of false memories can be fatal. The client will usually be battling with this issue themselves, finding it difficult to believe and accept. So it is very confusing and discouraging if they are not believed.
Connection to Christian family is vital. It is a process for the client to come free and includes the following components:

1. Healing
2. Deliverance
3. Adoption

FOUNDATION OF TREATMENT = THE PROMISES OF GOD

FOCUS OF TREATMENT = POWER OF GOD

Bear in mind that God is all-powerful, all knowing and all present. When a Christian patient and a Christian counsellor get together for therapy, the most complete healing can take place, because of the spiritual component involved. Secular counsellors are unable to deal with the spiritual (especially demonic) side.

Although one can have strong support (and it is a proven fact that clients in strong marriages get better sooner), it must be borne in mind that a husband is not the saviour, neither the counsellor – only Jesus is the Saviour! Learn to bring Him into difficult counselling sessions straight away.

The church is the community, which God wants to use to bring people to maturity. American society is an anti-child society. People see children as a drain on economics and want to see them grown. Jesus called the children and embraced them. This anti-child view has deeply affected the church’s view as well. Children are viewed as a cost item.

Society tends to punish people who function on a low level. All the 12 step models eg: (Alcoholics Anonymous) work in a way which prevents growth of dependent relationships. They cannot allow dependence with low functioning people. People cannot come out of infancy and therefore remain 12 step attendees for the rest of their lives.

In the church we want to see people come to maturity.

If you are abused by community, as DID’s are, then they must also be restored by community.

- Adoption into a spiritual family is vital for recovery
- Adoption forms a bond (fear bonds are strongest in cult families)
- God is the one who puts adoption together
Three things which must not be overlooked in the big picture when doing spiritual ministry:

1. Ask God to loose ministering angels for healing and protection
2. Break the curses – they are the things which keep the person in bondage
3. Cast out demons where necessary

The devil has no defense and no answer for your human love reaching out to the person in the counselling room.

- The ‘land’ must be occupied little by little (Deut 7:22).
- Don’t cast demons out hastily, as the associated alter may open the door to bring the demon back.
- Premature deliverance will traumatize
- Is the individual ready to settle the issue with the Holy Spirit
- On a deep emotional subconscious level there can be a co-dependence on the demon. Bring the client to the point why the demon was there in the first place.

Seek the Lord is see if they are ready.

The church needs to accept DID people, NOT sermons, NOT doctrine, but LOVE and ACCEPTANCE.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ATONEMENT TO D.I.D.’s

- Without Jesus’ death, burial and resurrection, there is no basis for healing.
- Having Jesus Christ in their lives, gives them the ability to release what has happened to a higher power who is able to do something significant with the material.
- Some payment had to occur for the sin done against our clients.
- The atonement allows for the sin nature to be dealt with.
- There is no restoration without atonement.
- The atonement opens up clients to receive good things from God.

Satanism is a strict law. There is a terrible penalty for not saying incantations exactly properly etc. Even A. Crowley’s book is called ‘The book of the Law’ (italics mine)
Communion reversals – foundational trauma

Early memories of ‘black communion’ are important to deal with for the healing of the core, because a lot of initial splitting can occur at those early ages. One church has 39 cases where the following happened: They dealt with the alter who had the ‘black communion’, helped them work through the trauma, then had legitimate communion with an anointed Pastor in a church. All of the 39 experienced instantaneous integration and healing of the parts involved.

A spirit of death will come through ‘black communion’ and a great impartation of the demonic.

Forgiveness

Reaction keeps from being able to heal inside as much as the initial trauma eg: inner vows, bitterness etc.

♦ Forgiveness is not denying that the abuse occurred or that it wasn’t wrong.
♦ Forgiveness is being able to let go the need to carry the offence.
♦ Unforgiveness holds us in slavery.

Clients need time and opportunity to wrestle with the ‘Gethsemane’ questions, eg: Did my suffering mean anything to anybody.

Clients need time to work through the forgiveness issue.

3) The path of forgiveness of Jesus at Gethsemane

• He asked people to pray with Him / pray with your client.
• His soul was exceedingly sorrowful unto death / walk with the process of forgiveness, grieving and agony and help them let go
• His spirit was willing but His flesh was weak / they will experience the inside pulling to and fro
• An angel appeared to strengthen Him / pray for release of angels and supernatural help – because of the supernatural level of evil
• In agony He sweat drops of blood – because of the intense inner turmoil, it takes more than a simple prayer.
• He prayed even more earnestly and was in and out twice – the client will also struggle over a period of time
4) Crucifixion – yielding and releasing

The process of crucifixion is a hard thing to go through, but it tears down strongholds.

Help the client to release the demand of their heart for retribution. When release does come, they will experience and tremendous freedom and new heights.

4) Burial

Forgiveness begins to release an inner death, which starts to erode the strongholds which are in place. Jesus was three days in the ‘belly’ [heart / deepest part] of the earth. During this time an incredible transformation took place. This symbolism of Jesus in the tomb is powerful. There will come an inner death in the heart of the structures. During this time of the process the client can suffer incredible tiredness and exhaustion. Ps 16 is good to give clients for encouragement. They will not be abandoned in the grave – they WILL be filled with joy!

5) Resurrection

This is a picture of the new structures which develop on the inside of the client. It is the life of God inhabiting the person. They need to be reassured that they are not going to die or disappear. God works with what is going on inside and it is a process that occurs.

Forgiveness is a therapeutic goal and cannot be done just at one point in time.
WORKING WITH CULT-IDENTIFIED ALTERS

Cult identified alters can be:
- Hostile
- Intimidating
- Violent
- Mind controlled
- Conditioned
- Tend to self injury
- Sabotage ongoing treatment
- They can be adolescent but pretend to be older

They endured the worst of the abuse and betrayal.
Remember! They are a symptom of the larger problem – not the problem!

INTOLERABLE TRAUMA = INTOLERABLE CONFLICT

This is too much for the person to hold together. Chaos and addictive behaviour with other symptoms will prevail until the conflict gets resolved. Multiplicity is a conflict driven phenomenon.

MEMORY
SPLIT

Acting out, depression and cult behaviour all indicate an inability to cope with conflict.

Healing is scary, it often carries with it the loss of identity. The host can also lose his/her identity.

In the above context, it will be a mistake to force any therapeutic agenda. This is not the time to clamp down on the cult alters. In processing the trauma, Parts can be rigid and illogical eg: “I am in control” or ‘I like pain” Help them to deal with the conflict. The angrier they become, the more threatened they feel. There will be a lot of guilt and shame to be dealt with.
DARK ALTERS ARE WAR HEROES!

One client who viewed her dark alters as war heroes, offered them a medal or a parade to honour them. After this, her whole system just opened up and the co-operation level escalated.

Check before casting out demons that they aren’t alters. (These can often be between 4 and 8 years old). Sometimes they have been told that they are demons and act as if they are.

CORE ISSUES

Abandonment
Dividedness

CORE ISSUE

God addresses core issues much in His Word

1st sin - the action
2nd sin - the reaction

STRONGHOLD BUILD

this sets in motion things that will come back later in life

THE D.I.D. AND MARRIAGE

D.I.D.’s in strong intimate marriages tend to get better quicker.

God created both men and women with the need for:
• Approval
• Acceptance
• Affirmation
• Comfort
• Encouragement
• Security
If these needs are not met, the following responses result:
- Rejection
- Anger
- Bitterness
- Fear

Each person has an emotional cup and these peoples’ emotional cups are so filled with pain, that they are completely unable to store happy emotions. There is just too much pain for them.

Men avoid conflict / women pursue conflict

The trauma which the client has experienced:
- Divides
- Brings distrust
- Anger
- Poor relationships
- Prevents them from forming intimate relationships

In this area, FORGIVENESS is a vital area to deal with. HOWEVER, the anger and pain must be dealt with, before forgiveness can flow. Never push the forgiveness aspect, as the client must be ready to deal with the issues.

- RESENTMENT AND BITTERNESS IS ABOUT THE PAST
- FEAR IS ABOUT THE FUTURE

Perfect love (again and again) needs to be poured into the person. This is how a person can deal with FEAR (perfect love casts out fear – (I John 4:18)

IT IS VITAL TO EDUCATE THE SPOUSE ABOUT D.I.D.

SOME THOUGHTS ON HANDLING TRAUMA

With trauma, some people can sometimes shatter rather than dissociate. Some schizophrenics are examples of this. The ability to cope with life at a later stage can then be severely impaired.

TWO TYPES OF TRAUMA ARE COMMONLY USED WITH PROGRAMMING

- SENSORY OVERLOAD TRAUMA – this is when the child is subjected to pain etc. – where things are done to them. These types of trauma will cause a sensory overload in the brain.

- SENSORY DEPRIVATION TRAUMA – examples of these types of trauma are: burying / sensory deprivation tanks / blindfolding etc.
Sensory deprivation is even more psychologically disorganising for a child than sensory overload. If children are given a choice between the two types, they will invariably choose sensory overload. Eg: they will choose a beating rather than to be locked in their rooms alone.

In early stages of development, children are unable to cope with or process isolation.

When working through the different memories, it is very important to process both these types of trauma thoroughly. The deprivation traumas are generally more difficult to work through, because they are difficult to recount. Deprivation is also more difficult to integrate into consciousness – how do you integrate a huge void? Understanding is required of the severity of the deprivation. Encourage the client to try to describe the experiences. Don’t move on because it’s too hard to deal with. This is one of the areas that really needs to be attended to.

COMFORT:
For people trying to work through various traumas THE SMALLEST AMOUNT OF COMFORT MAKES AN ENORMOUS DIFFERENCE.

If the perpetrator group can make sure that the child never gets comfort, it has a profound negative affect on the healing process. A systematically overwhelming compulsion to self injure gets built in. As soon as the slightest anxiety arises, the person will re-traumatize himself or herself. This makes everything easier for the cult. The person therefore is made their own worst enemy, without the cult needing to be nearby. Acting out suppresses the intolerable effect of the trauma and keeps the person’s adrenaline addiction high.

The more fragile the client, the more they tend to act out and hurt themselves.

FRAGILE PEOPLE NEED A LOT OF EXTERNAL SUPPORT

There is a difference between foundational and additional trauma. Foundational trauma is the one that affects the person’s entire worldview – it seeps into all their thinking and deeply affects their lifestyle.

Traumatization does not only take place in the body, it also affects all the beliefs and things that happen in the mind.

When the stress level goes up in a child, so does the need for attachment.

It is essential for therapists, Pastors, supportive individuals and family to realise that the natural tendency of the survivor is to seek attachment under stress. However, no one can provide an attachment relationship that will substitute for healthy primary attachment. Furthermore, the individual must develop independence and autonomy and this is not fostered by attachment seeking, because attachment seeking is regressive.

If the therapist can provide autonomy, this works towards and independent integrated lifestyle.
BORDERLINE

Borderline personality disorder is a pervasive pattern of instability in interpersonal relationships, self image and marked impulsivity, characterised by any number of the following types of behaviour:

- Frantic efforts to avoid real or imagined abandonment
- Pattern of unstable and intense interpersonal relationships characterised by alternating between idealisation and devaluation
- Identity disturbance markedly and persistently unstable self image or sense of self
- Impulsivity in at least two areas that are potentially self damaging
  1) Spending of money
  2) Sex
  3) Substance abuse
  4) Binge eating etc.
- Suicidal behaviour, gestures, threats, self mutilating behaviour
- Affective instability due to a marked reactivity of moods
  1) Chronic feelings of emptiness
  2) Inappropriate intense anger or difficulty controlling it
- Transient stress related paranoid ideation

Long term follow up studies seem to indicate that this condition improves with age. In the twenties age group the suicide rate is approximately 8%, which dwindles significantly in the thirties group.

WHAT IS THE PROCESS OF GETTING THIS WAY?

These people are vulnerable from birth, both psychologically and biologically. The mix of
- Developmental trauma
- Environmental chaos
- Genetic predisposition results in a potent and devastating final pathway of these very particular signs and symptoms. These are people, who biologically are temperamentally more anxious and irritable and may have increased history of neurological and attention deficits and learning disabilities. These are people who genetically have significantly increased family history of various mood disorders, in particular, major depression. Borderline parents have borderline children – abuse begets abuse.

- Sexual abuse
- Physical abuse
- Emotional abuse or often all three

The duration, intensity, type and age of patient are all significant. The more severe the abuse, the more severe the borderline.
In the history of the parents and close relatives, the following will be found:
• Increased substance abuse
• Witnessed violence in the home

There will be severely pathologic responses on the part of the developing child.
1) Terrible inability to tolerate separation – literally nothing inside to sustain them in the absence of external support
2) Profound feelings of inner emptiness, a hole, a void which is never filled up – a literal disintegration of self. They don’t know who they are and experience the following
• Feel utter panic
• Feel they are going to disappear or disintegrate - this leads to dissociativeness
• Do not feel anything
• Experience oral rage – a ravenous need to devour – to take in – to swallow a sustaining presence
• Try to soothe themselves with alcohol, binge eating, drugs, sex and impulsive behaviour
3) Intense attachment needs have been severely frustrated which leads to obsessive and futile search for mother substitutes with clinging desperate dependency. There is no soothing internalised image to sustain them. Often they have harsh punishing, frightening images which terrorise them when they are by themselves. Hence the need for attention.
4) Prolonged use of transition objects (blanket, dummy etc.) into adulthood. They are trying to bring into the present some form of loving un-hurtful presence.
5) Tendency toward paranoid attitude (expectation that you will hate them and hurt them). Projection outward of all that is inside these people. You can feel the projected hate and fear towards you. When it is not projected outward, it is kept inside and brings with it self loathing, suicide etc.
6) They have a tendency to use splitting as a defense. Splitting is the inability of borderline to see people as whole, complex mixtures of good and bad. Experience of good for these people was very little and experience of bad was overwhelming – so they become afraid of contaminating the good. They separate – all good / all bad. They tend to see others as all good or all bad and experience themselves this way.
7) Self mutilation – there are many reasons for this. It is an attempt at rescue from intense rage and self loathing. It is a distraction from painful memories.

Goals of treatment
♦ To better tolerate anxiety and increase control of impulses
♦ Integrate their internally split images and have more coherent and sustained view of themselves and others
♦ Firm establishment of some internal soothing, sustaining presence which will help them tolerate being alone, tolerate separations and give a semblance of normal life.
Problems
Patients often:

- Quit
- Act out destructively
- Make inordinate demands for special treatment
- Provoke what is called ‘boundary crossing’ to get you to do things with them which you would never consider with any other patient
- Torment the therapist with unrelenting phone calls and visits
- Rapidly develop intense negative feelings towards you – ‘paranoid transference’ which sees you, the therapist as hurting and harming them
- Develop idealising ‘you are perfect’. Fall in love with the therapist, which can lead to erotic transference

Some are close to the psychotic border, some to the neurotic border and some inbetween.

Tailor treatment:
1) Maintain a stable treatment framework. These are chaotic people who need help with establishing stability. Keeping consistent times of therapy is helpful for them.
2) Avoid a passive stance. Their interpretation of silence would be that you are harbouring some murderous thoughts towards them. You need to talk lots with them. Teach them to verbalise.
3) Containment of anger. These are rageful patients. Hold their anger and do not give it back. This will help them to soften and lessen the rage. Don’t take it personally. Have empathy.
4) Confront self destructive behaviour. Because they cannot see long term, they will need you to help them in this area.
5) Help them to connect between feelings and actions. Action is the language of borderlines. They are utterly overwhelmed by emotion.
6) Limit the setting. It is often good to draw up a contract or ground rules – eg: no phone calls between session.
7) Stay in the here and now – help them to move out of regression.
8) Transference – when the therapist experiences fear, shame etc. or any stray feeling in response to the patient. Be aware of it and deal with it straight away.

Hebraic Translation

"YHVH will kneel before you presenting gifts, and He will guard you with a hedge of protection, YHVH will illuminate the wholeness of His Being toward you, bringing order, and He will provide you with love, sustenance, and friendship, YHVH will lift up the wholeness of His Being and look upon you, and He will set in place all you need to be whole and complete."

The Priestly Blessing

May the LORD bless you and keep you

May the LORD make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you

May the LORD lift up his face to you and give you peace

1 This blessing is (ritually) recited (by the kohanim) during synagogue services during Nesiat Kapayim ("the Raising of the Hands"), though it is also recited over children on Friday night before the start of the Shabbat meal or as a bedtime blessing.

2 The name YHVH (יהוה) represents God's attributes of love and mercy (חסד ורחון), in contradistinction to the name Elohim (אלהים), which represents God's attribute of justice and power as our Creator.

3 Jewish tradition considers this both material and spiritual prosperity. Pirkei Avot 3:15 says, "If there is no flour, there is no Torah," by which is meant that material benefits are intended to help you pursue study of Torah. The first occurrence of the word "blessing" in the Scriptures pertains to pru urvu (בראשית ויבא ויבא), "be fruitful and multiply" (Gen. 1:22).

4 To guard, protect, heed, as in the exercise of diligent care. Only God has the power to secure the conferred blessing and keep it from turning sour or from fading away.

5 The word for "face" (פנים) is plural with the 3rd person singular ending. It is considered metaphorical since God is incorporeal. The plural form is thought by some to indicate God's revealed and hidden attributes in creation.

6 The hiphil verb (רהש) comes from the word "light" (רחש), and is thought to refer to God's wisdom. "May God enlighten you" with His wisdom, i.e., the Divine Light that preceded the work of creation (Gen. 1:3).

7 May God grant you grace or favor (נאה), i.e., to understand the "breadth and length and height and depth" of God's love (Eph. 3:18). Grace refers to the bestowal of an undeserved gift. The blessing is bestowed even though unearned or unmerited.

8 Since one's face is an indication of the heart's attitude, Rashi says that this means God will suppress His anger by "looking at you" (if God is angry at you, He "turns His face away" and refuses to admit your presence). The "lifting of face" also pictures God lifting you up as a father might lift up his child in joy. The "showing of face" indicates spiritual intimacy.

9 All of the other blessings are useless without the establishment of inner peace, and therefore it is the seal of the blessing. Shalom (שלום) is not simply the absence of strife, but a balance and harmony between the finite and infinite, the temporal and the eternal, the material and the spiritual realms. Shalom is a gift from Sar Shalom (שר שלום), the Prince of Peace.
